THE PREFACE.

THIS Little Book, having past so many Impressions, both in Scotland and England, within the last Fifty Years, (for it is near that Time, since it first was Printed) and being commended by the Acceptance of the Saints, needeth nothing more, especially from so obscure a Hand, to recommend it. But having known the Author, I would willingly Acquaint the World with somewhat of his Character, under one Hint about his Book. It is to us Authors we owe the first Mention of Personal Covenanting with God. We have heard more, far more, of making National Covenants for Reformation; and of Church Covenants for mutual Gospel-Fellowship, than we have seen of the keeping of them. But Mr. Guthrie first wrote Personal Covenanting, as far as ever I could learn; And that, not till he had consulted many both Ministers and Christians. He having opened the Door, several have followed, but, Non passibus æquis; and by the length and artificial Method in their Schemes of such Covenants, have put the Practisers thereof in no small Danger of running the Matter into a dry Formality, the Bane of all Holy Things. But it is plain that this Author design'd nothing in his short Form of Words, but to cloath the Act of Saving Faith in Christ, in such Expressions as suit the Experience of every Believer.

Mr. William Guthrie, was the Eldest Son of a Country-Gentleman in the Shire of Angus in Scotland, of a good Family, and of a competent Estate. After he had past his Course of Philosophy at the University of St. Andrews, he did go to the New College there, where Theology and the Hebrew are Taught, by several Professors. And it was then no rare Thing, for Young Gentlemen that had no Design of engaging themselves in any of the three Learned Professions, of Law, Physick, or Divinity, to spend some Time at that College. Then, and there, it pleased the Lord, who had separated him from his Mother's Womb, to call him by his Grace, by the Ministry of Excellent Mr. Samuel Rutherford, and this Young Gentleman became one of the first Fruits of his Ministry at St. Andrews. His Conversion was begun with great Terrors of God on his Soul, and was compleated with that Joy and Peace in Believing, that did Accompany him through his Life. Upon this Blessed Changewrought in him, he did immediately resolve to Obey the will of God, to serve him in the Ministry of the Gospel, which was given him with the Lord's calling him effectually to Grace and Glory: And he did for this end so dispose of his outward Estate (of which he was Born Heir) as not to be entangled with the Affairs of this Life. After some Time spent in Study, he was called to Preach, and quickly after was settled in a Congregation in the West of Scotland, and did Shine in that Place, till a few Months before his Death, that he was driven away by Persecution, in 1665. In this Place, he labour'd with great Diligence, and with no less Success, himself owned to the Lord's Praise, when he said that there was hardly any under his Charge, but were brought to make a fair Profession of Godliness, and had the Worship of God in their Families; And it was well known, that many of them were Sincere, and not a few of them, Eminent Christians. The Love he had to his People, made him stiffly refuse all Calls and Invitations, to Glasgow or Edinburg, or Stirling, (where his own Cousin, Grave Mr. James Guthrie was Minister, (afterward Christ's faithful Martyr whom I saw Die in and for the Lord, at Edinburgh, June 1st, 1661.) and pleaded much in a General Assembly, that he might have his Ministry in that City, which was Malignant and Prophane at that Time. But all to no purpose. In this Place, though an obscure One, save by his Ministry, he spent all his few Days, except as is said. I have heard several Judicious Ministers and Christians observe this of him, that whereas many Worthy Ministers have Out-liv'd their Zeal, the Vigor of their Gifts, and their Acceptance with the Godly; this Blessed Man rather encreased in all these to the last.

His Stature was Tall and Slender, his Aspect Grave. His Natural Temper was Cheerful, Witty and Facetious, yet temper'd with Gravity becoming a Minister of and of Christ. I have seen somewhat of this amiable Mixture in him my self; And have many heard from many Intimate with him, that few of them have admired this in him, that immediately after his Recreations, and singular sallies of Wit and Innocent Mirth; when called to Pray, he would speak to God with that Holy Awe, and Faith, and Love, and Life, as if we had come down from the Mount.

His Gifts were great; Strong Natural Parts; A clear Head, and a sound Heart.
His Voice was of the best sort; Loud, and yet managed with Charming Cadencies and Elevations. His Oratory Singular, and by it he was Master of the Passions of his Hearers. His Action in Preaching was more than Ordinary; yet was it all Decent and Taking in him. I have oft thought him in this, the likest to the Famous Mr. John Rogers, of Ded- ham in Essex, by the Character I had of him by many; and especially from his Kinsman, Mr. William Jenkyn, who died Christ's Prisoner in Newgate, 1684.

In Preaching, Praying, dealing with distress'd Consciences, and in pleading for the Cause of God in the Assemblies of Ministers; he was Eminent, and generally

nerally so Esteemed in his Day, which I do well remember.

I have heard many Passages of God's Presence with him, and of his Blessing of his Labours, which I forbear to mention; both because it is unfit to give a long Preface to a short Book; and because I am not without hope, that some will think it fit, to make this Great Man better known.

The main humbling Thing, that attended him, (next to the Apostacy in the Land; and cruel Persecution of the Church of Christ in it) was a crazy Body, afflicted much with the Stone, and at last with an Ulcer in his Kidneys, which brought him to his Grave, in 1665. when he had lived little above Forty Two Years.

This was the Man, that the Rulers in Scotland could not then bear; But tho' the Love and Esteem, that most of the Neighbouring Nobility and Gentry bare to him, did prevail, for a Year or Two, to preserve him in his Place, after many of his Brethren were cast out: Yet at length, a Party of the King's Guards, was sent to turn him out, and to put a Stranger in his Place. Unto which Violence, nce, he gave way ; and went on a Vito his Friends, where he was quickly ized with a Fit of his Distemper, and ed, in 1665. in Angus ; I have oft seen m, convers'd with him, and have heard m Preach. And if my Youth then, did ake me an unfit Judge of his real great orth, yet his Name was so Famous, s Ministry so Followed, especially in his st two or three Years, by many Ejected inisters, and so many of Desolate Conegations, (and both were multiplied in tal 1662.) that I do but declare what Scotland, that Mr. Guthrie was every ay an Eminent Gospel-Minister. I had so a special Advantage for knowing e Spirit of this Great Man. My own ears a constant Weekly Correspondence y Letters, many of which from Mr. Guthrie to my Father, I did ; Peruse, and veral of them I have still by me, writ-

This was the Great Man, the Author of this small Book ; and it is all that he some Honest, but unjudicious Hand, that declare little of the true Spirit of the Author. This much I have said at a slender Desire of the Re-printer of the Book, as judging it both my Duty and my Honour, to declare what I have seen and heard of this Excellent Person. And if any think strange, that I, who am none of the oldest Men, can so freely give a Character of a Person who hath been near Forty Years Dead; I can tell them, that besides the commonness of this same Judgment of him, with Thousands, in the West of Scotland to this Day, (of whom, many will Censure this Account as very Lame and Defective,) I have on Record by me in Writing for several Years, some singular Things concerning him, which I forbear to Publish.

TO THE READER.

Christian Reader,

WHile the generality of Men, especially in these Days, by their eager Pursuit after low and base Interests, have proclaimed as upon the House Tops, how much they have forgotten to make Choice of that better Part, which (if chosen) should never be taken from them; I have made an Essay, such as it is, in the following Treatise, to take thee off from this unprofitable, though painful Pursuit, by proposing the choicest of Interests, even the Christian's Great Interest, to be seriously pondered, and constantly pursued by thee: thou mayest think it strange, to see any Thing in print from my Pen; (as indeed it is a Surprise to my self) But Necessity hath made me for this once to offer so much Violence to my own Inclination, in regard that some, without my Knowledge, have lately Published some imperfect Notes of a few of my Sermons, most confusedly cast together, prefixing withal this vain Title (as disagreeing to my self, as the Publishing of the Thing)

A Clear

To the Reader.

A Clear Attractive Warming-Beam, &c. Upon this Occasion I was prevailed with to Publish this little Piece, wherein I have purposely used a most homely and plain Stile, lest otherways, (though when I have stretched my self to the utmost, I am below the Judicious and more Understanding) should be above the reach of the Rude and Ignorant, whose Advantage I have mainly, if not only consulted: I have likewise studied Brevity in every Thing, so far as I conceived it to be consistent with Plainness and Perspicuity; knowing that the Persons to whom I Address my self herein, have neither much Money to spend upon Books, nor much Time to spare upon Reading. If thou be a Rigid Critick, I know thou mayest meet with several Things to Carp at, yet assure thy self, that I had no Design to Offend thee, neither will the simple Approbation satisfy me; It's thy Edification I intend, together with the Incitement of some others, more Expert, and Experienc'd in this Excellent Subject, to handle the same at greater length, which I have more briefly hinted at, when I am,

The Trial of a Saving Interest in CHRIST.

Since there be so many People living under the Ordinances, pretending without ground a special Interest in Christ, and to his Favours Salvation, as is clear, Mat. 7. 22, 23. and 25. 11. Luke 13. 24. And since many who have good ground and of claim to Christ, are not established in confidence of his Favour, but remain in the dark, without Comfort, hesitating concerning the reality of Godliness in themselves, and Speaking little to commendation of Religion to others, especially in the time of their Straits, I shall speak a little to Things of greatest Concernment. The one is, how a Person shall know if he hath a true and special Interest in Christ, and whether he doth lay just claim to God's Favour and Salvation? The other is, in case a Person shall short in the foresaid Tryal, what course shall take for making sure God's Friendship and Salvation to himself?

Quest. 1. How shall a Man know if he hath a true special Interest in Christ, and whether he hath any lay claim justly to Gods Favour and Salvation?

Ans^r.

Ans. Before we speak directly to the Question, we shall premise some Things to make way for the Answer: As, 1. That a Mans Interest in Christ, or gracious State, may be known, and that with more certainty then People do conjecture; yea, and the knowledge of it may be more easily attained unto then many do imagine: For, not only hath the Lord commanded Men to know their Interest in him, as a thing attainable, 2 Cor. 13. 5. 2 Pet. 1. 10. But many of the Saints have attained unto the clear perswasion of their Interest in Christ, and in God, as their own God; How often do they call him their God and their Portion? And how perswaded is Paul, that nothing can separate him from the Love of God? Rom. 8. 38, 39. Therefore the knowledge of a Mans gracious State is attainable and his knowledge of it, which may be attained is no Fancy and bare Conceit, but it is most sure Doubtless thou art our Father, saith the Prophet in the name of the Church, Isa. 63. 16. It is clear thus, 1. That can be no Fancy, but a very sure Knowledge, which doth yield to a rational Man Comfort in most real Straits: But so doth this, 1 Sam. 30. 6. When the People spake of stoning David, he encouraged himself in the Lord his God, Psal. 3. 6. he saith there, he will not be afraid of ten thousand that rise against him. Compare these Words with ver. 3 of that Psalm, Psa. 27. 1, 3. Although all host encare against him, he is confident in this. 2. That is a sure knowledge of a thing, which maketh a wise Merchant sell all he hath that he may keep it sure; that maketh a Man forgo Children, Lands, Life, and suffer the spoyling of all joyfully: But so doth this Mar. 13. 44. Mar. 10. 28, 29. Heb. 10. 34. Rom. 8. 32. 5. 41. 3. That must be a sure and certain knowledge knowledge, and no Fancy, whereupon a Man voluntarily and freely doth adventure his soul, when he is stepping into Eternity with this Word in his mouth, This is all my desire. But such a knowledge is this, 2 Sam. 23. 5. And again, Not only may a godly Man come to the sure knowledge of his gracious State, but it is more easily attainable than many do apprehend: For (supposing what shall be afterwards proved, that a Man may know the gracious work of Gods Spirit in himself if he will not argue rationally, from thence he shall be forced to conclude his Interest in Christ, unless he deny clear Scripture Truths. I shall only make use of this here, because we are to speak more directly to him afterwards. A godly Man may argue thus: Whosoever receives Christ, are justly reputed the children of God, Joh. 1. 12. But I have received Christ all the ways which the Word there can import; for, I please the device of Salvation by Christ, I agree to the Terms; I welcome the offer of Christ, I call all his Offices, as a King, to rule over me, a Priest to offer and intercede for me, as a Prophet to teach me; I lay out my Heart for Him and toward Him, resting on Him as I am able; what else can be meant by the word receiving? Therefore may I say and conclude plainly and warrantably, I am justly to reckon my self Gods Child, according to the aforesaid Scripture, which cannot fail.

The second Thing to be premised, is, That a Man savingly in Covenant with God, is a matter of highest Importance; it is his Life, Deut. 32. 47. and yet very few have or seek after a saving Interest in the Covenant; and many foolishly think they have such a thing without any solid ground, Mat. 7. few find or walk in the narrow way. This should alarm People to be serious about the matter, since it is of so great consequence to be in Christ, and since there be but few that may lay just claim to him, and yet many do foolishly fancy an interest in him, who are deceived by a false Confidence, as the foolish Virgins do, Mat. 25.

The third Thing to be premised, is, Men must resolve to be determined by Scripture, in this matter of their Interest in Christ. The Spirit speaking in the Scripture, is Judge of all Controversies (Isa. 8. 20. To the Law and the Prophets; and if it speak not according to these, there is no Truth in it) and of this also, whether a Man be savingly in Covenant with God, or not. Therefore do not mock God whilst you seem to search after such a thing. If we prove from Scripture (which is the uncontroverted rule) that you are gracious, and have stricken Covenant savingly with God, then resolve to grant so much as to acquiesce in it: And if the contrary appear, let there be a determination of the Controversie; else you do but mock the Lord, and so your bonds shall be made strong, Isa. 28. 22. for, a jot of his Word cannot fail, Mat. 5. 18. Therefore seek Eye-salve from Christ to judge of Things, according as the word of God shall discover them to be.

The fourth Thing to be premised, is, Although the matter of a Man's Interest in Christ be of so great importance, and the way to attain to the knowledge of it, so plainly held forth in the Scriptures, yet there be but few who reach the distinct knowledge of it; And that this may not discourage any Person from attempting it, I shall hint some few Reasons, why so few come to the clear knowledge of it, which will also prepare the way for what is to be spoken afterwards.

The first Thing which doth hinder many from the knowledge of their Interest in Christ, is, their Ignorance of some special Principles of Religion: As, 1. That it was free Love in God's Bosome, and nothing in Man, that moved him to send a Saviour to perfect the Work of Redemption, Job. 3. 16. God so loved the World, that he sent, &c. Men are still seeking some ground for that Business in themselves, which leads away from suitable and high Apprehensions of the first spring and rise of Gods Covenant-favour to his People, which hath no reason, cause, or motive in us; and so they cannot come to the knowledge of their Interest. 2. They are ignorant how that Love doth effectually discover it self to a Mans Heart, so as he hath ground to lay claim to it, viz. That ordinarily it doth first discover his rotten state in himself because of Sin and Corruption defiling the whole Man, and any thing in him that might be called a Righteousness; all these things are Loos and Dung, Phil. 3. 6, 7. Secondly, it discovereth Christ as the full and satisfying treasure above all Things. The Man finds a Treasure, for which with Joy, he selleth all, &c. Mat. 13. 44, 45. Thirdly, it determineth the Heart, and ushereth it to approach unto a living God in the Ordinances, Psal. 85. 4. and causeth the Heart to lay wait upon him, and him alone, Psal. 62. 1. My Soul, wait thou only upon God. Thus, having dropped in the Seed of God in the Heart, and formed Christ there, Gal. 4. 19. the Heart is changed and made new in the afore said Work, Ezek. 36. 26 and Gods Law is so stamped upon the Heart in that change, Jer. 31. 33. that the whole Yoke of Christ is commended to the Man without exception, Rom. 7. 12. The Law is acknowledged Good, Holy, Just and and Spiritual : Upon all which, from that new principle of Life, there flow out Acts of a new Life (Gal. 5. 6. Faith worketh by Love, Rom. 6. 18, 22 and the Man becometh a Servant of Righteousness and unto God) which doth especially appear in the spirituality of Worship, (Joh. 4. 24. Rom. 7. 6. Men then serve God in Spirit and Truth, and in the newness of the Spirit, and not in the oldness of the Letter) and tenderness in all manner of Conversation; the Man then exerciseth himself how to keep a Conscience void of Offence, Eccl. 24. 16. Now, this way doth the Love of God discover it self unto Man and acteth on him, so as he hath ground of laying some good claim to it; so as he may justly think, that the Love which sent a Saviour, had respect to such a Man as hath found these Things made out unto him. Surely, Ignorance of this doth hinder many from the knowledge of their Interest in Christ: for, if a Man know not how God worketh with a Person, so as he may justly lay claim to his Love, which was from Eternity, he will wander in the dark, and not come to the knowledge of an Interest in him. 3. Many are also ignorant of this That God alone is the hope of his People; he is called the Hope of Israel, Jer. 14. 8. Although inherent Qualifications are Evidences of it, yet the staying of the Heart upon him as a full blessing and satisfying Portion, is Faith (1 Pet. 1. 21. the Faith and Hope must be in God) and the only proper Condition which giveth right to the saving Blessings of the Covenant, Rom. 4. 5. To him that worketh not, but believeth, Faith is imputed for Righteousness. Indeed if any Person take liberty here, and turn Grace into Wantonness, there is, without doubt, in so doing a Delusion; Since there is Mercy with him, upon condition, that it conciliate fear to him, Psal. 130.

Yea, hardly can any Man, who hath found the aforesaid Expressions of God's Love made out upon him, make a Cloak of the Covenant for sinful liberty without some measure of a Spiritual Conflict: In this respect he that is born of God, doth not Sin; and he who doth so Sin, hath not seen God, 1 Joh. 3. 6,

I say, God is the hope of his People, and not their own holiness. If they intend honestly, and being seriously to be like unto him, many Failings should not weaken their Hope and Confidence: For, it is in him who changeth not, Mal. 3. 6. And if any Man sinners, he hath an Advocate, 1 Joh. 2. 1. Now, when Men place their Hope in any other thing beside the Lord, it is no wonder they be kept in a staggering condition, according to the changes of the thing which they make the ground of their hope, since they give not to God the Glory due to his Name, and which he will not give unto another: Compare, Psal. 9. 10. (They who know thy Name, will put their trust in thee) with Isa. 42. 9. My glory will I not give to another: I am the Lord, that is my Name. 4. Many are ignorant of the different ways and degrees of God's working with his People, and it doth much darken their knowledge and reflex Acts of their Interest in him. This ignorance doth run mainly on three Heads. (1.) They are ignorant of the different degrees and ways of that Law-work which ordinarily dealeth with Men, and of the different way how the Lord bringeth home People at first to Christ. They consider not that the Jaysor is not kept an Hour in Bondage, Acts 8. Paul is kept in susperice three Days, Acts 9. Zacheus not one Moment, Luke 19. (2.) They are ignorant of, or at least do not consider, how different the degrees of Sanctification are in the Saints, and the honourable Appearings thereof before Men, in some, and the sad blemishing thereof in others: Some are very blameless, and more free of gross outbursts, adorning their Profession much, as Job, Job 1. and Zachariah, Luke 1. These are said to be perfect, walking in all the Commandments of God. Others were subject to very gross and sad Evils, as Solomon, Aha, &c. (3.) They are ignorant of the different Communications of God's Face, and expression of his Presence. Some do walk much in the Light of God's Countenance, and are much in sensible Fellowship with him, as David was; others are all their Days kept in Bondage through fear of Death, Heb. 2. 25. Surely the ignorance of the different ways of God's working and dealing with his People, doth very much darken the knowledge of their Interest in him, whilst they usually stick the Lord to one way of working, which he doth not keep, as we have shewed in the former Examples.

The second Thing which doth darken Men about their Interest in Christ, is. There is one thing or other, wherein their heart in some respect, doth condemn them, as dealing deceitfully and guilfully with God. It is not to be expected, that these can come to clearness about their Interest, whose heart doth condemn them for keeping up some known Transgression against the Lord, which they will not let go, neither are using the means which they know to be appointed by God for delivering them from it; neither can these come to clearness, who know some positive Duty commanded them in their stations, which they deceitfully shift and shun, not closing chearfully with it, or not willing-to be led into it: These are also in some respect condemned of their own heart, as the former sort; and in that case it is difficult to come to a distinct knowledge of their state. 1 Joh. 3. 21. It is supposed there, that a self-condemning heart maketh void a Man's confidence proportionally before God. I do not deny but that Men may, on good grounds, plead an Interest in Christ, in the case of prevailing Iniquity, Psal. 65. 3. Rom. 7. 23, 24. but it is hard to be attained, if at all attainable, when the heart is dealing deceitfully and entertaining known Guile in a particular: Therefore let people clear themselves of the particular which they know too well. It is a thing which doth meet them, marring their confidence and access in all their approaches unto God. See Judg. 10. 10, 13. The Idolatries of the People are cast up to them by the Lord, and their Suit rejected thereupon. That which draweth away the Heart first in the morning, and last at Night; like an Oven heated at Night, and it burneth as a flaming Fire in the morning, spoken of the Wicked, Hos. 7. 6. And waketh up their Thoughts often on their Bed, as it is said of some, Psal. 36. 4. That which doth lead away the Heart in time of Religious Duty ordinarily, and the remembrance of which hath power to revive and quicken the Spirits, more than the remembrance of God, so as their Heart is after the heart of some detestable thing, Ezek. 11. 21. That which withstandeth Men when they would seize the Promise, as God casteth up Men's Sins to them who are meddling with his Covenant, Psal. 16, 17. That is the thing which doth mar the knowledge of a gracious state; let it go, and it will be more easie to reach the knowledge of an Interest in Christ.

The third Thing which hindreth the knowledge of an Interest in Christ, is a Spirit of sloth and careless Negligence in many: They complain that they know not whether they be in Christ or not; but, as few take pains to be in him, so few take pains to try if they be in him. It is a Work and Business which cannot be done Sleeping, 2 Cor. 13. 5. The several Words used there, viz. Examine, Prove, Know-- say that there is a labour in it; diligence must be used to make our calling and election sure 2 Pet. 1. 10. It is a Business above Flesh and Blood. The holy Anointing, which teacheth all things, must make us know the things freely given us of God, 1 Cor. 2. 12. Shall the Lord impart a Business of so great Concernment, and not so much as be enquired after to do it for Men? Ezek. 36. 37. Be ashamed, you who spend so much time in reading of Romances, in adorning your Persons, in Hawking and Hunting, in consulting the Law, concerning your outward state in the World, and it may be, in worse things than these: Be ashamed that you spend so little time in the search of this, whether you be an Heir of Glory or not; whether you be in the way that leadeth to Heaven, or that which will land you in Darknes for ever. You who judge this below you, and unworthy of your Pains, and part or minute of your Time, it is like in Gods Account, you have judged your selves unworthy of everlasting Life, so as you have no lot with Gods People in this matter.

The fourth thing that doth darken the knowledge of an Interest in Christ, is, Men do not condescend upon what would satisfie them; but complain that

God

God will not shew unto them what he is about to do with them; but cannot yet say they know what would satisfie concerning his Purpose: This is a sad thing. Shall we think those are serious, who have never, as yet, pitched on what would satisfie them, nor are making earnest enquiry after what would satisfie? If the Lord had left us in the dark in that matter, we were less inexcusable: But since the grounds of satisfaction and the true Marks of an Interest in Christ, are so clear and frequent in scripture, and so many things written that our joy may be full, 1 John 1. 4. and that those who believe may know that they have eternal Life, 1 John 5. 13. and since he that believeth hath a Witness in himself, 1 John 5. 10. none can pretend excuse here: We may not here insist to shew what may and should satisfie concerning our Interest, since we are to speak directly to it afterwards.

The fifth thing that helpeth much to keep Men in the dark, concerning their Interest in Christ, is that they pitch upon some mutable grounds which are not so apposite proofs of the truth of an Interest in Christ, as of the comfortable state of a triumphant Soul sailing before the Wind, and marks, which I grant are precious in themselves, and do make out an Interest clearly where they are; Yet they are such, as without an Interest in Christ may be, and be known also in a good measure; We shall touch a few of them. 1. Some think that all who have a true Interest in him are above the prevailing Power of every Sin. But this is contrary to that of Psalms 65. 3. where we find that holy Man laying just claim to Pardon, in the case of prevailing Iniquity; and that of Rom. 7. 23, 24, 25. where Paul thanketh God through Christ, as freed freed from the Condemnation of the Law, even whilst a Law in his Members leads him Captive unto Sin. 2. Some think that all true Saints have constantly access unto God in Prayer, and sensible returns of Prayer at all times. But this is contrary to the many sad Exercises of his People, complaining often that they are not heard nor regarded of God, Psal. 13. 1. and 22. 1, 2, 3. Some think that all who have any true Interest in him, have God witnessing the same unto them by a high Operation of that witnessing Spirit of his, spoken of, Romans 8. 16. (whereof afterwards) and so they still suspect their own Interest in Christ, because of the want of this. But they do not remember that they must first believe, and give credit to that Record which God hath given to the Son, that there is life enough in him for Men, 1 John 5. 10, 11. And then look for the Seal and Witness of the Spirit. Eph. 1. 13. In whom after ye believed, ye were Sealed with the Holy Spirit of Promise, &c. As long as People hold fast these Principles, and the like, they can hardly come to the knowledge of their gracious state, which God hath warranted People to prove and clear up to themselves, otherways then by the foresaid things.

The fifth thing to be premised, is, The removal of some mistakes, whereunto People may readily run themselves, when we are about to prove their Interest in Christ. As, 1. It is a mistake to think, that every one who is in Christ, doth know that he is in him: For many are truly gracious, and have a good title to eternal Life, who do not know so much, until it be made out afterwards, 1 John 5. 13. These things are written to Believers, that they may know they have a true Title to eternal Life; that is, that they may know they are Believers, and so it is supposed they knew it not before. 2. It is a mistake to think, that all who come to the knowledge of their interest in Christ, do attain an equal certainty about the same: One may say, he is perswaded, nothing present or to come, can separate him from the Love of God, Rom. 8. 38. Another cometh but this length, I believe, help mine unbelief, Mar. 9. 24. 3. It is a mistake to think that every one who attaineth a strong perswasion of his Interest, doth always hold there; for he who to day may say of the Lord, He is his Refuge, Psal. 21. 2. and his Portion, Psal. 119. 57. will at another time say, he is cut off, Psal. 31. 22. and will ask, if the truth of God's promise doth fail for evermore? Psal. 77. 7. 8. 9. 4. It is also a mistake to think, that every one who doth attain a good knowledge of their gracious estate, can formally answer all objections made to the contrary; But yet they may hold fast the conclusion, and say, I know whom I have believed, 2 Tim. 1. 12. There be few grounds of Christian Religion, whereof many People are so perswaded, as that they are able to maintain them formally against all Arguments brought to the contrary, and yet they may and will hold the conclusion stedfastly and constantly: So it is in this case in hand. It is no less a mistake to imagine, that the vain, groundless confidence which many prophane, ignorant Atheists do maintain, is this knowledge of an interest in Christ which we plead for; many do falsely avow him to be their Father, John 8. 41. and many look up to Heaven, who will be beguiled with those foolish Virgins, Mat. 25. 12. Yet we must not think, because of this, that all knowledge of Interest is a dea delusion and fancy, although these Fools be deceived: For whilst Thousands are deluded, some can say on good and solid grounds, We know that we are of God, and that the whole World lyeth in Wickedness, 1 John 5. 19.

Having premised these things, it now followeth, that we give some marks by which a Man may know if he be savingly in Covenant with God, and hath a special interest in Christ, so as he may warrantably lay claim to God's Favour and Salvation. We shall only pitch upon two great and principal Marks, not willing to trouble People with many. And before we fall upon these, we will speak of a preparatory work of the Law, whereof the Lord doth ordinarily make use, to prepare his own way in Men's Souls. This may have its own weight, as a mark, with some Persons. It is called the work of the Law, or the work of Humiliation. It hath some proportion to that Spirit of Bondage, Rom. 8. 15. and doth now under the New Testament answer unto it, and usually leadeth on to the Spirit of Adoption. Only here let it be remembered, 1. That we are not to speak of this preparatory work of the Law, as a negative mark of true interest in Christ, as if none might lay claim to God's favour, who hath not had this preparatory work in the several steps of it, as we are to speak of it; for, as we shall hear, the Lord doth not always keep that Path with Men. 2. The great reason why we speak of it, is, because the Lord dealeth with many (whom he doth effectually call) by some such preparatory work. And to those who have been so dealt with, it may prove strengthening, and will confirm them in laying the more weight on the marks which follow. 3. It may be to encourage others, who are under such Bondage of Spirit, as a good Prognostick of a gracious Work to follow: For, as we shall circumstantiate it, it will be rarely found to miscarry, and fail of a gracious Issue. 4. Where God useth such a preparatory work, he doth not keep one way or measure in it, as we shall hear.

For the more distinct handling of this preparatory work, we shall shortly hint the most ordinary ways, by which the Lord leadeth People in into the Covenant savingly, and draweth them unto Christ.

First, There are some called from the Womb, as John the Baptist was, Luke 1. 41, 44. or, in their very young Years, before they can be deeply engaged actively in Satans way, 2 Tim. 3. 15. It cannot be supposed that those have such a preparatory work as we are to speak of. And, because some persons may pretend to this way of effectual calling, we offer these marks of it, whereby those who have been so called, may be confirmed. (1.) Such use from their Childhood to be kept free of ordinary Pollutions, wherewith Children usually are defiled; as Swearing, Lying, Mocking of Religion and Religious Persons, &c. Those whom God calleth effectually, he sanctifieth them from the time of that effectual calling: Sin cannot have dominion over them, as over others, because they are under Grace, Rom 6. 14. (2.) Religion, as it were, natural to them; I mean, they need not be much pressed to Religious Duties, even when they are but Children; They willingly run that way, because there is an inward principle of love constraining them, 2 Cor. 5. 14. so as they hold themselves Servants of Righteousness, without outward constraint, Rom. 6. 16. (3.) Although such such know not when they were first acquainted with God, yet afterwards they have such exercises of Spirit befalling them, as the Saints in Scripture (of whose first conversion we hear not) do speak of. They are shut out from God upon some occasion now and then, and are admitted to come nearer again, (to their Apprehension.) Their Heart is also further broken up by the Ordinances, as is said of Lydia Acts 16. 14. and ordinarily they do remember when some special bit of Religion and Duty, or when some sin, of which they were not taking notice before, was discovered to them. They who can apply these things to themselves, have much to say for their effectual calling from their Youth.

Secondly, Some are brought into Christ in a sovereign Gospel-way: When the Lord, by some few words of love swallowing up any Law-work, quickly taketh a Person Prisoner at the first, as he did Zacheus, Luke 19. and others, who upon a word spoken by Christ, did leave all and follow him, and we hear no noise of a Law-work dealing with them before they close with Christ Jesus. And because some pretend to this way of Calling, we shall touch some things more remarkable in that Transaction with Zacheus, for clearing and confirmation. 1. He had some desire to see Christ, and such a desire, as made him wave that which some would have judged Prudence and Discretion whilst he climbeth up upon a Tree that he might see him. 2. Christ spake to his heart, and that word took such hold upon him, that presently with joy he did accept of Christ's offer, and closed with Christ as Lord, whilst few of any note were following him. 3. Upon this his heart did open to the Poor, although it seems, he was a covetous Man before.

fore, 4. He had a due impression of his former ways, evidencing his respect to Moses's Law, and this did signifie before all the company then present, that he was not caring to shame himself in such things as (probably) were notour, or known to the World, 5. Upon these things, Christ confirmeth and ratifieth the again by his Word, recommending to him that business of interest, which behoved to be between him and the Saints. and the thoughts of his own condition, if Christ had not come and sought him, and found him: All which are clear, Luke 19.
 10. We grant, the Lord calleth some so; and if any can lay claim to the special Things we are now hinted, they have a good confirmation of God's dealing with them from that Scripture; whether are they to vex themselves because of the want of a distinct preparatory Law-work, if their heart have yielded unto Christ. For, a Law-work is not desirable, except for this end. Therefore Christ doth offer himself directly in the Scripture, and the People are invited to come to him: And although many will not come to him, who is the Surety, until the Spirit of Bondage distress them for their Debt; yet if any upon the knowledge of their lost estate, would flee and yield to Christ, he might warrantably press a law-work upon him. As for others, whom Christ perswaded by his word to follow him, whatsoever he did, or however he spake to them at his first meeting with them, we must rationally suppose, that then he discovered so much of their own necessity, and his fulness and excellency to them, as made them to follow him at all and run after him. And if he do so to us, we crave no more, since there is room enough for the Physician, So that from all this, as some

some may be confirmed and strengthened, with whom God hath so dealt; So there is no ground nor occasion for deluded Souls to flatter themselves in their condition, who remain ignorant and senseless of their own miseries and Christs alssufficiency, and hold fast deceit.

Thirdly, There are some brought in to Christ in a way yet more declarative of his free Grace, and this is, when he effectually calleth Men at the hour of Death. We find somewhat recorded of this way in that pregnant Example of the Thief on the Cross, Luk. 23. 39. 41. Although this seems not very pertinent for the purpose in hand; yet we shall speak a little of it, that on the one hand Men may be sparing to judge and pass Sentence upon either themselves or others, before the last Breath. And we shall so circumstantiate it, that, on the other hand, none may dare to delay so great a business to the last Hour of their Life. We find these Things remarkable in that Business between Christ and the Thief; 1. The Man falleth at odds with his former Companion. 2. He dareth not speak wrong Word of God, whose Hand is on him, but justifieth him in all that is befallen him. 3. He noteth Jesus Christ persecuted by the World, without a Cause, and most injuriously. 4. He discovereth Christ to be a Lord and a King, whilst Enemies seem to have him at under. 5. He believeth a Being of Glory after Death so really, that he preferreth a portion of it to the present safety of his bodily Life, which he knew Christ was able to grant him at that time, and he might have chosen the same with the other Thief. 6. Although he was much abased in himself, and so humbled, that he pleaded but that Christ would remember him; yet he was

nob

obly daring to throw himself upon the Covenant, in Life and Death; and he had so much Faith of Christs all-sufficiency, that he judged a simple remembrance from Christ, would satisfyingly do his business. 7. He acquiesced sweetly in the word which Christ spake to him, for the ground of his Comfort. All which are very clear in the case of that poor dying Man, and do prove a very real work of God upon his Heart. As this Example may encourage some to wait for good from God, who cannot as yet lay clear claim to any gracious work of his Spirit; so we obtest all, as they love their souls, not to delay their Soul-business, hoping for such a cast of Christs Hand in the end, as too many do. This being a rare Miracle of Mercy, with the glory whereof Christ did honourably triumph over the Ignominy of his Cross; a parallel of which we shall hardly find in all the Scripture beside. Yea, as there be but few at all saved, Mat. 20. 16. and most few saved this way: So the Lord hath peremptorily threatned to laugh at the Calamity, and not to hear the cry of such as mocked formerly at his Jeerproof, and would not hear when he called to them, Pro. 1. 24, 26. which Scripture, although it doth not shut Mercies Door upon any, who at the hour of Death, do sincerely judge themselves and flee to Christ, as this penitent Thief did: Yet it is certain, it implyeth that very few who sit the offer until then, are honoured with Repentance, as he was, and so their cry, as not being sincere and of the right stamp, shall not be heard.

The Fourth, and most ordinary way, by which many are brought in to Christ, is, by a clear and discernable Work of the Law and Humiliation, which we ordinarily call the Spirit of Bondage, as was hinted ed before. We do not mean that every one whose Conscience is awakened with Sin and fear of Wrath, doth really close with Christ; the contrary doth appear in Cain, Jael, Judas, &c. But that wherein there is a Conviction of Sin, awakening of Conscience, and Work of Humiliation, which, as we shall circumstantiate it, doth rarely miscarry or fail of a gracious issue, but ordinarily doth resolve into the Spirit of Adoption, and a gracious work of Gods Spirit. And because the Lord dealeth with many Sinners this way, and we find that many are much puzzled about the giving judgment of this Law-work.

This Work is either more violent and suddenly expedite, or it is more sober and lent, protracted through a great length of time, and so as the steps of it are very discernable. It is more violent in some, as in the Pharisee, Paul, and some other Converts in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, on whom Christ did break in at an instant, and fell on them as with Fire and Sword, and led them captive terribly; and because some great legal shakings are deceitful, and turn to nothing, if not worse, we shall point at some Things remarkable in these Converts spoken of before, which did prove the work of the Law on them, to have had a gracious issue and result.

1. Some Word of Truth or Dispensation putteth the Person to a dreadful stand, with a great stir in the Soul: Some are pricked in Heart, Acts 2. 27. Some fell on trembling, Acts 16. 29 and this is such a stir, that the Person is brought to his wits end. What wilt thou have me to do? saith Paul; Acts 9. What shall I do? saith the Pharisee, Acts 18. 30.
2. The Person is content to have Salvation, and Gods friendship on any Terms, as the Questions do import report, What shall I do? as if he had said, What should I not do? What would I not forego? What should I not undergo? 3. The Person accepteth the condition offered by Christ and his Servants, as is clear in the fore-cited Scriptures. 4. The Person presently becometh of one interest with the Saints, joyning himself with that persecuted Society, putting respect on those whom he had formerly persecuted, joyning and continuing with them in the profession of Christ on all hazards. Those with whom the Lord hath so dealt, have much to say for a gracious Work of Gods Spirit in them; and it is like any of them can date their Work from such a particular Time and Word, or dispensation, and can give some account of what past between God and them, and of a sensible change following in them from that time forward, as Paul giveth a good account of the Work and way of God with him afterwards, Acts 22.

Again, the Lord sometimes carrieth on this work more calmly, softly and gently, pretracting it so the Steps of Mens Exercise under it are very discernable. It would draw a great length to enlarge every Step of it; we shall touch the most observable Things in it.

1. The Lord layeth siege to Men (who, it may be, have often refused to yield to him, offering themselves in the Ordinances) and by some Word preached, Read, or born in on the mind, or by the providence leading in unto the Word, he doth assault the House kept peaceably by the strong Man, the Devil; and thus Christ, who is the strong Man, cometh upon him, Luke 11. 22. and by the Spirit of Truth, doth fasten the Word on the Man, which God's curse is denounced against such and such such Sinners, whereof the Man knoweth himself guilty. The Spirit convinceth the Man, and bindeth it upon him, that he is the same Person against whom the Word of God doth speak, because he is guilty of such Sins, and from such Sins the Man is led on to see more, until (ordinarily) he comes to see the Sins of his Youth, Sins of Omission, &c. yea, he is led on until he sees himself guilty almost of the Breach of the whole Law; he seeth innumerable Evils compassing him, as David speaketh in fit of Exercise, Psa. 40. 12. A Man sometimes will see ugly sights of Sin in this Case, and is sharply sighted to reckon a filthiness to every Sin almost. Thus the Spirit convinceth of Sin, Joh. 16. 8. The Lord shaketh a special strong hold in the Garrison, a Refuge of Lies, to which the Man betaketh himself when his Sins are thus discovered to him. The poor Man pretendeth to Faith in Christ, whereby he thinks his Burden is taken off him, as the Pharisees said, Joh. 8. 4. We have one Father, even God. They pretend to a special relation of God as a common Lord. The Spirit of God beats the Man from this, by the Truth of the Scriptures proving that he hath no true Faith, and so no inheritance in Christ, nor any true saving Grace; shewing clear differences between true Grace and the counterfeit Fancies which the Man hath in him; and between him and the truly Godly, as Christ laboureth to do those, Joh. 3. 42, 44. If God were your Father, ye would love me. Ye are of the Devil, for he do the Lusts of such a Father. So, Fear surpriseth the Hypocrite in Heart, Isa. 33. 14. especially when the Lord discovereth to him Conditions in many of the Promises (wherein he trusted most) not easily attainable, he now seeth Grace and Faith another thing.

When once he judged them to be. We may in some respect, apply that Word here. The Spirit convinceth him of Sin, because he hath not believed on the Son; he is particularly convinced of unbelief, John 16. 9. he seeth now a huge distance between himself and the Godly, whom he thought before out-stripped him only in some unnecessary, proud, hateful Precise-ness; he now seeth himself deluded, and in the broad way with the perishing Multitude; and so in his sight of his Misery, coucheth down under his own Burthen, which, before this time, he thought Christ did bear for him; he now beginneth to scarce the Promises, because of that and such other Words, What hast thou to do to take my Covenant in thy Mouth? &c. Psal. 50. 16.

3. The Man becometh careful about his Salvation, and beginneth to take it to Heart, as the one thing necessary: He is brought to this with the Jay-r, Act. 16. 30. What shall I do to be saved? His Salvation becometh the leading thing with him: It was lost in his Thoughts before, but now it prevai-leth, and other Things are much mis-regarded by him, since his Soul is ready to perish, What shall it profit him gain the whole World if he lose his Soul? Mat. 16. 26. Some here are much puzzled with Thoughts of an ir-recoverable decree to their prejudice, and with the fears of uncertain Death, which may attach them before they get Matters put to a point; and some are vexed with Apprehensions, that they are guilty of the Sin against the Holy Ghost, which is unpardonable, and so are driven a dangerous length, Satan still casting up to them many sad Examples of people, who have dolefully put an end to their own exercise: But they are in the hand of one, who knowknoweth how to succour them that are tempted, Heb. 2. 18.

4. When a Man is thus in hazzard of miscarrying, the Lord useth a Work of preventing Mercy towards him, quietly, and under-hand supporting him; and this is by bearing upon his mind the possibility of his Salvation, leading the Man to the remembrance of pregnant Proofs of Gods free and rich grace, pardoning gross Transgressors, such as Manasse, who was a bloody idolatrous Man, and had correspondence with the Devil, and yet obtained Mercy, 2 Chron. 33. 12, 13. and other Scriptures bearing offers of Grace and Favour indifferently to all who will yield to Christ, whatsoever they have been formerly; So as the Man is brought again to this, What shall I do to be saved? which doth suppose, that he apprehendeth a possibility of being saved, else he would not propound the Question. He applyeth that, or the like Word, to himself, It may be ye shall be bid, Zeph. 2. 3. he findeth nothing excluding him from Mercy now, if he have a Heart for the Thing. Although here it may be, the Man doth not perceive that it is the Lord who upholdeth, yet afterwards he can tell, that when his foot was slipping, Gods Mercy held him up, as Psal. 94. 17, 18. the Psalmist speaketh in another Case. And he will afterwards say, When he was as a Beast, and as a Fool in many respects, God held him by the Hand, Psal. 73. 22, 23.

5. After this discovery of a possibility to be saved, there is a work of desire quickened in the Soul; which is clear in that same Expression, What shall I do to be saved? But sometimes this Desire is attired amiss, whilst it goeth out thus, What shall I do that I may work the works of God? Joh. 6.

8. In which case, the Man formerly perplexed with Fear and Care about his Salvation, would be at some Work of his own, to extricate himself; And here he suddenly resolveth to do all that is commanded, and to forego every evil way (yet much fighting Christ Jesus) and so beginneth to take some Courage to himself again, establishing his own Righteousness, but not submitting to the Righteousness of God, Rom. 10. 3. whereupon the Lord maketh a new assault on him, intending the discovery of his absolutely broken state in himself, that no room might be made for the Surety; as Jeshua said to the People, when he found them so bold in their undertakings, Josh. 24. 18, 19. You cannot serve the Lord, saith he, for he is a Holy God, &c. In this new assault, the Lord, 1. Bends up against the Man, the spirituality of the Law, the Commandment cometh with a new charge in the spiritual meaning of it, Rom. 7. 9. The Law came (saith Paul) in the spiritual meaning of it. Paul had never seen such a Sight of the Law before. 2. God most holily doth loose the restraining Bonds, which he had laid upon the Mans corruption, and suffereth not only to boyl and swell within, but to threaten, to break out in all the outward Members. Thus Sin groweth bold, and kicketh at the Law, becoming exceeding Sinful, Rom. 7. 8, 9, 13. 3. The Lord doth discover to Man, more now then ever before, the uncleanness of his Righteousness, and what Spots are in his best Things. These things kill the Man, and he dieth in his own conscience, Rom. 7. 9. and despaireth of relief in himself, that come not from some other way.

6. After many ups and downs here, ordinarily the Man resolveth some retirement, he desireth to be alone, he cannot keep company as before ; those who in a besieged City, when they see they cannot hold out, and would be glad of any good condition from the besieging Enemy, they go to Council, that they may resolve somewhat. So this Man here retireth, that he may speak with himself. This is like that communing with our own heart, Psal. 4. 4. Thus God leadeth to the Wilderness, that he may speak to the Heart, Hos. 14. When the Person is retired, the thoughts of the Heart which were scattered in former Steps of Exercise, do more observably throng in here. We shall reduce them into this Method. 1. The Man thinks of his unhappy Folly, in bearing Arms against God ; and here there be large Thoughts of folly and ways, with a blushing Countenance and self-losing, Ezek. 36. 31. like that of Psal. 51: 3. his sin is before him. 2. Then he remembereth how many Opportunities of yielding to God he hath lost ; his Spirit is like to faint when he remembereth that, as is said in another Case, Psal. 42. 4. 3. He now thinks of many Christians, whom he mocked and despised in his Heart, perswading himself now that they are happy, as having chosen a better part ; he thinks of the Condition of those who wait on Christ, as the Q. of Sheba did of the Kings Servants: Happy are thy Servants (saith she) who stand continually before thee, and that hear thy Wisdom, 1 Kings 10. 8. Blessed are they that dwell in thy House, &c. Psal. 84. 4. He wilheth to be like of the meanest who have any near relation to God as the prodigal Son doth speak, he would be as one of the Fathers hired Servants, Luke 15. 17.

4. Then he calleth to mind the good report that is gone abroad of God, according to that Testimony, Jonah 4. 2. The Prophet knew that God was a gracious God and merciful, slow to Anger, and of great Kindness, &c. The free and large promises and offers of Grace do come in here; and the glorious Practices which have past upon Sinners of all sorts, according to the fame of God in Scripture.

5. He thinks with himself, why hath God spared me so long, and why have I got such a Sight of my Sin? Why hath he kept me from breaking Prison at my own Hand, in choosing some unhappy way of escape? Why hath he made this strange change on me? It may be it is in his Heart to do me good; O that it may be so! — Although all these Thoughts be not in the preparatory work of every one, yet they are with many, and very promising where they are.

7. Upon all these Thoughts and Meditations, the Man more seriously than ever before, resolveth to pray, and to make some essay with God upon Life and Death; he concludeth, it can be no worse with him: For, if he sit still, he perisheth, as the Lepers speak, 2 Kings 7. 3, 4. He considereth, with the pinched Prodigal Son, that there is Bread enough in the Fathers House, and to spare, while he perisheth for want: So he goeth to God; for he knoweth not what else to make of his Condition, as the Prodigal Son doth, Luk. 15. 17, 18. and, it may be, here he resolveth what to speak; but readily Things do vary when he is arraigned before God, as the Prodigal Son forgot some of his premeditated Prayers, Luk. 15. 18, 19, 21. And now when he cometh before God more observably than ever before, (1.) he beginneth with the Publican, a far off, Luk. 18. 13. with many through confessions and self-condemnings, whereof he is very Prodigal, as Luke 15. 21. I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy, &c. (2.) Now begin his Thoughts about the hearing of his Prayer, which he was not wont to question much; he now knows what these Expressions of the Saints, about the hearing of their Prayers, do import. (3.) It is observable in this address, that there are many broken Sentences, like that of Psal. 6. 3. (But thou, O Lord, how long?) supplied with Sighs and Groans, Rom. 8. 26. and greedy looking upward, thereby speaking more than can be expressed by Words. (4.) There be ordinarily some Interruptions, and (as it were) Diversions, the Man speaking sometimes to the Enemy, sometimes to his own Heart, sometimes to the multitude in the World, as David did in other Cases, Psal. 9. Psal. 42. 5. Psal. 4. 2. (4.) It is observable here that sometimes the Man will halt and be silent to hear some indistinct whispering of a joyful sound glancing on the Mind, or some News in some broken Word of Scripture, which, it may be, the Man scarcely knoweth to be Scripture, or whether it come from God, or Satan to delude him: Yet he hath resolved, only to hear what God the Lord will speak, as upon another occasion, Psal. 85. (6.) More distinct promises come into the Man's Mind, whereupon he essayeth to lay hold, but is beaten off with Objections, as in another case the Psalmist is, Psal. 22. 3, 6. But thou art Holy, But I am a Worm. Now it is about the dawning of the Day with the Man, and Faith will stir as soon as the Lord imparteth the joyful sound, Psal. 89. This is the substance of the Covenant, which is shortly summed up in these Words, Christ Jesus my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; bear witness to him. We can speak no further of the Mans exercise as a preparatory Work; for, what following, is more than preparatory. Yet, that the exercise may appear compleat and full, we shall add here, That after all these Things, the Lord (it may be, after many answers of divers sorts) mightily conveyeth the sound of his Covenant to the Heart, and determineth the heart to close with it, and God now draweth him so to Christ, Joh. 6. 44. and so shapeth out the Heart for him, that the conception cannot miscarry; for now the Heart is so broad and length for him, as that less cannot suffice, and more is not desired, like that of Psal. 138. 25. Whom have I in Heaven but thee? Or, whom have I desired on Earth besides thee? The Soul now resolveth to die, (if he command so) yet at his door, and facing to him-wards.

We have drawn this preparatory Work to some length, not tying any Man to such a work so circumstantiate; only, we say, the Lord dealeth so with some; and where he so convinceth of Sin, corruption, and self-emptiness, and maketh a Man like Salvation to the Heart, as the one thing necessary, and sets him on work in the use of the mean; which God hath appointed for relief; I say such a Work rarely shall be found to fail of a good true and gracious result.

Object. Hypocrites and Reprobates have great stirrings of Conscience, and deep Convictions about Sin, stirring them on work sometimes; and I do suspect any preparatory Work of the Law I ever had, to be but such as they have.

Ans. It will be hard to give sure essential differences between the preparatory Work in those in whom afterwards Christ is formed, and those legal stirrings which are sometimes in Reprobates: If there were not some gracious result of these Convictions, and wakenings of Conscience in the Lords People, and other marks, (of which we shall speak afterwards it were hard to adventure upon any difference that is clear in these legal stirrings. Yet, for answer to the Objection, I shall offer some Things, which rarely will be found in the stirring of Reprobates, and which are ordinarily found in that Law-work which hath a gracious issue. 1. The Convictions of Hypocrites and Reprobates, are usually confined to some few very gross Transgressions. Saul grants no more but the persecuting of David, 1 Sam. 26. 21. Judas grants only the betraying of innocent Blood, Mat 27. 4 But usually those Convictions by which the Lord prepareth his own way in the Soul, although they may begin at one or more gross particular Transgressions, yet they rest not, but the Man is led on to see many Breaches of the Law, and innumerable Evils compassing him, as David speaketh in the sight of his Sin, Psal. 40. 12. and withal, that universal Conviction (if I may call it so) is not general, as usually we hear senseless Men saying that in all Things they Sin; But it is particular and condescending, as Paul afterwards spake of himself; he not only is the chief of Sinners, but particularly, he was a Blasphemer, a Persecutor, 1 Tim. 1. 13. 2. The Convictions which Hypocrites have, do seldom reach their Corruption, and that Body of Death, which breeds an averiness from what is good, and strongly inclineth to what is evil. Ordinarily where we find Hypocrites es speaking of themselves in Scripture, they look loftily, and with some self-conceit, both as to their freedom from Corruption, Joh. 9. 34. The Pharisees say to the poor Man, Thou wast altogether in Sins, and dost thou teach us? (as if they themselves were not as corrupt by nature as he) They speak of great Sins as Hazael did, 2 Kings 8. 13. Am I Dog that I should do this great Thing? And also in their undertakings of Duty, as that Man spake, Mat. 8. 19. I will follow thee whithersoever thou go-

See how the People do speak, Fer. 42. 2. to They undertake to do all that God will command them. So that they still go about in any way to establish their own Righteousness, not subjecting unto the Righteousness of God. But I may say, that Convictions and Exercise about corruption, and that Body of Death, inclining to evil, and disabling for good, is not the least part of the work, where the Lord is preparing his own way.
 They use to judge themselves very wretched because of a Body of Sin, and are at their wits end how to be delivered, as Paul speaketh, when he is under the exercise of it after-wards, Rom. 7. 19. 3. It is ordinarily be found, that the convictions which come in Hypocrites, either are not so serious, as that some other Business will not put them out of their head before any satisfaction be gotten, as in Cain, who went and built a City, and we hear no more of his Convictions, Gen. 4. Felix went away until a more convenient time, and we hear no more of his troubling, Acts 24. 25. Or, if that Work become very serious, then it runneth to the other extremity and despair of relief, leaving no room for any escape. So we find Judas very serious in his Convictions, yet he grew desperate, and hanged himself Mat. 27. 4, 5. But where the Lord prepareth his own way, the work is both so serious, as the Person cannot be put off it, (untill he find some satisfaction) and yet under that very seriousness he lyeth open for relief: Both which are clear in the Jaylors Words, What shall I do to be saved? Acts 16. 30. This serious inquiry after relief, is a very observable thing in the preparatory Work which leadeth on to Christ. Yet we desire none to lay too much weight on these Things, since God hath allowed clearer differences between the precious and the vile.

Objct. I still fear I have not had so through a sight of my Sin and Misery, as the Lord giveth to many whom he effectually calleth, especially to great Transgressors, such as I am.

Ans. It is true, the Lord discovereth to some great Sights of their Sin and Misery, and they are thereby put under great legal Terrours. But as all are not brought in by that sensible preparatory Law-work, (as we shewed before) So even those who are dealt with after that way, are very differently and variously exercised in regard of degrees of Terrour, and of continuance of that Work. The Jaylor hath a violent Work of very short continuance; Paul hath a Work continuing three Days. Some Persons are in Bondage through fear of Death all their Days, Heb. 2. so that we must not limit the Lord to one way of working here. The main Thing we are to look unto in these legal Wakenings and Convictions of Sin and Misery, is, If the Lord reach those ends in us, for which usually these Stirrings and Convictions are sent into the Soul; and if those ends be reached, it is well, we are not to vex our selves about any preparatory Work further.

Now

Now, those ends which God driveth ordinarily with sinners by these legal Terrours and wakenings of Conscience, are Four.

First, The Lord discovers Sights of Mens Sin and Misery to them, to chase them out of themselves, and to put them out of conceit of their own Righteousness. Men naturally have great thoughts of themselves, and do incline much to the Covenant of Works. The Lord therefore doth discover to them so much of their Sin and Corruption, even in their best Things, that they are made to loath themselves, and to despair of relief in themselves, and so they are forced to flee out of themselves, and from the Covenant of Works, to seek refuge elsewhere, Heb. 6. 18. They become dead to themselves and the Law, as to the point of Justification, Rom. 7. 4. Then have they no more Confidence in the flesh, Phil. 3. 3. This is supposed in the Offers of Christ, coming to seek and save that which was lost, Luke 19. 10. and to be a Physician to those who are sick, Mat. 9. 12. The second great end, is, to commend Christ Jesus to Mens Hearts above all things, that so they might fall in Love with him, and betake themselves to that Treasure and Jewel which only enricheth, Mat. 13. 44. and by so doing may serve the Lords design in the contrivement of the Gospel, which was the manifestation of his free Grace through Christ Jesus, in the Salvation of Men. The Sight of a Mans own Misery and damnable Estate by Nature, is a ready way to make him prize Christ highly, who alone can set such a Wretch at liberty. Yea, it not only leadeth Man to an high esteem of Christ, but also of all things that relate to that way of Salvation, as Grace, New-Covenant Faith, &c. and maketh him carefully to gather and treasure up his Mickrams, or golden Scriptures, for the confirmation of his Interest in these Things. The third great End, is, To deter and scare People from Sin, and to make them fall out with it, and consent to put their Neck under all his Yoke. God kindleth some Sparkles of Hell in Mens Bosoms by the discovery of their Sin, as a ready means to make them henceforth stand in awe, knowing how bitter a thing it is to depart from the Lord, Jer. 2. 19. So we find rest offered to the weary, upon condition they will take on Christs Yoke, Mat. 11. 29. And God offereth to own Men as their God and Father, upon Condition they will allow no peaceable abode to Belial, 2 Cor. 6. 14, 17, 18. The fourth great End, is, To work up Men to a patient and thankful submission to all the Masters Pleasure. This is a singular piece of Work, Ezek. 16. 63. Then shalt thou not open thy Mouth any more. The sight of a Mans own vileness and deservings, maketh him silent, and to lay his Hand on his Mouth, whatsoever God doth unto him, Psal. 39. 9. I was dumb, and opened not my Mouth, because thou didst it. Ezra. 9. 13. God hath punished us less then our Iniquities. Micah. 7. 9. I will bear the Indignation of the Lord, because I have Sinned. The Man careth not what God doth to him, or how he deals with him, if he save him from the deserved Wrath to come. Also, any Mercy is a large Mercy to him who hath seen such a Sight of himself, Gen. 32. 10. he is less then the least of Mercies; any crumb falling from his Masters Table is welcome, Mat. 15. 27. He thinks it rich mercy that he is not consumed, Lam. 3. 22. This is the thing that marvelously maketh his poor crost People so silent under, and satisfied with their their Lot; Nay, they think he deserveth Hell who openeth his Mouth at any thing God doth to him, since he hath pardoned his Transgressions. So then, for satisfying the Objection, I say, if the Lord hath driven thee out of thy self, and commended Christ to thy Heart above all Things, and made thee resolve on his Strength to wage War with every known Transgression, and thou art, in some measure, as a weaned Child, acquiescing in what he doth unto thee, desiring to lay thy hand on thy Mouth thankfully; Then thy Convictions of Sin and Misery, and whatever thou dost plead as a preparatory work, is sufficient, and thou art to debate no more about it; only be advised to study new Discoveries of the sense of thy lost Condition every Day, because of thy old and new Sins, and also to see fresh help in Christ, who is a Priest for ever to make intercession, and to have the Work of Sanctification and patience with thankfulness renewed and quickened often: For somewhat of that Work, which abaseth thee, exalteth Christ, and conformeth to his Will, must convey thee throughout all thy life-time in this World.

We come now to speak of some more clear and pure Marks, by which Men may take up their gracious State and Interest in Christ. The first thing whereby Men may know it, is, their closing with Christ in the Gospel, wherein he is held forth. This is believing, or faith, which is the condition of the Covenant, Rom. 4. 16. It is Faith, Gal. 3. 12. 16. 31. Believe---and thou shalt be saved. Now, although in propriety of Speech, it is hard to prove an Interest by Faith, it being our very Interest in him; yet the Hearts closing with Christ Jesus, is discernable in it self, that it may well be placed amongst amongst the Marks of a gracious State: And if a Man can make out this, that he believeth on, and in Christ Jesus, he thereby doth prove a very true Interest in him. Many do start at this, as a Mark upon one of these three Grounds ordinarily. (1.) Some conceive Faith to be a difficult mysterious Thing, hardly attainable. To these I say, Do not mistake; Faith is not so difficult as many do apprehend it to be. I grant true Faith in the meanest degree, is the Gift of God, and above the power of Flesh and Blood: For God must draw Men to Christ, Phil. 1. 29. John 6. 44. Yet, it were a reflection upon Christ, and all he hath done, to say it were a matter of insuperable difficulty, as is clear Rom. 10. 6,---11. it were according to that Scripture, as much upon the matter, as to say, Christ came not from Heaven, is not risen from the dead, or ascended victorious to Heaven. I say, he hath made the way to Heaven most easie; and Faith, which is the condition required on our part, more easie than Men do imagine. For the better understanding of this, consider, that justifying Faith, is not to believe that I am elected, or, to believe that God loveth me, or that Christ died for me, or the like. These Things are indeed very difficult and almost impossible at the first hand to be won at by those who are serious, whilst natural Atheists, and deluded Hypocrites find no difficulty in asserting those Things. I say, true justifying Faith is not any of the foresaid Things; neither is it simply the believing of any Sentence that is written, or that can be thought upon. I grant, he that believeth on Christ Jesus, believeth what God hath said about Mans sinful and miserable Condition by Nature, and he believeth that to be true, that there is Life in the Son, who was slain, and is risen again from the dead, &c. But none of these, nor the believing of many such Truths, do speak out justifying Faith, or that believing on the Son of God, spoken of in Scripture: For, then it were simply an Act of the Understanding. But true justifying Faith, which we now seek after, as a good Mark of Interest in Christ, is chiefly and principally an Act or Work of the Heart and Will, having presupposed sundry Things about Truth in the Understanding, with the Heart it is believed unto Salvation, Rom. 10. 10. And although it seem (vers. 9. of that Chapter) that a Man is saved upon Condition that he believe this Truth, God raised Christ from the dead, yet we must understand another thing there, and vers. 10. than the believing the Truth of that Proposition: For, beside that all Devils have that Faith whereby they believe that God raised Christ from the Dead: So the Scripture hath clearly resolved justifying Faith into a receiving of Christ, Joh. 1. 12. The receiving of Christ is there explained to be the believing on his Name. It is still called a staying on the Lord, Isa. 26. 3. a trusting in God, often mentioned in the Psalms, and the word is a leaning on him, it is a believing on Christ, Joh. 6. 29. and often so exprest in the New-Testament. When God maketh Men believe savingly, He is said to draw them unto Christ; and when the Lord inviteth them to believe, he calleth them to come to him, Joh. 6. 37, 44. The Kingdom of Heaven is like a Man finding a Jewel, wherewith he falleth in love, Mat. 13. 44, to 46. Now, I say, this Act of the Heart on Christ Jesus, is not so difficult a thing as is conceived. Shall that be judged a mysterious difficult Thing, which doth consist much in De-

Desire? If Men have but an Appetite, they have it; for, they are blessed that hunger after Righteousness, Mat. 5. 6. If you will, you are welcome, Rev. 22. 17. Is it a matter of such Intricacy, and insuperable Difficulty, greedily to look to that exalted Saviour, Isa. 45. 22. and to receive a thing that is offered, held forth, and declared to be mine, if I will but accept and take it: And in a manner open my Mouth and give way to it? Such a Thing is Faith, Psal. 81. 10. if not less. Oh if I could persuade People what is justifying Faith which impropriateth Christ to me! We often scare People from their just rest and quiet, by making them apprehend Faith to be some deep mysterious Thing, and by moving unnecessary Doubts about it, whereby it is needlessly darkened. (2.) Some make no use of this Mark, as judging it a high presumptuous Crime to pretend to so excellent a Thing as is the very Condition of the New-Covenant. To these I say, you need not startle so much at it, as if it were high Pride to pretend to it: For whatsoever true Faith be, Men must resolve to have it, or nothing at all; all other Marks are in vain without it; a thousand Things besides will not do the Business. Unless a Man believe, he abideth in the state of Condemnation, Joh. 3. 18, 36. (3.) Others do not meddle with this noble Mark of Faith, because they judge it a work of greatest difficulty to find out Faith where it is. To these I say, It is not so difficult to find it out, since he that believeth, hath the Witness in himself, 1 John 5. 10. It is a Thing which by some serious search may be known. Not only may we do much to find it out by the preparatory Work going before it in many, as the apprehending and believing of a Mans lost estate, and that he cannot do his own Business, and that there is no satisfying fulness in Christ, very desirable, if he could overtake it. A serious minding of this, with a Heart laid open for relief; as also, by the ordinary Companions and Concomitants of it, viz. the liking of Christs Dominion, his Kingly and Prophectical Office, a desire to resign my self wholly up to him to be at his disposing: As also by the relative Consequences of it, viz. the asswailing of the Word, the asswailing of my own Conscience according to the Word, a Heart purifying Work, a working Love, &c. I say, not only may we know Faith by these Things, but it is discernable by it self and by its own nature; Although I deny not but there must be some help of Gods Spirit, by which we know what is freely given unto us of God, 1 Cor. 12. As also that God hath allowed many Evidences and Marks, as precious helps, whereby Men may clear up Faith more fully to themselves, 1 John 5. 13. Yet I still say, that Faith, or believing, which is some acting of the Heart upon Christ in the Gospel, and the transacting with him there, is discernable of it self, and by it self, to a judicious understanding Person, with an ordinary influence of the Spirit; unless the Lord, for reasons known to himself, do overcloud a Mans reflex Light, by which he should take up and receive what is in him.

This justifying Faith which we assert to be so discernable, is, in the Lords deep Wisdom and gracious condescendency, variously express'd in Scripture, according to the different actings of it upon God, and outgoings after him, so as every one, who hath it, may find and take it up in his own soul. It sometimes acteth by a desire of union with with him in Christ. This is that looking to him, Isa. 45. 22. This seems to be a weak act of Faith, and far below other actings of it at other times, perhaps in that same Person. Men will look to what they dare not approach (to their apprehension) which they dare not touch or embrace. They may look to one, to whom they dare not speak. Yet God hath made the promise to Faith in that acting, as the forecited Scripture doth shew; and this he hath done mercifully and wisely; for this is the only discernable way of the acting of Faith of some Persons sometimes: Such are the actings or outgoings of Faith exprest in Scripture by hungering and thirsting after Righteousness, Mat. 5. 6. and that exprest by willing, Rev. 22. 17. Again, this Faith goeth out sometimes in the Act of Recumbency, or leaning on the Lord, the Soul taking up Christ there as a resting Stone; and God hath so held him out, although he be a stumbling Stone to others, Rom. 9. 33. This acting of it, is hinted in the expressions of trusting and staying on God, so often mentioned in Scripture; and precious Promises are made to this acting of Faith, Isa. 26. 3, 4. God will keep them in perfect Peace whose Minds are staid on him, because such do trust in him. Trust in the Lord, for with him is everlasting Strength. So Ps. 125. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion which abideth for ever. I say the Lord hath made Promises to this way of Faiths acting, as knowing it will go often out after him in this way with many Persons, and this way of its acting will be most discernable to them. It goeth out after God sometimes by an Act of waiting, when the Soul hath somewhat depending before God, and hath not got out his Mind satisfiably about that thing; then Faith doth

wait, and so it hath the Promise, Isa. 49. 23. Sometimes it acteth in a wilful way upon the Lord, when the Soul apprehendeth God thrusting it away, and threatning its ruine; So Job. 13. 15. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him. The Faith of that poor Woman, Mat. 15. 22, 28. so highly commended by Christ, did go out in this way of willfull acting over difficulties; and the Lord speaketh much good of it, and to it, because some will be put to it, to exercise Faith that way sometimes, and so they have it for their encouragement. It were tedious to instance all the several ways of the acting of Faith upon, and its exercise about, and outgoing after Christ. I may say, according to the various Con- ditions and Pressures of the Soul of Man, the Lord hath variously held out himself and his fulness in Christ under divers Notions, as might most fitly meet the distress or condition of Man; and accord- ingly, Faith, which God hath appointed to traffick and travel between Christ and Man, as the instru- ment of conveyance of his fullness unto Man, and maintaining Union and Communion with him, acteth variously and differently upon God in Christ; and Faith is the very shaping out of a Mans Heart, according to Gods device of Salvation by Christ Jesus, in whom it pleased the Father that fulness should dwell; So that let Christ turn what way he will, Faith turneth and pointeth that way. Now, he turneth all ways, in which he can be useful to poor Man, and therefore Faith acteth accordingly on Man, for drawing out of that fulness, according to Mans Case and Condition. As for example, the Soul is naked, destitute of a covering to keep from the Storms of Gods Wrath; Christ is fine- ment, Rev. 3. 17, 18. Then accordingly Faiths Work

Work here is to put on the Lord Jesus, Gal. 3. 27. The Soul is hungry and thirsty after somewhat that may everlastingly satisfie: Christ Jesus is Milk, Wine, Water, the Bread of Life, and the true Manna, Isa. 55. 1, 2. Joh. 6. 48, 51. He is the Feast of Fat Things, and of Wine refined, Isa. 25. 6. Then the Work and Exercise of Faith, is, to go buy, eat and drink abundantly, Isa. 55. 1. Joh. 6. 53--57. The Soul is pursued for guilt more or less, and is not Law-biding: Christ Jesus is the City of refuge, and the High-Priest there, during whose life time (that is for ever) the poor Man who gets thither is safe. Then the Work and Exercise of Faith is to flee thither for refuge, to lay hold on the hope set before us, Heb. 6. 18. In a Word, whatsoever way he may benefit poor Man, so he speaketh of himself; and as he holdeth out himself in the Scripture, so Faith doth point toward him. If he be a Bridegroom, Faith will go out in a Marriage relation; If he be a Father, Faith pleads the Man to be a Child; If he be a Shepherd, Faith pleads the Man may be one of his Sheep; If he be a Lord, Faith calls him so, which none can do but by the Spirit of Jesus; If he be dead, and risen again for our Justification, Faith believeth God hath raised him on that account, Rom. 10. 9. where-soever he be, there would Faith be; and whatsoever he is, Faith would be somewhat proportionally. For, by Faith the Heart is shapen out in breadth and length for him: Yea, when the fame and report of him goeth abroad in his Truth, although Faith see not much, yet it believeth on his Name, upon the very Fame he hath sent abroad of himself, Joh. 1. 12.

But here for avoiding of Mistakes, consider, 1. That although justifying Faith acteth so variously; every Believer, who hath a good title to Christ, hath not all these various Actings and Exercises of Faith; for his Condition craveth them not: And also the Master is pleased not to lead out the Faith of some Persons at some times in some of these ways (for reasons known to himself) even when his necessity (to their apprehension) calleth for such an Acting of Faith. Surely every one dare not say, Though he kill me, yet will I trust in him. Many would not have gone up with that Woman I spake of, Mat. 15. but would have been discouraged and hindered in the pursuit. It is on this account that Christ hath highly commend the Faith of some, beyond the Faith of others, Mat. 8. 10. and 15. 28. Many good People are much disquieted about their Faith, because it goeth not out in all those ways we are recorded in Scripture: But there is hardly any Faith will be found, whose Faith hath acted all these ways. 2: Many of these actings of Faith are much hindered and remitted. They are sometimes strong and vigorous, and discernable; and sometimes they are weak and misbelief doth prevail, so as it were an uncertain thing to judge of a Mans Estate by these. We find the Saints very different from themselves in regard of the actings of Faith sometimes, as we have shewn before. 3, Each one of these actings of Faith, speaketh good to the Person in whom it is, and hath Promises annexed unto it, as we have shewn before. Yet 4. Although these Actings of Faith have Promises annexed unto them, they are not, for that Condition of the New Covenant; for then every one behoved to have each one of them, which is not true, as we have said before. A Promise is is made to him who overcometh, but perseverance is not the Condition of the New Covenant, but doth suppose it. There are Promises made to the Exercise of all Graces in Scripture; but only Faith is the Condition of the Covenant. I say then, these Promises are made to these Actings of Faith, not as such, but as they do suppose Justifying Faith, which is the Condition of the Covenant; All these are actings of Faith, but not as it is justifying. Therefore 5. There is somewhat common to all gracious Persons, which may be supposed by all the foresaid Actings of Faith, wherein the nature and essence of justifying Faith standeth; and this is the Hearts Satisfaction about Gods device of Salvation by Christ; when Man pleadeth Gods Invention of satisfaction to justice through Jesus Christ, in whom all fulness doth dwell now by the Fathers pleasure, when the Soul and Heart of Man acquiesceth in that, then it believeth unto Salvation. As at first the Lord made Man suitable to the Covenant of Works, by creating him perfect, and so putting him in a capacity to perform his Will in that Covenant. So under the New Covenant, when God giveth the new Heart to Man, he sets the Idea and stamp of all his Device in the New Covenant upon the Man, so as there is a consonancy to Gods will there; Thus he beareth the Image of the second Adam, Christ Jesus, on him. This is a great part of the new Heart, and is most opposed to Works; since now the Man absolutely falleth off from Works, becoming Dead to the Law (as to the Point of Justification) by the Body of Christ, Rom 7. 4. Man perceiving, that God hath devised a way of satisfying Divine Justice, and recovering lost Man by the Incarnation of Christ, he thinks that to good and sure a way, that he absolutely giveth up with the Law, as I said before, and closeth with this Device; and this is Believing, or Faith, very opposite to Works, and all resting thereupon; this cannot fail to be in all gracious Persons, in whom many of the actings of Faith are not to be found. This doth clearly suppose known Distress in a Man, without all relief in himself; this supposeth known fulness in Christ, as the alone sufficient relief; this imports a sort of Impropriation; for the Heart pleading that Device, it so far swayeth towards it. This is a Thing clearly supposed in all the actings of Faith, spoken of before. He that greedily hungereth, hath this; and he that leaneth, hath this; and he that putteth on Christ, hath this, &c. This is to esteem Christ the Wisdom and Power of God to Salvation; So is he said to be to all that believe, 1 Cor. 1. 24. They esteem that device wise and pure, befitting God, and that is to believe. On this account Christ, who is the rejected Stone to many, is precious to them who believe; a fit Stone to recover, fortifie, and beautifie the tottering Building and Fabrick of lost Man, 1 Pet. 2. 7. The Kingdom of God is like a Man finding a Treasure, for which with Joy he selleth all, Mat. 13. 44. These Words hold out the very way of believing, viz. Salvation is discovered in the Gospel to be by Christ; the Heart valueth that Invention as satisfying. This is to believe on the Son of God lifted up, which is compared to the looking up to the brazen Serpent, Joh. 3. 14. It was Mans approbation of that device, which made it effectual for his healing. So is it here, He that believeth, setteth to his Seal that God is true. True! wherein? In that record he hath born, That God hath provided Life for Men; and placed it all in in Christ, 1 Joh. 5. 10, 11. He that believeth maketh God a Lyar. Wherein? In his saying Christ is a safe and sure way to Heaven. This the pleading and acquiescing in that Device, and it is consonant to all, I know, spoken of Justifying Faith in Scripture. This is the believing on Christ and on his Name, the receiving of him, and relying on him for Salvation in our Catechism. The believing that Jesus is the Christ, that is, the Anointed One whom the Father hath sealed, and set apart and qualified for the work of reconciling Man to God; and he that believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, 1 Joh. 5. 1. This is to believe with the Heart that God hath raised Christ from Dead. The Man believeth Christ died, and is raised on the account of Satisfaction for Mans Transgressions.

 Devils may believe that. Nay, but the Man speak of, believeth it with his Heart, (which no natural Man doth, until a new Heart be given him) that is, he cordially pleadeth, is satisfied with, and acquiesceth in this noble Invention. And thus Faith layeth out it self now and then in Actings, out-goings, and exercise, according to the Covenant-Relations, under which Christ is forth in the Scripture.

Now, I say, This Faith is discernable, not in these actings many times; a Man may know his Heart doth Hunger after Christ, and flee for refuge to him, when pursued, and if he doth commit himself unto God, &c. but also in its very nature, as it is justifying, it is discernable, and may be known. A Man may clearly know, if he known distress in himself upon the report and of Christs fulness, his Heart doth plead Gods vice in the new Covenant, if it goeth out at Christ in that Invention, and pleadeth him a Lord of the Life of Men, terminating and resting there, and no where else, acquiescing in that contrivement with desire and complacency. This is a discernable Thing. Therefore I obtest Men impartially to examine themselves; and if they find that their Heart is closed so with that device of Salvation, and is gone out after him as precious, that thereupon they conclude a sure and true Interest in Christ Jesus, and a good Claim and Title to the Crown, since he that believeth shall never perish, but have everlasting Life, Jph. 3. 16, 36.

Object. Hypocrites and Reprobates have a sort of Faith, and are said to believe, Joh. 2. 23. Act. 8. 13. and cannot choose but go out after Christ, and that device of Salvation, when they hear of it; and they profess they do so, yet are deluded, and so may I be.

Ans. To say nothing of that Thought of your Heart, [whereby you wonder that any Man should not plead the device of Salvation by Christ, and lead out towards him] as a very promising Thing, and speaking out justifying Faith to be in your Bosome; and to say nothing in contradiction to that which you think, That a natural Man, whilst such, and before he get a new Heart, can plead that Device, and believe with his Heart and affectionately, that which perfectly overthroweth the Covenant of Works, and abaseth Man in the point of self righteousness already attained, or that can be attained by him, which is inconsistent with many Scriptural Truths; I offer these differences between the Faith of all Hypocrites or Reprobates, and that true saving justifying Faith, whereof we have spoken. 1. They never close with Jesus Christ (in that that Device) and him alone, as a sufficient covering of the Eyes, as is said of Abraham to Sarah, Gen. 20. 16. They still hold fast somewhat of their own, at least to help to procure Gods Favour and Salvation; Their Heart doth still speak, as that young Mans Speech, Luke 18. 18, 21. doth insinuate, What want I, that I may inherit Life? Beside that they do still retain their former Lovers, and will not break their Covenants with Hell and Death, imagining they may have Christ with these things equally sharing in their Heart, contrary to that A Man cannot serve two Masters, Mat. 6. 24. Either Christ must be judged absolute Lord, and worthy to be so, or nothing at all. And so it is clear, their Heart is not shapen out for that Device of Salvation by Christ, whom God hath alone made Lord here, in whom all fullness shall dwell. But where justifying Faith is, the Soul of a Man and his Heart doth close with Christ, and him alone, having no Confidence in the Flesh, Phil. 3. 3. Psal. 62. 5. he trusteth only in God. As also the Man here giveth up with other Lovers, as they complete with Christ; They resolve not to be for another, Hos. 3. 3. They call him Lord, which a Man can only do by the Spirit of Christ, 1 Cor. 12. 3. 2. As Hypocrites and Reprobates do never close with Christ alone; so they do never close with full Christ, as he is anointed to be a King to rule over a Man in all Things; a Priest, to procure Pardon, and to make peace for Man upon all Occasions; a Prophet to be Wisdom, and a Teacher and Counsellour in all Cases to Man. So they do not receive Christ especially in the first and third Offices. But where true justifying Faith is, a Man closeth with whole Christ in all his Offices, judging all his will good hol

, just and spiritual, Rom. 7. 12. and right considering all Things, Psal. 119. 123. making mention of his Righteousness only, Psal. 71. 16. The Lord also giveth up himself to be taught of him, 11. 29. So that Christ is made to the true believer with his own Consent, Wisdom, Righteousness, Sanctification, and compleat Redemption, 1. 30. And although he hath not all these things formally in exercise when his Heart goeth after Christ; yet, upon search and tryal, it may be found with him as I have said, 3. Hypocrites and Reprobates do never close with Christ, all the Inconveniences may follow him; they are at that, with that Man, Mat. 8. 19, 20. But true justifying Faith is, a Man doth close with him on all Hazards; he resolveth to forgo rather than to forgo Christ, Mark. 10. 28. he loneth all to be loss and Dung for the Excellency of Christ Jesus, as his Lord, and to be found in him, Phil. 3. 8. We might give other Differences As that true Faith is operative, purifying the heart, Act. 15. 9. working by Love, Gal. 5. 6.
 But Hypocrites do only cleanse the outside of the letter, Mat. 23. 25. and do all to be seen of Men, 6. 5. not seeking the Honour that is of God alone, and so cannot believe, Joh. 5. 44. We might shew that true Faith is never alone in a Man, attended with other saving Graces: But because these Things will co-incide with what follow-and here we are shewing that a Man may take his gracious state by his Faith, and the acting of on Christ, we pass these Things.

The second great mark of a gracious state and saving interest in Jesus Christ, is, the new creature, 2 Cor. 5. 17. If any Man be in Christ, he

in a new Creature. This new Creation, or Renovation of that Man, is a very sensible Change, although not in those who are effectually called from the Womb, or in their younger Years; because those have had this new Creature from that time in them, so as this change in after period of time, is not discernable; yet in those who have been regenerated and brought into Christ, after they were come to greater Age, and so have been more palpably under the power of Darkness, before they were translated into the Kingdom of Christ, Col. 1. 13. But in all who do warrantably pretend to Christ, this new creature must be, although some do not know experimentally the contraries of every part of it, so as others do, because they have not been equally, in regard of practice, under the power of Darkness. This new Creature is called the new Man, Eph. 4. 24. which doth hold out the extent of it. It is not simply a new Tongue, or a new Hand, but a new Man. There is a principle of new Life and Motion put in the Man, which is, the new Heart: Which new Principle of Life sendeth forth Acts of Life, or of conformity to the image of him who created it, Col. 3. 10. So as the Party is renewed in some measure every way. This renovation of the Man who is in Christ, may be reduced to these two great Heads.

First, there is a renovation of the Mans Person, Soul and Body, in some measure. 1. His Understanding is renewed, so as he judgeth Christ Preached in the Gospel, to be the Wisdom and Power of God, a wise, strong Devote hesteming God, 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24. He knoweth the Things of God really and solidly, not to be yea and nay, and uncertain Fancies, but all to be yea and amen, solid, certain, substantial Things, having a desirable accomplishment in Christ, and resolving much in him, 1 Cor. 2. 15. 2 Cor. 1. 18. Natural Men, educated under Gospel Ordinances, although they have some Notional knowledge of God, Christ, Promises, the motions of the Holy Spirit, &c. so as they may Confer, Preach, and dispute of these Things; yet they look on them as common received Maximes of Christianity, from which to recede were a singularity and disgrace; but not as real, solid, substantial Truths, so as to adventure their Souls and everlasting Being on them. The Understanding is renewed also to take up somewhat of God in the Creatures, as bearing Sparks of his glorious Attributes, Psal. 19. 1. They see the Heavens declaring his Glory and Power, and somewhat of God in his Providence and Dispensations that fall out: His wonderful Works declare that his Name is near, Psal. 115. 1. The Understanding also taketh up the Conditions and Cases of the Soul otherwise then it was wont to do; As we find the Saints usually speaking in Scripture, O my Soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, &c. Psal. 16. 2. My Soul said, thy Face will I seek, Psal. 27. 8. Why art thou cast down, O my Soul? Psal. 42. 5. Psal. 43. 5. Return unto thy rest, O my Soul, Psal. 116. 7. 2. The Heart and Affections are renewed. The Heart is made a new Heart, a Heart of flesh, capable of Impressions, having a Copy of his Law stamped on it, and the fear of God put into it, whereby the Mans Duty becometh in a manner native and kindly to the Man, Jer. 32. 39, 40. Ezek. 36. 26. It was before a Heart of Stone, void of the Fear of God. The Affections are renewed now.

The Love is renewed in some good measure: It goeth out after God; I will Love the Lord, Psal. 18. 1. after his Law, O how I love thy Law! Psal. 119. 97. after those who have Gods Image in them, John 13. 35. 1 John 3. 14. This Love to Gods People is upon a pure Account, as they are the Children of God, and do keep his Statutes, 1 Pet. 1. 22. It is with a pure Heart, Psal. 119. 63. and therefore it goeth towards all such whom the Man knoweth or apprehendeth to be such, Psal. 119. 63. I am a Companion to all them, &c. In all Cases and Conditions, even where there is nothing to beautifie or commend but the Image of God. And this Love is so fervent many times, 1 Pet. 1. 22. that it putteth it self out in all Relations, so as a Man seeketh a Godly Wife, a Godly Master, a Godly Servant, a Godly Counsellor, if he have to choose upon, Psal. 101. 6. and it is not quenched by many Waters, Cant. 8. 7. many Imperfections and Infirmities, difference in Opinion, Wrongs received, will not altogether quench Love. Also it is communicative of Good according to its Measure, and as the Case of the Poor Godly requireth, Psal. 16. 2. 1 John 3. 17, 18, 19. The Man's Hatred is also renewed and is now bent against Sin, Psal. 119. 113. I have vain Thoughts: Against God's Enemies, as such, Psal. 139. 21, 22. Do not I hate them that hate thee, &c. The Joy or Delight is renewed, for it runneth towards God, Psal. 73. 25. Whom have I in Heaven? &c. towards his Law and Will, Psal. 1. 2. His delight is in the Law of the Lord. And towards the Godly and their Fellowship, Psal. 16. 3. — In whom is all my Delight. The Sorrow is turned against Sin, which hath wronged Christ, Zeck. 12. 10.

Looking

Looking on him whom they have pierced, they Mourn, 2 Cor. 7. 10, 11. The Sorrow is Godly there, and against what incroacheth upon Gods Honour; they are sorrowful for the ——— Assemblies, and the Reproach of that is their Burden, Zeph. 3. 18. There is some Renovation in all the Affections, as in every other part of the Soul, pointing now towards God. 3. The very outward Members of the Man are renewed, as the Scripture speaks, the Tongue, the Eye, the Ear, the Hand, the Foot, &c. So that those Members, which once were improved as Weapons of Unrighteousness unto Sin, are now improved as Weapons of Righteousness unto Holiness, Rom. 6. 19.

Secondly, A Man who is in Christ, is renewed in some measure in all his ways. Behold all things are new, 2 Cor. 5. 17. The Man becomes new, 1. In the way of his Interest. He was upon any good before, though but apparent, and at best but external, Psal. 4. 6. But now his interest and business is, how to be found in Christ in that day, Phil. 3. 9. or, how to be forth-coming to him, and walk before him in the Land of the Living, Psal. 56. 13. which he would chuse above all the Mercies that fill this Earth, Psal. 119. 64. The interest of Christ also becometh the Mans interest, as appeareth in the Song of Hannah, 1. Sam. 2. And in the Song of Miry, Luke 1. It is strange to see People newly converted, and having reached but the beginnings of Knowledge, concern and interest themselves in the publick matters of Christs Kingdome, so desirous to have him riding prosperously, and subduing the People under him. 2. The Man that is in Christ, is renewed in the way of his Worship. He was wont to serve God in the oldness of the Letter, for the fashion, answering the Letter of the Command in the outside of Duty, which one in whom the old Man hath absolute Dominion, can do : But now he Worshippeth God in the newness of the Spirit, Rom. 7. 6. In a new way, wherein he is helped by the Spirit of God, Rom. 8. 26. beyond the reach of Flesh and Blood. He serveth now the True and Living God, 1 Thess. 1. 9. in Spirit, and in Truth, Joh. 4. 24. Having Spiritual apprehensions of God, and engaged in his very Soul in that work, doing, and saying truly, and not feignedly, when he Worshippeth, still desiring to approach unto Him as a Living God, who heareth and seeth him, and can accept his service, Psal. 42. 1, 2. I grant, he fails of this many times ; yet I may say, such Worship he intendeth, and sometimes overtaketh, and doth not much reckon Worship, which is not so performed unto God ; and the Iniquity of his Holy things, is not the least part of his Burthen and exercise : Such a Worship, natural Men are Strangers unto, whilst they Babb'e out their Vain-glorious Boastings, Luke 18. 11, 12. to an unknown God, Acts 17. 23. 3. The Man that is in Christ, is renewed in the way of his outward Calling and Employment in the World ; he now resolveth to be about it, because God hath commanded so, Rom. 12. 11. and to eye God in it, as his last end, doing it to his glory, 1 Cor. 10. 31. And studieth to keep some intercourse with God, in the Exercise of his outward Employments, as Jacob doth in his latter Will, Gen. 49. 18. And Nehemiab did, Nehem. 2. 4. So as the Man resolveth to walk with God, and set Him always before him, Psal. 16. 3. wherein I deny not he faileth often. 4. He becometh new in the way of his Relations ; he becometh a more Dutiful Husband, band, Father, Brother, Master, Servant, Neighbour, &c. Herein doth he exercise himself to keep a Conscience void of offence towards Men, as well as towards God, Acts 24. 16. 1 Cor. 9. 22. becoming all things to all Men. 5. He becometh New in the way of his lawfull Liberties; he studieth to make use of Meate, Drink, Sleep, Recreations, Apparel, with an Eye to God, Labouring not to come under the power of any lawfull thing, 1 Cor. 6. 12, 13 nor to give offence to others in the use of these things, Rom. 14. 20, 21. & 15. 2. nor using Liberty as an occasion to the Flesh, Gal. 5. 13. Yea, he laboureth to use all these things as a stranger on Earth, so as his moderation may appear, Phil. 4. 5. And some way he doth eye God, as the last end in these things, 1 Cor. 10. 31. Doing all to the Glory of God: So as we may say of that Man, Old things are much past away, all things are in some measure become New, 2 Cor. 5. 17. He that is so a new Creature, is undoubtedly in Christ.

This Renovation of a Man in all manner of conversation, and this being under Law to God in all things is that Holiness without which no one shall see God, Heb. 12. 4. Men may fancy things to themselves, but unless they study to approve themselves unto God in all well-pleasing, and reach some inward Testimony of sincerity that way, they shall not assure their Hearts before him. The Testimony of Mens Conscience is their rejoicing, 2 Cor. 1. 12. By this we know that we know him, if we keep his Commandments, 1 John 2. 3. 1 John 3. 20, 21. No confidence, if the Heart condemn. This is the New Creature, having a Principle of new Spiritual Life infused by God into their Heart, whereby it becometh New, and putteth forth acts of New Life, throughout the whole Man, as we have said, so as he is pointed towards the whole Law, both the Commands which forbids Sin; so he resolveth to set against secret Sins, not to lay a stumbling Block before the Blind, Lev. 19. 14. Little Sins, which are judged so by many, the least things of the Law, Matth. 5. 19. Spiritual Sins, filthiness of the Spirit, 2 Cor. 7. 1. Sins of Omission, as well as of Commission, since Men are to be judged by these, Mat 25. 42, 43, 44 Yea, Sins that are winded in into his natural Humour and Constitution, and so are as a right Eye or Hand to him, Mat. 5. 29. This new Principle of Life, by the good Hand of God, maketh the Man set against every known Sin, so far as not to allow peaceable abode to any known Darknes, 2 Cor. 6. 14. As also he is pointed towards those Commands which relate to Duty, and the quickening of Grace in Man. It maketh a Man respect all known Commands, Psal. 119. 6. To live Godly, Righteously, and Soberly, Tit. 2. 12. Yea, and to study a right and sincere way and manner of doing things, resolving not to give over this study of Conformity to Gods Will, whilst he Lives on Earth; but still to bend forward towards the Prize of the high Calling of God, Phil. 3. 13, 14. This is true Holliness, very becoming all those who pretend to be Heirs of that Holy Habitation, in the immediate Company and Fellowship of a Holy God, 1 Joh. 3. 3.

Some may think these things high Attainments, and very hard to be attained to. I grant it is true. But first Remember, that there is a very large allowance in the Covenant promised to his People, which maketh things more easie. The Lord hath engaged to take away the Stony Heart, to give a Heart of Flesh, a new Heart, a Heart to fear him for ever; he hath engaged to put his Law in Mens Hearts, to put his Fear in their Hearts, to make them keep that Law; to put his Spirit within them, to cause them to keep it. He hath promised to satisfy the Priests with Fatness, that the Souls of the People may be satiated with Goodness, and to keep, and water them continually every moment, Ezek. 26. 29. Jer. 32. 39, 40. and 31. 33. Ezek. 36. 27. Jer. 31. 12. and 31. 14. Isa. 27. 3. And if he must be enquired to do all these things unto Men, he engageth to pour out the Spirit of Grace and Supplication on them, and so to Learn them how to seek these things, and how to put him to it, to do all for them, Zech. 12. 10. Secondly, for the Satisfaction of the weaker, I grant this New Creature, as we have Circumscribed and Inlarged it, will not be found, in all the degrees of it, in every gracious Person. But it is well, if 1. There be a New Man, we cannot grant less; If any Man be in Christ, there must be a New Creature; and that is the New Man, Ephes. 4. 21, 22, 23, 24. Which all must put on who are Savingly taught of Christ. There must be some renewing after the Image of God, in a Mans Soul and Body; There must be somewhat of every part of Man pointing towards God: Although I grant every one cannot instruct this to others, neither discern it in himself, because many know not the distinct parts of the Soul; nor pieces of Reformation competent to every part of Soul and Body. Yet it will be found there is some such thing in them, yea, they have a Witness of it within them, if you make the thing plain and clear to them what it is. There must be such a respect unto God's known Commands, that a Man doth not allow peaceably, any known Iniquity to dwell in him ; for what Concord is between Light and Darknes? 2 Cor. 6. 14, 15, 16. Psal. 119. 6. and 66. 18. He must not regard Iniquity. I grant, Men may be ignorant of many Commands, and many Sins ; and may imagine in some Cases, that some Sins are not hateful unto God. But supposing that they are Instructed in these things, there can be no agreement between Righteousness and Unrighteousness. 3. Men must point towards all the Law of God, in their honest Resolutions ; for this is nothing else, then to give up the Heart unto God, to put his Law in it without exception, which is a part of the Covenant we are to make with God, Heb. 8. 10. I grant many know not how to point towards Gods Law in all their ways ; but if it be made manifest unto them, how that should be done, they will point at it. And it is true, they will many times fail of their Resolutions in their practice ; yet when they have failed, they can say, They did resolve otherways, and will yet Honestly, and without Guile, resolve to do otherways. and it will prove their Affliction, to have failed of their Resolution, when the Lord discovereth it to them, which he will in due time. 4. When we are to judge of our State by the New Creature, we must do it at a convenient time, when we are in good case, at least, not when we are in worst case ; for the Flesh and Spirit, do Lust and Fight against other, Gal. 5. 17. and sometimes the one, and sometimes the other doth prevail. Now, I say, we must chuse a convenient time ; when the Spiritual part, is not by some temptation worsted and over-powered by the Flesh ; for in that case, the New Creature is recoyled back in its streams, and much returned to the Fountain and the Habits; except in some small things not easily discernable, whereby it maketh opposition to the Flesh, according to the foresaid Scripture: For, now it is the time of Winter in the Soul, and we may not expect Fruit, yea, not Leaves, as in some other Season; only here, least prophane Atheists should make advantage of this, we will say, That the Spirit doth often prevail over the Flesh in a Godly Man, and the scope, aime, renour and main drift of his way, is in the Law of the Lord, that is his Walk, Psal. 119. 1. Whereas the Path-way, and ordinary Course of the Wicked is Sin, as is often hinted in the Book of the Proverbs of Solomon. And if it happen that a Godly Man be over-mastered by any Transgression, ordinarily it is his sad Exercise; and we suppose he keeps it still in dependency before God, to have it rectified, as David speaketh, Psal. 56. 13. Wilt thou not deliver my Feet from falling?

Object. Atheists and Hypocrites may have great Changes and Renovation wrought upon them, and in them, and I fear mine be such.

Ans. I grant that Atheists and Hypocrites have many things in them, which do look like the New Creature. First, in regard of the parts of the Man. They may (1.) come to much knowledge, as Heb. 6. 4. They are enlightened, (2.) There may be a reel amongst their Affections, as they receive the Word with joy, Mat. 13. 20. (3.) They may reach a great deal of outward Reformation in the outward Man, both about freedom from Sin, and engagement to positive Duty, as that Pharisee did, Luke 18. 11, 12. Yea, (4.) in regard of their practical understanding, they may judge some things of God to be excellent. The People said that never Man speak as Christ, John 7. 46. Se.

condly, Hypocrites, may have a great deal of Profession. 1. They may talk of the Law and Gospel, and Covenant, as the Wicked do, Psal. 50. 16. 2. They may confess Sin openly to their own shame, as King Saul did, 1 Sam. 26. 21. 3. They may humble themselves in Sackcloth with Abab, 1 Kings 21. 27. 4. They may enquire busily after Duty, and come chearefully to receive it, Isa. 58. 2. 5. They may joyn with Gods Interest, in a hard and difficult time, as Demas, and other Hypocrites in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, who afterwards fell off. 6. They may give much of their Goods to God and the Saints, as, Acts 5. 1, 2. if not all their Goods, 1 Cor. 13. 3. Yea, 7. It is not impossible for some such, being straitly engaged in their Credit, to give their Bodies to be Burnt, as in the fore-cited place. Thirdly, Hypocrites may advance far in the common and ordinary steps of a Christian work, such as the Elect have, when God leads them captive As, 1. they may be under great Convictions of Sin, as Judas was, Mat. 27. 3, 4, 5. So was King Saul often. 2. They may tremble at the Word of God, and be under much terrour, as Felix was, Acts 24. 25. 3. They may rejoyce in receiving of the Truth, as Mat. 13. 20. 4. They may be in some peace and quiet, in expectation of Salvation by Christ, as the foolish Virgins were, Mat. 25. 5. All this may be backed and followed with some good measure of Reformation. The unclean Spirit may go out of them, Mat. 12. 43. Luke 18. 11, 12. 6. This work may seem to be confirmed by some special experiences, and tastings of the good Word of God, Heb. 6. 4. Fourthly, Hypocrites may have some things very like the Saving Graces of the Spirit, As, (1.)

They

They may have a sort of Faith with Simon Magus, Acts 8. 13. (2.) A sort of Repentance, and walk Mournfully, Mal 3. 14. (3.) A great fear of God, such as Balaam, who for a House full of Gold, would not go with the Messengers of Balak, without leave asked of God, and given, Num 22. 18. 4. They have a sort of Hope, Job 13. 13. 5. They have some Love: So had Herod to John, Mark 6. 26 I need not insist; it is out of all Question, they have Counterfeits of all Saving Graces. 5. They have somewhat like the special Communications of God, and the witnessing of his Spirit, as somewhat like the Powers of the World to come, powerfully on them; with some flashes of Joy arising thence, as Heb 6. 4, 5. Notwithstanding all which, they are but almost persuaded with Agrippa, to be Christians, Acts 26. 28. It were tedious to speak particularly to each of these things, and to clear it up, that they are all but rotten Ware: I shall condescend upon some few things, wherein a truly Renewed Man, who is in Christ, doth differ from Hypocrites and Reprobates. (1.) Whatsoever Change be in Hypocrites; yet their Heart is not Changed, and made New. The new Heart is only given to the Elect, when they are Converted, and brought under the Bond of the Covenant, Jer 32. 39. Ezek 36. 26. Hypocrites did never apprehend Christ, as the only satisfying Good in all the World, for which with Joy, they would quit All: For then the Kingdom of God were entered in them, Mat 13. 44. The truly Renewed Man, dare and can, upon good ground, say, and hath a Testimony of it from on High, that his Heart hath been Changed in taking up of Christ, and hath been led out after him, him, as the only enriching Treasure, in whom to be found, he accounteth all Things else Loss and Dung, Phil. 3. 8, 9. (2.) Whatsoever Reformation or Profession Hypocrites do attain unto, as it cometh not from a new Heart, and pure Principle of Zeal for God, so it is always for some Wicked and By-end, as to be seen of Men, Mat. 6. 5. or to evite and shun some outward Strait, to be free of God's Wrath, and the Trouble of their own Conscience, Isa. 59. 3. Mal. 3. 14. In Testimony of this, they never have Respect to all known Commands, else they should never be ashamed, Pf. 119. 6. nor do they without approved Guile in their own Heart, resolve against every known Iniquity; else they were freed of Heart-condemnings, and so might justly have Confidence before God, 1 Job. 3. 20. If in never so mean a Case, they did from a Principle of Love unto, and of Zeal for Christ, and for a right End, confess and profess him, Christ were obliged by his own Word to confess them before his Father, Mat. 10. 32. (3.) Whatsoever length Hypocrites advance in that Work, by which the People are led in unto Christ, yet they never seek, First, the Kingdom of God, and the Righteousness thereof, Mat. 6. 33. the one Thing that is necessary, (viz.) Christ's Friendship and Fellowship, is never their one Thing and Heart-satisfying Choice; else that better part would never be taken from them, Luk. 10. 42. (4.) Whatsoever Counterfeits of Grace are in Hypocrites, yet they are all bred there, without any saving Work of the Spirit of Christ, and it is enough to exclude them from the benefit of this Mark, that they are never denied to those Things, nor emptied of them, but still do rest on them as the Saviour, so that they submit not unto the Righteousness of God, Rom. 10. 3. and that is enough to keep them at a distance from Christ, who will never clout that old Garment of Hypocrites with his fine new Linnen, nor put his new Wine in these old Bottles, Mat. 9. 16, 17. (5.) We may say, let Hypocrites, Reprobates, or Athiests have what they can, they want the three great Essentials of Religion and true Christianity: First, They are not broken in themselves, and emptied even of their Righteousness, the length of Self-loathing, yet lying open for Relief. Such lost ones Christ came to Seek and Save, Luk. 19. 10. Secondly, They never took up Christ Jesus as the only Treasure and Jewel that can only enrich, and should satisfy, and therefore have never cordially agreed unto God's Device in the Covenant, and so are not worthy of him; neither hath the Kingdom of God savingly entred into their Heart, Mat. 13. 44. Thirdly, They never in earnest do close with Christ's whole Yoke without Exception, judging all his Will Just and Good, Holy and Spiritual, as Rom. 7. 12. and therefore no Rest allowed on them by Christ, Mat. 11. 29. Therefore whosoever thou art, who can't lay clear and just Claim to these three foresaid Things, thou art beyond the reach of all Atheists, Hypocrites and Reprobates in the World, as having answered the great ends and intents of Law and Gospel.

Object. I am clear sometimes, I think to lay claim to that Mark of the new Creature; yet at other times, Sin doth so prevail over me, that I am made to question all the Work within me.

Answ. It is much to be lamented, that People professing his Name, should be so slighted and enslaved flaved by Transgression as many are. Yet in answer to the Objection, if it be seriously propounded, we say, The Saints are found in Scripture justly laying claim unto God and his Covenant, when Iniquity did prevail over them, as we find, Psal. 65. 3. Iniquities prevail against me; as for our Transgressions, thou wilt do them away; Rom. 7. 25. Paul thanks God through Christ, when a Law in his Members leads him Captive unto Sin: But for the better Understanding, and safe Application of such Truths, we must difference betwixt gross Out-breakings and ordinary Infirmities, or Sins that come unawares upon a Man, without Fore-thought or any Deliberation. As for the former sort, it is hard for a Man, whilst he is under the Power of them, to see his gracious Change, although it be in him, and very hard to draw any Comfort from it, until the Man be in some measure recovered, and beginning seriously to resent such Sins, and to resolve against them. We find David calling himself God's Servant, quickly after his Numbring of God's People. but he was then under the serious resentment of Sin, 2 Sam. 24. 10. Fonab layeth claim to God as his Master under his Rebellion, but he is then ruing it, and in a Spirit of Revenge against himself for his Sin, Fon. 1. 9, 10, 11. Next, as for these Sins of Infirmitie, and daily Incurfion, and Heart Ills, such as those whereof Paul doth complain (it is like) were. We shall draw out some Things from that seventh Chapter to the Romans, whereupon Paul maintains his Interest in Christ; and if you can apply them, it is well. (1.) When Paul findeth that he doth much fail, and cannot teach Conformity to God's Law, he doth not blame the Law, as being too strict, so as Men cannot

cannot keep it, as Hypocrites use to speak; but he doth blame himself as being Carnal; and he saith of the Law, that it is Good, Holy and Spiritual, Rev. 7. 12, 14. (2.) He can say, he failed of a Good which he intended, and did out-shoot himself, and he had often honestly resolved against the Evil which he fell into, Rom. 7. 15, 18, 19. (3.) He saith, that the prevailing Sin over him is his Exercise, so as he judgeth himself wretched, because of such a Body of Death, from which he longeth to be delivered, Rom. 7. 24. (4.) He saith, that whilst he is under the Power and Law of Sin, there is somewhat in the bottom of his Heart opposing it, although over-mastered by it, which would be another way, and when that gets the upper Hand, it is a delightful Thing, Rom. 7. 22, 25. upon these Things he thanks God in Christ, that there is no Condemnation, Rom. 7. 25. Rom. 8. 1. Now, then look if ye can lay claim to these Things. (1.) If you do blame your self, and approve the Law, whilst you fail. (2.) If you can say that you do often resolve against Sin honestly, and without known Guile, and do so resolve the contrary Good before the Evil break in upon you. (3.) If you can say, that you are so far exercised with your Failings as to judge your self Wretched, because of such Things, and a Body of Death, which is the Root and Fountain of such Things. (4.) If you can say, that there is a Party within you opposing these Evils, which would be at the right way, and, as it were, is in its Element, when it is in God's way, it is well; only be advised not to take Rest until in some measure, you be rid of the Ground of this Objection, or at least, until you can very clearly say, you are waging ing War with these Things: Now a good help against the prevailing Power of Sin, is, to cleave close to Christ Jesus by Faith, which as it is a desirable part of Sanctification, and a notable piece of Conformity to God's Will, and most subservient unto his Design in the Gospel, Gal. 2. 20, 21. and so should be much endeavoured by People, as a Work pleasing unto God, Job. 6. 29. So it is the ready way to draw Life and Sap from Christ. the blessed Root for Fruitfulness in all Cases, as Job. 15. 4, 5.

Object. I do not partake of these special Communications of God, mentioned in the Scripture, and Actings and Outgoings of his Spirit, whereof gracious People are often speaking, and whereunto they attain: the want of these Things maketh me much suspect my State.

Answer. I shall shortly hint some of these excellent Communications, and I hope upon a right discovery of them there will be but small ground found for the jealous Complaints of many gracious People.

First, (besides these Convictions of the Spirit of God, which use to usher Christ's way unto the Souls of Men, and these also which afterwards do ordinarily attend them) there is a Seal of the Spirit of God spoken of in Scripture, the principal Thing whereof is the Sanctifying Work of the Holy Ghost, imprinting the Draughts and Lineaments of God's Image, and revealed Will upon Man, as a Seal or Signet doth leave an Impression and Stamp of its Likeness upon the Thing sealed: so it is, 2 Tim. 2. 19. The Foundation of God — having this Seal, The Lord knoweth them who are his. And let every one that nameth the Name of Christ

Interest in Christ.

depart from Iniquity: And thus, I conceive, the deal to be called a Witness, 1 Joh. 5. 10. He that believeth, hath the Witness in himself, that is, the Grounds upon which an Interest in Christ is to be made out and proved, are in every Believer; for he hath somewhat of the sanctifying Work of God's spirit in him, which is a sure (although not always clear and manifest) Witness.

Secondly, There is Communion with God, much talked of among Christians, whereby they understand the sensible presence of God, refreshing the soul exceedingly; but if we speak properly, Communion with God, is a mutual Interest between God and Man, who hath closed with him in Christ.
It is a commonness, or a common Interest between God and a Man; not only is a Man interested in God himself, but in all that is the Lords; so the Lord hath a special Interest in the Man, and also all that belongs to him. There is a Communion between Husband and Wife, whereby they have a special Interest in each others Persons, Goods, Gear, and Concernments; so is it here: There is such a communion with God. He is our God, and all things are ours, because he is ours; this Communion with God, all true Believers have at all times; we shall shew afterwards: I grant there is an actual Improvement of that Communion, whereby men do boldly meddle with any Thing that belongs unto God, and do meddle with himself as their own, with much Homeliness and Familiarity, especially in Worship: When the Soul doth Confess with a Living God, partaking of the Divine nature, growing like unto him, and sweetly traveling through his Attributes, and, with some confidence of Interest, viewing these Things, as the

The Trial of a Saving

the Man's own Goods and Gear: This we call Communion with God in Ordinances. This indeed is not so ordinarily nor frequently made use to Men, and all his People do not equally partake of it; and it is true, that what is in God, goes not out for the behoof of the Man, to his Apprehension equally at all times; yet certainly Communion with God, properly so called, (viz.) the commonness of Interest between God and a Man who is savingly in Covenant with him, doth alway stand firm and sure; and so much of Communion with God in Ordinances, have all Believers, so that their Heart converseth with a Living God there now and then, and is in some measure changed into that same Image, and there needeth be no Doubt any further about it.

Thirdly, There is a Thing which is called Fellowship with God, often mistaken also among Believers. If by Fellowship, be meant the walking in our Duty, as in the Sight of a Living God, who seeth and heareth us, and is Witness to all our Carriage. It is a Thing common unto all gracious Men, they have it Habitually, and in Design.
Psal. 16. 8. I have set the Lord always before me yea, and often they have it actually in Exercise when their Spirit is in any good Frame; they walk, as if they saw God standing by them, and have some thoughts of his Favour through Christ.
Truly our Fellowship is with the Father, and with the Son, 1 John 1. 3. If we by Fellowship, do mean Sweet, Refreshing, Familiar, sensible Conversation with God, which doth delight and refresh the Soul (beside what the Conscience of Duty doth.) it is then a walking in the Light of his Countenance and a good part of sensible Presence; and though it seemeth Enoch had much of it, whilst it said be walked with God, Gen. 5. 24. yet it is not ordinary as the former, nor so common to all Christians; for here the Soul is filled as with Marrow and Fatness, following hard after its Guide, and regularly upheld by his right Hand, Psal. 63. 5, 8.

 Fourthly, There is a Thing which is called Access unto God, and this I take to be the removing of Obstructions out of the way between a Man and God, so as the Man is admitted to come near.
 We are said to have Access to a great Person, when Doors are cast open, Guards removed from about him, and we admitted to come close at hand; so it is here. Now this Access in Scripture, sometimes taken for Christ's preparing of the way, the removing of Enmity between God and sinners, so as Men now have a patent way to come to God through Christ, Ephs. 2. 18. Sometimes it is taken for the actual improvement of that Access purchased by Christ, when a Man finds all Obstructions and Differences, which do ordinarily lie in between him and God, removed; God is not uncouth to him, nor as a Stranger, keeping himself from him, or frowning on him, but the Man is admitted to come even unto his Seat, as Job 23. 3. Of the want of this doth Job complain, Job 23. 8, 9. whilst he saith, I go forward, backward, to the right and left Hand, and I find him not.
 The first sort of Access is common to all Believers, they are brought near by the Blood of the Covenant, and are no more far off, as the deadly Enmity between God and them is removed. But Access, in the other Sense, is dispensed more, according to the Lord's absolute Sovereignty and Pleasure, and it is left in the Power of Believers to obstruct

fruct it unto themselves, until it please the Lord mercifully and freely to grant it unto them again; so it is up and down, and there needs be no question (as to Man's State) about it.

Fifthly, There is a Thing called Liberty before God, and this properly is Freedom. or free Speaking unto God, many do much question their State because of the want of this, now and then, since the Scripture hath said, Where the Spirit is, there is Liberty, 2 Cor. 3. 17. but they do not justly consider that Liberty, spoken of there, unto this free Speaking before God. I grant where the Spirit of the Lord doth savingly discover God's Will in the Scripture to a Man, There is Liberty from any Obligation to the Ceremonial Law, and from the condemning Power of the Moral Law, and from much of that gross Darknes and Ignorance, which is on natural Hearts as a Vail hiding Christ in the Gospel from them. I grant also, that sometimes even this Liberty which is a free Communion with God, and ordering of our Case before him, and filling of our Mouths with Arguments, Job 23. 4. is granted to the Godly, but not as Liberty taken in the former Senses. Although the Lord hath obliged himself to pour out the Spirit of Prayer upon the House of David, in some measure, Zech. 12. 10. Yet this Communication of the Spirit, which we call Liberty. or free Speaking unto God, dependeth much on the Lord's absolute Pleasure, whether and in what Measure to allow it. This Liberty which we call Freedom, or free Speaking with God in Prayer, is sometimes much abstracted from any great Confidence in the time of Prayer, (at least until it draw towards the Close of it) it standeth much in a vivacity of the Understanding to take up the Case which a Man is to speak before God, so as he can order his Cause; and next, there be Words; or Verbal Expressions, Elegant, Suitable, and very Emphatical, or powerful and pithy; there is also joyned a fervency of Spirit in Prayer, whereof the Scripture speaketh; the Soul is hot, and kindled, and very intent: There is also ordinarily in this Liberty, a special melting of the Heart, (often joyned with a great measure of the Spirit of Grace and Supplication, Zech. 12. 10, 11.) for so the Soul is poured out before God, as for a First-born: such is the Liberty, which many Saints get before God; whilst in much brokenness of Heart, and fervency of Spirit, they are admitted to speak their mind fully to God, as a Living God, noticing (at least) their Prayer: Sometimes this Liberty is joyned with Confidence; and then it is not only a free, but also a bold Speaking before God; this Boldness with Confidence, Ephes. 3. 12. this is more rarely imparted unto Men, then the former, yet it is ordinary. It hath in-it, beside what was spoke before, some Influence of the Spirit upon Faith, making it put out some vigorous action in Prayer; there is a sweet mournful frame of Spirit, by which a Man poureth out his Heart to Gods Bosome; and with some confidence of his Power and good Will, pleadeth his Cause before Him, as a Living God; and this is all the sense of the Presence that many Saints do attain unto; there is no ground of doubt about a Mans Estate, or point of Liberty before God in this last Sense, because there is nothing Essential to the making of a gracious State here: Some have it, and some want it; some have it sometimes, and not at other times, so that it is much up and down; yet yet I may say, gracious Men may do much (by a very ordinary influence) in contributing towards the attaining, and retaining, or keeping of such a frame of Spirit.

Sixthly, There is a thing called Influence or breathing of the Spirit. This gracious Influence (for of such onely do I now speak) is either ordinary; and this is the operation of the Holy Spirit on the Soul, and the Habits of Grace there, whereby they are still kept alive, and in some Exercise and Acting, although not very discernable. This Influence (I conceive) doth always attend Believers, And is that keeping and watering Night and Day, and every Moment, promised, Isa. 27. 3. Or, this Influence is more singular, and special, and is the same to a gracious (although a withered) Soul, as the Wind and Breath to the dry Bones, putting them in good Case, Ezek. 37. 9, 10. And as the Dew or Rain to the Grass, or newly mowen Field, and parched Ground, Psal. 72. 6. such Influence is meant, Cant. 4. 16. by the blowing of the South Wind, making the Spices to flow out. When the Spirit moveth thus, there is an edge put upon the Graces of God in the Soul, and they are made to act more vigorously. This is the inlarging of the Heart, by which a Man doth run in the ways of God, Psal. 112. 32. This Influence is more discernable than the former, and not so ordinarily communicated. Also here, sometimes the Wind bloweth more upon one Grace, and sometimes more discernably upon another, and often upon many of the Graces together; and according to the lesser, or greater measure of this Influence the Soul acteth more or less vigorously towards God: And since Faith is a created Grace in the Soul, this Influence of the Spirit is upon it, sometimes times less, sometimes more, and accordingly is the assurance of Faith, small or great.

Seventhly, There is the hearing of Prayer often spoken of in Scripture, and many vex themselves about it, alledging that they know nothing of it Experimentally. I grant there is a favourable hearing of Prayer: But we must remember it is twofold.

Either, 1. It is such as a Man is simply to believe by way of Argument on Scriptural Grounds. As if I be fled unto Christ, and do approach unto God in him, pray according to his Will, not regarding Iniquity in my Heart, exercising Faith about the Thing I Pray for, absolutely or conditionally, according to the Nature of the Thing and Probability about it. I am obliged to believe that God heareth my Prayer, and will give what is Good, according to the Scriptures, Joh. 14. 13, 14. Whatsoever ye ask in my Name, I will do it. 1 John 5. 14. This is our Confidence, that whatsoever we ask according to his Will, he heareth us. Mark 11. 24. Believe that you receive, and you shall have what you desire. Psal. 66. 18. If I regard Iniquity, he will not hear. Then if I regard not Iniquity, I may believe that he doth hear me.

Or, 2. A Man doth sensibly perceive that God heareth his Prayer. It is made out to his Heart without any syllogistical Deduction. Such a hearing of Prayer got Hannah, 1 Sam. 1. 8. Her Countenance was no more sad. Surely the Lord did breathe upon her Faith, and made her believe that what she was heard, and she could not make it out by Argument; for she had not Grounds whereon to build the premises of the Argument according to Scripture in that particular. God did Stamp it in some way upon her Heart sensibly, and so made her believe it. This is but rarely granted, especially in Cases clearly deducible in Scripture. And therefore People are much to be satisfied in exercising their Faith about the other, and let God give of this latter what he pleaseth. A Man's gracious State should not be brought upon Debate, upon the account of such hearing of Prayer.

Eighthly, There is assurance of God's Favour by the witnessing of our own Spirits; which assurance, is deduced by way of Argument syllogistically; Thus, Whosoever believeth on Christ shall never Perish; But I do believe on Christ; Therefore I shall never Perish. Whofo hath respect unto all Gods Commandments, shall never be ashamed; But I have respect unto all his Commands: Therefore I shall never be ashamed. I say, by reasoning thus, and comparing Spiritual Things with Spiritual Things, Man may attain unto a good certainty of his Gracious State. It is supposed, 1 John 3. 18, 19. That by loving the Brethren in Deed and in Truth we may assure our Hearts before God, and that Man may rejoyce upon the Testimony of a Good Conscience, 2 Cor. 1. 12. A Man may have Confidence if his Heart do not condemn him, 1 John 3. 21. We may then attain unto some assurance (although not full assurance) by the Witness of our own Spirit. I do not deny, that in this witnessing of Spirits towards assurance, there is some Concurrence of the Spirit of God. But, I conceive there needeth but a very ordinary Influence, without which we can do nothing. Now, this assurance, such it is, may be reached by intelligent Believers who keep a good Conscience in their Walk.

hope, there needs be no Debate about it, as to a Man's gracious State; for if a Man will clear himself of Heart-condemnings, he will speedily reach this assurance.

Ninthly, There is a witnessing of God's Spirit, mentioned, Rom. 8. 16. A bearing Witness with our Spirits that we are the Children of God. This Operation of the Spirit is best understood, if we produce any Syllogism by which our Spirit doth witness our Sonship; as for Example, Whosoever loveth the Brethren, is past from Death to Life, and consequently is in Christ: But I love the Brethren; Therefore I am passed from Death to Life. Here there is a threefold Operation of the Spirit, or Three Operations rather.

The first is a Beam of Divine Light upon the first Proposition, perswading the Divine Authority of it as the Word of God; the Spirit of the Lord must witness the Divinity of the Scripture, and that is the infallible Word of God, far beyond all other Arguments can be used for it.

The second Operation is, A Glorious Beam of Light from the Spirit, shining upon the second Proposition, and so upon his own Graces in the Soul, discovering them to be true Graces, and such as the Scripture calleth so. Thus are we said to know by his Spirit, the Things freely given to us of God, Cor. 2. 13.

The third Operation is, in order to the third Proposition of the Argument, or the Conclusion; and this we conceive, to be nothing else, but an influence of Faith, strengthening it to draw a conclusion of full assurance upon the foresaid Premises. Now (with permission unto others, who have greater Light in Scripture, and more Experience of these precious Communications) I do conceive the Witness of the Spirit, or witness of it, which is mentioned, Rom. 8. 16. is not that first Operation upon the first Proposition; for that Operation is that Testimony of the Spirit, by which he beareth Witness to the Divinity of the whole Scripture, and asserteth the Divine Authority of it unto the Souls of gracious Men; and such an Operation may be upon a Truth of Scripture, which doth not relate to a Man's Sonship or Interest in Christ at all. The Spirit may so shine upon any Truth, relating to Duty, or any other fundamental Truth, perswading the Divinity of it, upon and unto the Soul, and speaking nothing relating to a Man's Interest in Christ. Neither is the third Operation of the Spirit, by which he makes Faith boldly draw the Conclusion, this witnessing of the Spirit; for that Operation is nothing else but influence upon Faith, bringing it out to full assurance; but that whereupon this full assurance is drawn or put out, is somewhat deposed and witnessed already. Therefore I conceive the second Operation of the Spirit upon the second Proposition, and so upon the Graces in the Man, is that witness of God's Spirit, that Beam of Divine Light, shining upon those Graces, whereby they are made very conspicuous to the Understanding; That is the Witness, the shining on them in his witnessing: For only here in this Proposition and in this Operation, doth the Spirit of God prove a Co-witness with our Spirit: For, the main Thing wherein the Witness of our Spirit lieth, is the second Proposition, and so the Spirit of God, witnessing with our Spirits, is also in that same Proposition. So these two Witnesses, having deposed and witnessed one and the same Thing:

Thing: viz. The truth and reality of such and such Graces in the Man, which our own Spirit or Conscience doth depone, according to its Knowledge, and the Spirit of the Lord doth certainly affirm and witness to be so. There is a Sentence drawn forth, and a Conclusion of the Man's Sonship, by the Man's Faith. breathed upon by the Spirit for that effect, and this Conclusion beareth the full assurance of a Man's Sonship. It may be presumed, that some true Saints do not partake of this all their Days, as Heb. 2. 15.

Tenthly. I speak with the experience of many Saints, and, I hope, according to Scripture, if I say, there is a Communication of the Spirit of God which is let out to some of his People sometimes; it is somewhat beside, if not beyond, that witnessing of a Sonship spoken of before. It is a glorious Divine Manifestation of God unto the Soul, shedding abroad God's Love in the Heart; It is a Thing better felt than spoken of; It is no audible Voice, but it is a waffe or glance of Glory, filling the Soul with God, as he is Life, Light, Love, and Liberty, countervailing that audible Voice, O Man, greatly beloved, Dan. 9. 22, 23. putting a Man in a Transport with this on his Heart, It is good to be here, as Mat. 17. 4. It is that which went out from Christ to Mary, when He but mentioned her Name, John 20. 16. he had spoken some Words to her before, and she understood not that it was he: But when he uttered this one Word, MARY, there was some admirable Divine Conveyance and Manifestation made out unto her Heart, by which she was so satisfyingly filled, that there was no place for Arguing and Disputing, whether or not that was Christ, and if she had any Interest in him.

That Manifestation made Faith to it self, and did purchase Credit and Trust to it self, and was equivalent with, Thus saith the Lord. This is such a glance of Glory, that it may in the highest Sense, be called the Earnest, or first Fruits of the Inheritance: For, it is a felt Armful of the Holy God, almost wholly conforming the Man unto his Likeness, so swallowing him up, that he forgetteth all Things, except the present Manifestation: O how glorious is this Manifestation of the Spirit! Faith here riseth to so full an Assurance, that it resolveth wholly into sensible Embracements of God. This is the Thing which doth best deserve the Title of sensible Presence. And, it is like, is not given unto all Believers, some whereof are all their Days under Bondage, and in Fear, Hebr. 2. 15. But here Love, almost Perfect, casteth out Fear. This is so absolutely let out upon the Master's Pleasure, and so transient and passing, or quickly gone when it is, that no Man may bring his gracious State upon Debate for want of it.

Eleventhly, There is a Thing we call Peace, about which many do vex themselves. This Peace is either about a Man's State, that he is reconciled unto God by Jesus Christ, or it is about his present Case and Condition, that he is walking so, as approved of God, at least, so far, as there is no Quarrel or Controversie between God and him, threatening a Stroke: Both of these, are either such in the court of Scripture, and consequently in God's Account, or in the court of a Man's own Conscience. Peace, about a Man's State, as being in Christ, is sure in the court of Scripture, and of Heaven, when a Man doth by Faith close with Christ and the New Covenant, Rom. 5. 1. Being justified justified by Faith, we have Peace with God. It being sure and solid in the court of Scripture, it should hold sure in the court of Man's Conscience, it being rightly informed; for in that Case, it still speaks according to Scripture: But, because often the Conscience is mis-informed, and in the dark, therefore there is often Peace about a Man's State according to Scripture, whilst his Conscience doth threaten the contrary, and doth still condemn, and refuseth to assail the Man, as being reconciled unto God through Christ. In this Case the Conscience must be informed, and the Man's gracious State made out by the Marks of Grace, as we shewed before; and here the Witness of my own Spirit, will do much to allay the Cry of the Conscience; and if the Spirit of the Lord joyn his Witness and Testimony, the Conscience is perfectly satisfied, and proclaimeth Peace to the Man. The other Peace, about a Man's present Case or Condition, viz. That it is approved of God in a Gospel Sense, it may be wanting, and justly wanting, although the other Peace about a Man's State be sure. This Peace about a Man's Case and Condition, it is either such in the Court of Scripture, and this is when a Man is not regarding Iniquity, and accepting the Commands of God without Exception; then the Scripture saith, he stands in an even Place, and he needeth fear no stated Quarrel between God and him, in order to a temporary Stroak; and when it is thus, his Conscience should also assail him that same way; and would do so, if it were rightly informed; but because the Conscience is often in the dark, therefore a Man may be alarm'd with Evil in the court of Conscience, as if he were justly to expect a Stroak from God.

because of his Sin, and some Quarrel God hath at him, although he intends Salvation for him; this is enough to keep a Man in Disquiet, and to inhibit him. the rejoycing allowed upon him, whilst he is walking in his Integrity: Therefore a Man must here also inform his Conscience, and receive no Accusations, nor Condemnings from it, unless it make them clear by Scripture. At that Bar let every Man stand both about his State, and his Condition, or Case; and let him appeal from all other Courts to that, and not receive any Indictment but conform to the Truth of God, by which the Conscience is to proceed in all Things; and if this were well lookt unto, there would not be so many groundless Suspicions, amongst the Lord's People, either about their State, or Condition, upon every Thought which entereth their Mind.

Twelfthly. There is the Joy of the Holy Ghost, and this is when the Spirit doth breathe upon our rejoycing in God (which is a Grace very little in Exercise with many) and maketh it set out sensibly and vigorously; and he exciteth and stirreth the Passion of Joy and Delight in the Soul, so as there is an unspeakable and glorious Joy in the Soul, in the apprehension of God's Friendship and Nearness unto him, 1 Pet. 1. 8. This Joy followeth upon Peace, and Peace followeth Righteousness, Rom. 14. 17. This Joy really will not fail to be according to the measure of the assurance of Faith, as 1 Pet. 1. 8. In whom believing, ye rejoyce, &c. So that the removal of Mistakes about other Things, will allay Doubts about this.

Now, because some of these excellent Communications of the Spirit, after they are gone, are brought in question, as delusions of Satan. For vindication of them we say, that the special Operations of God's Spirit in any high degree, usually are communicated to People after such brokenness of Spirit; Psal. 51. 8. after so singular pains in Religious Duty, Dan. 9. 3. 21. or in time of such suffering for Righteousness, 1 Pet. 4. 14. or if they break in as the Rain that waiteth not for Man, then they do so Humble and Abase the Person, Isa. 6. 5. and there are found so many Evidences of Grace in the Man, Rom. 8. 16. or these Things do so provoke unto Holiness, and to have every Thing answerable, and conform unto these Manifestations of God, 2 Tim. 2. 19. the Person under them doth so loath all Things beside God's Friendship and Fellowship, Mat. 17. 4. and these Things do carry on them, and with them so much Authority, and divine Superscription, whilst they are in the Soul, that afterwards they may appear sufficiently to be special Communications of God, and singular gracious Operations of his Spirit, and no delusions of Satan transforming himself into an Angel of Light, 2 Cor. 11. 14. nor such common flashes of the Spirit, as may admit afterwards irrecoverable Apostacy from God, Heb. 6. 4, 5, 6. Now then, to conclude this part of the Work that relateth unto Trial; I say, to all these who complain of the want of the precious Out-lettings of the Spirit. 1. Bless God if you want nothing Essential for making out of a saving Interest in Christ. God hath given unto you Christ Jesus, the greatest Gift he had, and since your Heart is shapen out for him, he will with him, give you all Things that are good for you, in their Season. 2. I do believe, upon a right Search and Tryal, after you have understood the Communications of the Spirit, you are not so great a Stranger to many Things, as you did suspect your self to be. But 3. Remember the Promises of Life, and of Peace with God, are now here in Scripture made unto these special Things whereof you alledge the want: The Promises are made unto Faith, followed with Holiness; and it may be presumed, that many Heirs of Glory do not in this Life partake of some of these Things, but are in Bondage all their Days through fear of Death, Heb. 2. 15. so that there should be no mistake about these Things: We may seek after them, but God is free to give or withhold them. 4. Many do seek after such Manifestations before they give Credit by Faith unto God's Word; he hath born Record that there is Life enough for Men in Christ Jesus; and if Men would by believing set to their Seal, that God is true, they should partake of more of these excellent Things. 5. I may say, many have not honourable Apprehensions and Thoughts of the Spirit of God, whose proper Work it is, to put out the foresaid noble Operations; They do not adore him as God, but vex, grieve, quench, and resist him, and many People complaining of the want of these Things, are not at the Pains to seek the Spirit in his Out-goings, and few do set themselves apart for such precious Receipts: Therefore be at more Pains in Religion, give more Credit to his Word, and Esteem more highly of the Spirit of God, and so you may find more of these excellent Things.

How to attain unto a Saving Interest in CHRIST.

HAVING in the former part of this Treatise put every Mans State to Tryal; it now remains, that in this following Part, we give advice to those, who neither can, nor dare lay Claim to the Marks formerly mentioned.

Quest. What shall they do who want the Marks of a true, and saving Interest in Christ, already spoken of, and neither can, nor dare pretend unto them?

Ans. If Men miss in themselves the Marks of a Saving Interest in Christ, spoken of before: Then it is their Duty, and of all that hear this Gospel, Personally, and Heartily to close with Gods Device of Saving Sinners by Christ Jesus, and this shall secure their State.

For the better understanding of this, we shall premise some things for Information of those who are more Ignorant, and then speak more directly to the thing. As for the things to be premised.

1. The Lord did at the beginning, out of his Bounty, make a Covenant with Man in Adam Gen. 2. 17. And did enable Man to abide in that Covenant, Eccl. 7. 29. But Man by Eating of that that forbidden Fruit, Gen. 3. did break the Covenant, Hof. 6. 7. and made it void for ever, Rom. 3. 20. and involved himself into all Misery thereby, Rom. 5. 12. 2. The Lord did most freely, from Everlasting, Purpose and Intend to Save Men another way, viz. by Christ Jesus, and the Covenant of Grace, in which he intended Reconcilement with the Elect, through Christ Jesus (God and Man, Born of a Woman in due time, to make this Agreement effectual,) And this Device satisfying his own Justice, and saving of the Elect by Christ, he did at first intimate to our Parents in Paradise, Gen. 3. 15. where he saith, That the Seed of the Woman, shall bruise the Serpents Head: And the Lord hath in all Generations made this known to his Church. 3. The Lord hath in all Ages Covenanted to be the reconciled God of all these, who by their Subjection to his Ordinances, did profess their satisfaction with this Device, and oblige themselves to acquiesce in the same, and to seek salvation by Christ Jesus, as God doth offer him in the Gospel: So all the People of Israel, are called the Lords People, and are said to avouch him to be their God, and he doth avouch them to be his People, Exod. 19. 5. 8. Deut. 26. 17, 18. Yea, the Lord doth also engage himself, to be the God of the Seed, and Children of these who do so subject to his Ordinances. The Covenant is said to be made between God and all the People, young and old, present, and not present that Day, Deut. 29. 10, 11--15. and all are appointed to come under some Seal of that Covenant, as was enjoined to Abraham, Gen. 7. 10. Not only was it so in the Old Testament, but it is so in the New Testament also. The Lord makes offer of himself, to be our God in Christ Jesus, and the People professing their Satisfaction in that offer, and in Testimony thereof, Subjecting themselves unto the Ordinances, they are reckoned a Covenanted People; and are joyned unto his Church in Thousands, receiving a Seal of the Covenant, without any further particular previous Tryal, Act. 2. 38, 41. 4. Many do deal Treacherously with God in this Covenant, Psal. 78. 36, 37. And although they profess their Estimation of Christ the Saviour, and Heart-satisfaction, with that Device of Saving Sinners by him, and having the Image of God restored by him, in them; yet their Heart is not right with God, and they do content themselves with an empty Title, of being in a Sealed Covenant with God, John 8. 39. Abraham is our Father; (say they) For although the Lord obligeth every Man who professeth his Satisfaction with Christ Jesus, the devised Ransom, to be cordial and sincere herein, and only to these who are so, doth he make out the Spiritual Promises of the Covenant, (they only being priviledged to be the Sons of God, who do really receive Christ, John 1. 12.) yet the Lord doth permit many to profess their clos- ing with him in Christ, both in the Old and New Testament, whilst their Heart is not engaged; and he doth admit them to be Members of his Church, granting unto them the use of Ordinances, and many other External Mercies and Priviledges denied unto the Heathen, who are not in Covenant with him. 5. Although the greater part of People do foolishly fancy, that they have closed with God in Christ Jesus, sincerely, and heartily, or at least, they do without any ground or warrant, promise a new Heart to themselves before they they depart this Life; yet there be but very few, who do really and cordially close with God in Christ Jesus, as he is offered in the Gospel; and so there be but very few Saved, as is clear, Mat. 7. 14. * Strait is the Gate, and narrow is the Way which leadeth unto Life, and few there be who find it, Mat. 20. 16. Many are Called, but few are Chosen. If People would believe this, it might help to Alarm them. 6. Although none at all do cordially close with God in Christ Jesus, and acquiesce in that Ransome found out by God, except only such as are Elected, Rom. 11. 7. And whose Hearts the Lord doth Sovereignly determine to that blessed Choice, John 6. 44. Yet the Lord hath left it as a Duty upon People who hear this Gospel, to close with his offer of Salvation through Christ Jesus, as if it were in their power to do it. And the Lord, through these Commands, and Exhortations, (wherein he obligeth Men to the thing) doth convey Life and Strength to the Elect, and doth therein convey the new Heart unto them, which pointeth kindly toward this new Device of Saving Sinners, and towards Christ in his Covenant Relations; or, it is the Lords mind in these Commands and Invitations, to put People on some Duty, with which he useth to concur, for Accomplishing that Business between him and them; so then, it is a coming on our part, and yet a drawing on his part, John 6. 44. It is a drawing on his part, and a running on our part, Cam. 1. 4. It is an Approaching on our part, and yet a calling, and causing to Approach, on his part, Psal. 64. 4. it is a Believing, or Receiving on our part, John 1. 12. And yet it is given us to Believe, Phil 1. 29.

Having

Having premised these things, I say, if Men miss in themselves the Marks of a saving Interest in Christ, spoken of in the former part of the Treatise; then for securing their State, they are obliged with all Diligence, personally and heartily to accept of, and close with Gods Device of Saving Sinners by Christ Jesus, held out in the Gospel. In handling of this, we shall 1. shew what it is to accept of, and close with that noble Invention. 2 We shall shew, that it is the necessary Duty of those who would be in favour with God, and secure their Souls. 3. What is previously required of those who perform this Duty. 4. What are the Qualifications, and Properties of this Duty, if rightly managed. 5. What are the Native Consequents of it, if it be performed aright.

As for the first, What is it to close with Gods Device of Saving Sinners by Christ Jesus, held out in the Gospel? Here we must remember, (as we shewed before) that at first God willed Man to abide in his Favour, by holding fast his first integrity in which he was Created; but Man by his Transgression made void that Covenant of Works, and put himself in an utter incapacity to regain the Lords Friendship, which he had lost by his Sin, and to rescue himself from the Curse and Wrath now due to him for the same, or any way to procure his own Salvation: But the Lord freely hath manifested another Way of Repairing Mans lost Estate, viz. by sending his Son Christ Jesus in the Flesh, to satisfy his Justice for the Sins of the Elect, and to restore them his Image now defaced, and to bring them unto Glory; and he hath made open Proclamation in the Church, That whosoever will lay aside

aside all thoughts of Saving themselves by the Covenant of Works, or Inherent Righteousness, and will agree heartily to be Saved by Christ Jesus; they shall be restored to a better Condition, than formerly Man was in, and shall be Saved. So then, to close with Gods Device of Saving Sinners by Christ Jesus, is, to quit and forego all thoughts of Help, or Salvation by our own Righteousness, and to agree unto this way which God hath found out: It is to value, and highly esteem of Christ Jesus, as the Treasure sufficient to Enrich Poor Man, and with the Heart to believe this Record, That there is Life enough in Him for Men. It is to plead this Invention, and to acquiesce in it, as the only way to true Happiness: It is to point towards this Mediator, as God holdeth him out in the Gospel, with desire to lay the stress of our whole State on him. This is that which is called Faith or Believing, the Receiving of Christ, or Believing on his Name, John 1. 12. This is that Believing on the Name of the Lord Jesus, Commanded unto the Jaylor for his safety, Acts 16. 31. This agreeth to all the Descriptions of justifying Faith in the Scripture; this doth answer the Type of looking to the Brazen Serpent lifted up in the Wilderness. John 3. 14, 15. And this is supposed in all these ordinary actings of Faith; to which Promises are annexed in the Scripture, and will be found in all who have got the new Heart from God, and it will be found in none else.

As to the Second thing, viz. That this is the necessary Duty of all such who would be in favour with God, and secure their Souls. It appeareth thus, 1. This closing with Gods Device, or Believing in Christ, is commanded every where in Scripture by the Lord, as the condition of the new Covenant, giving Title and Right unto all the Spiritual Blessings of the same; for it is, upon the matter, the Receiving of Christ: This is commanded, whilst God bids Men Come and Buy; that is, impropriate all, by closing with that Device, Isa. 55. 1. The Weary are commanded to come unto him thus for their Rest, Mat. 11. 28. This is his Commandment, that we Believe on the Name of his Son, John 3. 23. This is enough to prove it a Duty incumbent. But further, it is such a Duty, as only giveth Title and Right to a Sonship; for, only they who Receive him, are priviledged to be Sons, John 1. 12. To as many as Received him, to them he gave power to be the Sons of God, even to such as Believed on his Name. 2 It appeareth to be the necessary Duty of all, thus: No less then this doth give a meeting unto God, offering himself to be our God in Christ; and no less than this doth answer our Profession, as we are in Covenant with him, as Members of his visible Church. The Lord offereth to be our God in Christ; if we do not close with the offer, laying aside all thought of other ways, by which we may attain to Happiness, we give no meeting to him; He saith, This is my Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him, Mat. 17. 5. If we close not with the offer, we give no answer unto God. Moreover, we are all Baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, for the Remission of Sins, Acts 2. 38. Now unless we close with Christ, as is said, we falsifie that Profession; therefore since this is the thing which doth answer Gods offer in the Gospel, and make good our Profession, as Members of his Church, it is a necessary Duty lying upon us.

3. What-

3. Whatsoever a Man hath else, if he do not thus close with Gods Device about Christ Jesus, and do not Receive him, it doth not avail, either as to the accepting of his Person, or of his performances, or as to the Saving of his Soul. Men are accepted only in Christ the Beloved, Eph. 1. 6. Abel and his Offering are accepted by Faith, Heb. 11. 4. Without Faith it is impossible to please God, Heb. 11. 6. and He that Believeth not, is Condemned already, and shall not see Life, but the Wrath of God abideth on him, John 3. 18, 36. For want of this, no External Title doth avail; the Children of the Kingdom are cast out, if this be wanting, Mat. 8. 10, 11, 12. The People of Israel are like other Heathens, in regard of a graceless State, being open to the Wrath of God, Jer. 9. 25, 26. Men do not Believe, that He who was slain at Jerusalem, who was called Christ Jesus, and witnessed unto by the Prophets, and declared to be the Son of God by many mighty Works: I say, if Men do not Believe that he is the Way, and close with him as the only way, They shall Die in their Sin, John 8. 24.

We say then, It is a most necessary Duty to close with Christ Jesus, as the Blessed Religion appointed for Sinners; every one who is come to years of understanding, and heareth this Gospel, is obliged to take to Heart his own lost condition, and Gods gracious offer of Peace and Salvation through Christ Jesus, and speedily to fly from the Wrath to come, by accepting, and closing with the offer, heartily acquiescing therein, as a satisfying way for Saving of poor Sinners: And that all men be the more encouraged to set about this Duty, when they hear him praying them, to be ready ciled unto them, let them remember, that Peace and Salvation is offered to the People in universal Terms. to All without exception: If any Man will, he shall be welcome, Rev. 22. 17. If any Thirst, (although after that which will never profit, yet) they shall be welcome here, on the condition afore-said, Isa. 55. 2, 3. All are commanded to Believe, John 3. 23. The promises are to all who are Externally called by the Gospel; God excludes none, if they do not exclude themselves, Acts 2. 39. So that if any have a mind for the thing, They may come forward, He will in no wise cast them out, Job. 37. being able to Save to the utmost, them who come to God through him, Heb 7. 25. And these who have long delayed to take this matter to Heart, had now the more need to look to it, lest what belongs to their Peace, be hid from their Eyes: But all these words will not take effect with people, until God pour out his Spirit from on High, Isa. 32. 5. To cause Men to approach unto God in Christ; yet we must still press Mens Duty upon them, and rebest and charge them, by the appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ, and their Rectoning to him in that Day, that they give the Lord no rest, until he send out that Spirit (which he will give to them who ask it, Luke 11. 13.) and cause them to know what belongs unto their Peace, and bring them up to their Duty.

We come now to speak of the Third thing, (viz) that is previously required of these who are to perform this Duty: Men must not rashly, inconsiderately, and ignorantly rush in upon this matter, saying, they will plead that Device of Saving Sinners by Christ, and will acquiesce and rest on him for safety: Often Men do deceive themselves here, and do imagine that they have done the thing. We shall there-therefore hold out somethings pre-required in a Person, who is to close with Christ Jesus, which although we offer not as positive Qualifications, fitting a Man for Christ that way, Isa. 55. 1. Yet they are such things, as without them, a Man cannot knowingly, and cordially perform the Duty of Believing on Christ Jesus. Besides the common Principles which are to be supposed in these who Live under Gospel Ordinances; as, *The Knowledge that Men have Immortal Souls; Soul and Body will be united again at the last Day; There is a Heaven and Hell, one of which will be the Everlasting Lot of all Men: The Old and New Testament is the true Word of God, and the Rule of Faith and Manners; Every Man is by Nature void of the Grace of God, and is an Enemy unto God, and an Heir of Condemnation; Reconciliation is only by the Mediator Christ Jesus; Faith unites unto him, and is the condition of the New Covenant; Holiness is the Fruit of true Faith, and is to be studied, as that without which no Man shall see God: I say, beside these things the knowledge of which is necessary, it is required of him who would Believe on Christ Jesus, 1. That he take to heart his natural Condition, and here he must know some things, and also be very serious about them: I say, he must know some things as first, that as he was Born a Rebel and Outlaw unto God, so he hath by many actual Transgressions disoblig'd God, and Ratified the Forfeiture of his Favour; yea, a Man should know many particular instances of his Rebellion on all hands, as that he is a Lyar, Sabbath-breaker, Blasphemer, or the like, as Paul speaketh very particularly of himself afterwards, 1 Tim. 1. 15. 2. The Man must know that the Wrath of God denounced in Scripture,* standing in force against these very Sins whereof he is Guilty, and so consequently, he is the Party undoubtedly, against whom God (who cannot lie) hath denounced War. A Man must know, that when the Scripture saith, Cursed is he that Offereth a corrupt thing unto God, Mal. 1. 14. It speaketh against him for his superficial Service performed unto God with the outward Man, when his Heart is far off. When the Word saith, God will not hold him Guiltless, that taketh his Name in Vain, Exod. 20. 7. The Man must know it speaketh against himself, who hath often carelessly profaned that dreadful Name, before which all Knees should bow, Phil. 2. 10. and which his Enemies do take in vain, Psal. 139. 20. When the Word saith, Cursed is he that doth the Work of the Lord negligently, Jer. 48. 10. The Man must know that it speaketh against himself, who hath irreverently, with much wandering of Heart, and drowziness, heard the Word Preached; and without Sense, Faith, or Understanding, hath often prayed before him: When the Word saith, Wo be unto him who putteth his Neighbour Drunk, and putteth his Bottle to him, to make him Drunk also, that he may look on his nakedness, Hab. 2. 15, 16. The Man must know that it is spoken against himself, who hath gloried in making his Neighbour Drunk, and that dreadful Wrath is determined by the Lord against him, according to that Scripture; When the Word saith, God will judge unclean Persons, Heb. 13. 4. And will close them out of the New Jerusalem, Rev. 21. The Man must know that the Scripture speaketh these Words against him, he being an unclean Person; so that he is the Person against whom the Curses of the Law doth directly strike. 3. A Man must must know that he hath nothing of his own to procure his Peace, and to set him free of the hazard under which he lieth, because all his Righteousness is as an unclean thing, Isa. 64. 6. His Prayers, his other Service done to God, his Alms Deeds, &c. Are not pass-Guilt before God, since they came not from a right Principle in his Heart and were not performed in a right way, nor upon a right account, nor for a right end. His Sacrifices have been an abomination unto God, Prov. 21. 27.

4. He must know, that as he is void of all the Saving Graces of the Spirit, as the true Love of God, the true fear of his Name, Godly sorrow for Sin, &c. so particularly, that he wants Faith in Christ, which taketh burthen for all them who Believe on him. Until a Man know this, he will still leave all his Debt and Burthen without care or regard, at the Door of Christ, the common Cautioner.

Now not only must a Man know these things as I said before, but must also very seriously take them to Heart, that is to say, he must be affected with these things, and be in sad earnest about them, as he useth to be in other Cases, wherein he useth to be most serious; yea, he should be more earnest here, than in other Cases, because it is of greater concernment unto him. This seriousness produceth, 1. A taking of Salvation to Heart more than any thing else. Shall Men be obliged To seek first the Kingdom? Mat. 6. 33. Is there But one thing necessary? Luk. 10. 42. Shall we count all things loss and Dung for this matter? Phil. 3. 8. Is a Man a Loser, gaining all the World, if he lose his Soul? Mark 8. 36. Shall this be the only ground of joy, that Mens names are Written in the Book of Life? Luke 10. 20. and shall

Men (who would be reckoned serious) take their Soul and Salvation more to Heart than any thing else? Surely it cannot fail. Let none deceive themselves. If the hazard of their Soul, and the Salvation thereof, and how to be in Favour with God, hath not gone nearer to their Heart than any thing in the World beside; It cannot be presumed upon such Grounds, that they ever knew Sin, or the Everlastingness of God, or his Wrath aright. 2. This seriousness breaketh the Man's Heart, and fainteth the stoutness of it, and leadeth it out to Sorrow, as we doth for a first Born: Zech. 12. 10. I grant their Sorrow will better suit that Scripture afterwards, when they apprehend Christ pierced by their Sins. It leadeth the Man to a Self-loathing. A Man taking up himself so, cannot but Loath himself for his Abominations, whereby he hath destroyed himself. There is somewhat of that Spirit of Revenge, which is mentioned as a Fruit of true Repentance, Cor. 7. 11. 4. This seriousness doth make the Man importunate to find Relief; since it is not in himself, he dare not put off and delay his Business, as before: And this is indeed required that he finds himself so pursued and put to it, that he flees for Refuge somewhere. I grant some have a higher, and some a lesser degree of this Seriousness, as we saw in the former part of this Treatise. But if we speak of the Lord's ordinary way of working with those who are come to Age, we say, they must very seriously take their Soul's Estate to Heart, despairing of Help in themselves, since the whole need no Physician, but those who are Sick, Mat. 9. 12. As for the Measure, we plead only that which probably doth suppose, that a Man will be induced thereby to transact cordially with Christ, on any any Terms he doth offer himself to be closed with.

The second Thing pre-required of him who would believe on Christ Jesus, is, He must know and take to Heart the way of Escape from God's Wrath; The Spirit must convince him of that Righteousness. Here a Man must understand somewhat distinctly, that God hath devised a way to save poor lost Man by Jesus Christ, whose perfect Righteousness hath satisfied offended Justice, and procured Pardon and everlasting Favour to all those whom he perswadeth by his Gospel, to accept of God's Offer, Acts 13. 38, 39. Job. 1. 12. So that no Person is excluded, of whatsoever Rank or Condition, whatsoever hath been his former way, (unless he be guilty of the Sin against the Holy Ghost, which is, a malicious Hatred and Rejection of the Remedy appointed for Sinners, as we shall hear) for, all manner of Sin is forgiven unto those who accept of the Offer in God's way, Matth. 12. 31. He is able to save to the uttermost those that come unto God through him, Heb. 7. 25.

The third Thing pre-required, is, A Man must know, that as God hath not excluded him, from the Relief appointed; so he is willing to be reconciled unto Men through Christ, and hath obliged Men to close with him through Christ Jesus, and so to impropriate that Salvation to themselves. He not only invites all to come, Isa. 55. 1, 2. And welcometh all that come, as we find in the Gospel, and commendeth those who come, Matth. 8. 10. and 15. 28. and chideth for not coming and closing with him, Job. 3. 18. But also he commandeth all to believe on Christ, 1 Job. 3. 23. So as a Man is not to question the Lord's willingness to receive Men, who go to Christ honestly, for God hath abundantly cleared that in Scripture; unless that a Man know so much, he will scarcely dare to lay his Heart open for that noble Device of saving Sinners, or adventure his own weight and stress upon Christ Jesus.

The fourth Thing pre-required, is, The Man who would close with Christ Jesus, must resolve to break all Covenants with Hell and Death, Isa. 28. 15. Whatsoever known Evil Men are engaged in, they must resolve to forgo it; for, there is no Concord between Christ and Belial, 2 Cor. 6. 14, 15, 16, 17, 18. The Lord requireth that they who would expect him to be for them, should not be for another, Hos. 3. 3. This is far from Evangelical Repentance, which I grant doth not precede a Man's closing with Christ by Faith; there is little here beyond a Mis-regard of these Things unto which a Man was formerly devoted, and a slighting what he was Mad upon, because he seeth himself destroyed thereby, and Relief now offered, whereupon his Heart beginneth to be more Intent than formerly it was. After this, when Christ is look'd upon alone, his Worth and Beauty doth appear, so as among all the Gods there is none like unto him, and he looketh out as a sufficient covering of the Eyes to all who see him. Upon which the Heart loveth God's Device in the new Covenant, and loveth to lay its weight upon Christ, rather than any other way, tending towards him, and so the Man becometh a Believer. Now I will not say that all these Things whereof we have spoken, are formally, orderly and distinctly found in every Person before he close with God in Christ; for the way of the Heart with Christ, may be added to the four wonderful Things, Prov. 30. 19. It is hard to trace the Heart in its translation from Darkness to Light; yet we hold out the most ordinary and likely way, to him who doth ask the way, debarring thereby ignorant and senseless Persons from meddling, and discharging them to pretend to any Interest in him, whilst they remain such. The fourth Thing we propose to speak to, is, The properties of the Duty, when rightly gone about. I shall only hint a few.

1. Believing in Christ must be Personal; a Man himself, and in his own proper Person, must close with Christ Jesus. The Just shall live by his Faith Hab. 2. 4. This saith, that it will not suffice for a Man's Safety and Relief, that he is in Covenant with God, as a born Member of the visible Church by vertue of the Parents Subjection to Christ's Ordinances, neither will it suffice that the Person has the initiating Seal of Baptism added, and that he is then virtually engaged to seek Salvation by Christ's Blood, as all Infants do. Neither doth it suffice that Men are come of believing Parents; their Faith will not instate their Children into a Right to the Spiritual Blessings of the Covenant. Neither will it suffice that Parents did in some respect engage for their Children, and gave them away unto God; for these Things do not avail. The Children of the Kingdom, and of godly Predecessors, are cast out unless a Man in his own Person, put out Faith in Christ Jesus, and with his own Heart please and acquiesce in that Device of saving Sinners, he cannot be saved. I grant this Faith is given unto him by Christ, but certain it is, that it must be Personal.

2. This Duty must be cordial and hearty : With the Heart, Man believeth unto Righteousness, Rom. 10. 10. A Man must be sincere, and without guile in closing with Christ, judging him the only covering of the Eyes, not hankering after another way. The Matter must not swim only in the Head or Understanding, but it must be in the Heart ; the Man not only must be perswaded that Christ is the way, but affectionately perswaded of it, loving and liking the Thing, having Complacency in it ; so that it is all a Man's desire, as David speaketh of the Covenant, 2 Sam. 23. 5. If a Man be Cordial and Affectionate, in any Thing, surely he must be so here, in this one Thing necessary : It must not be simply a Fancy in the Heart, but it must be a Heart-business, a Soul-business ; yea, not Business in the outer Court of Affections, but in the Flower of Affections, and in the innermost Cabinet of the Soul, where Christ is formed. Shall a Man be Cordial in any Thing. and not in this, which doth comprize all his chief Interests, and his everlasting State within it ? Shall the Lord be so glad to rejoyce over a Man, as a Bride-groom rejoyceth over his Bride, Isa. 62. 5. and to rest in his love with Joy, Zeph. 3. 17. and shall not the Heart of a Man go out and meet him here ? The Heart, nothing ; Love, or nothing ; Marriage Love, which goeth from Heart, to Heart ; Love of Espousals, or nothing ; Prov. 23. 26. 1 Cor. 13. 2. I will not say that there is in all as soon as they believe, a prevailing sensible Love, which maketh stick ; but there must be in believing a rational and kindly Love, so well grounded, and deeply engaging, that many Waters cannot quench it ; It is Strong as Death, and Jealousie in it, burneth as Fire, Cant. 8. 6, 7.

The third Property, or Qualification of believing, as it goeth out after Christ, it must be Rational.

Hereby I mean, that the Man should move towards God in Christ, in Knowledge and Understanding, taking up God's Device of saving Sinners by Christ, as the Scripture doth hold it out, not fancying a Christ to himself, otherways then the Gospel speaketh of him, nor another way of Relief by him, than the Word of God holdeth out. Therefore we find Knowledge joyned to the Covenant between God and Man, as a requisite, Fer. 24. 7. and 31. 34. I mean here also, that a Man be in calmness of Spirit, and as it were, in his cold Blood in closing with Christ Jesus, not in a simple fit of Affection which soon vanisheth: Mar. 13. 20. nor in a Distemper through some outward Distress, as the People were, Psal. 78. 34. and proved not stedfast in the Covenant; nor under a Temptation of some outward temporary Interest, as Simon Magus was, when he believed, Acts 8. A Man must Act here Rationally, as being Master of himself, in some measure able to judge of the Good or Evil of the Thing, as it stands before him.

The fourth is, Faith, as it goeth out Rationally, so it goeth out Resolutely. The poor distressed People in the Gospel did most Resolutely cast themselves upon Christ. This Resoluteness of Spirit, is in order to all Difficulties that lie in the way. Violence is offered to these. The Man whose Heart is a shaping out for Christ Jesus, cannot say, There is a Lion in the Street, Pro. 26. 13. If he cannot have access by the Door, he will break through the Roof of the House, with that Man, Luk 5. 19. He often doth not regard that which the World calleth Discretion or Prudence, like Zacheus climbing up on a Tree to see Christ, when Faith was breeding in his Bosome, Luk. 19. This Resoluteness of Spirit looketh towards what Inconveniences may follow, and waveth all these, at least resolving over all these, like a wise Builder who reckoneth the Expence before-hand, Luk. 14. 28. This Resoluteness is also in order to all a Man's Idols, and such Weights as would easily beset him, if he did not bend after Christ over them all, like that Blind Man who did cast his Garment from him when Christ called him, Mark 10. 50. This Resoluteness in the Soul, proceedeth from desperate Self-necessity within the Man, Act. 16. 30. And from the Sovereign Command of God, obliging the Man to move towards Christ, 1 John 3. 23. and from the good Report gone Abroad of God, that he putteth none away that come unto him through Christ, Joh. 6. 37. but doth commend such as do adventure over the greatest Difficulties, Mat. 15. 28. But above all, this Resoluteness doth proceed from the Arm of Jehovah, secretly and strongly drawing the Sinner towards Christ, Joh. 6. 44. I will not say that every one, closing with Christ in the offers of the Gospel, hath all the foresaid Thoughts formally in his Mind; yet, upon search, it will be found, if he be put to it, or put in mind of these Things, they are then aloft in the Soul.

By what is said, it doth manifestly appear, that many in the visible Church had need to do somewhat further for securing of their Souls, when they come to Years of Discretion, than is found to have been done by them before, in the Covenant between God and the Church, sealed to them in Baptism. By what is said also, there is a competent Guard upon the free Grace of God in the Gospel, held out through Christ Jesus; so as ignorant, senseless, prophane Men, cannot with any shadow of Reason pretend to an Interest in it. It is true, believing in Christ, and closing with him as a perfect Saviour, seemeth easie; and every Godless Man saith, that he believeth on him: But they deceive themselves, since their Soul hath never cordially, rationally, and resolutely gone out after Christ Jesus, as we have said. It may be some wicked Men have been enlightened, Heb. 6. 4. and have found some reel in their Fear, Acts 24. 25. or in their Joy, Mat. 13. 20. Mar. 6. 20. But not having engaged their Heart in approaching to God, Jer. 30. 21. have either sitten down in that common Work, as their Sanctuary, until the Trial came, Mat. 13. 20, 21. or they return back with the Dog to their Vomit, from which they had in some measure escaped, by the Knowledge of the Lord and Saviour, 2 Pet. 2. 20, 21, 22. or they utterly fall away to the hatred and malicious despising and persecuting of Christ and his Interests; from whence hardly can they be recovered, Heb. 6. 4, 5, 6. and 10. 26, 29. which Thing should provoke Men to be serious, in this great Business,

We

We come now to speak to the fifth Thing proposed, and that is, What be the native Consequents of true Believing. I shall reduce what I will speak of them to these two; viz. Union with God, and Communion with him.

First then, I say, when a Sinner closeth with Christ Jesus, as is said, there is presently an admirable Union, a strange Oneness between God and the Man. As the Husband and Wife, Head and Body, Root and Branches, are not to be reckoned two, but one; So Christ, or God in Christ, and the Sinner closing with him by Faith, are one, Eph. 5. 30, 31, 32. He that is so joyned unto the Lord is one Spirit, 1 Cor. 6. 17. As the Father is in the Son, and Christ in the Father; so Believers are one in the Father and the Son. They are one, as the Father and the Son are one; the Father in Christ, and Christ in Believers, that they may be made perfect in one. O what a strange interweaving, and indissoluble Knot is there! Joh. 17. 21, 22, 23, 26. Because of this Union between God and the Believer, 1. They can never hate one another, henceforth the Lord will never hate the Believer: As no Man hateth his own Flesh at any time, but cherisheth it and nourisheth it, so doth Christ his People, Eph. 5. 29. He may be angry, so as to Correct and Chastise the Man that is a Believer, but all he doth to him, is for his Good and Advantage; all the Lord's Paths must be Mercy and Truth to him, Ps. 85. 10. All Things must work together for Good to him, Rom. 8. 28. On the other side, the Believer can never hate God maliciously; for, he that is born of God, sinneth not, 1 Joh. 3. 9. For the Lord hath resolved, and ordained Things so, that his Hand shall undoubtedly so be upon all Believers for Good, that they shall never get leave to hate him, and be so pluckt out of his Hands. 2. Because of this Union, there is a strange Sympathy and Fellow-feeling between God and the Believer: The Lord is afflicted with the Man's Affliction; he doth tenderly, carefully, and seasonably resent it, as if he were afflicted with it, Isa. 63. 9. He who toucheth the Believer, toucheth the Apple of the Lord's Eye, Zeck. 2. 8 He is touched with the feeling of their Infirmities, Heb. 4. 15. And precious in his Sight is their Blood, Psal. 116. 15. In a word, what is done to them, is done unto him; and what is not done unto them, is not done unto him, Mat. 10. 40. and 25. 40, 45. On the other part, the Zeal of his House litteth in the Heart of the Believer, Psal. 69. 9. The Lord's Reproach lighteth on the Believer; if it go well with his Affairs, that is the Business of his People. So there is a strange Sympathy between God and Believers, all by virtue of the Union between them; because of which, Men should hate every Thing which would compete with him in their Love, or Affections; and should disdain to be Slaves to the Creatures, since these are the Servants of their Lord and Husband, and their Servants through him. What a hateful Thing it is for a Queen to Whore with the Servants of her Prince and Husband? It is also a shame for a Believer to be afraid of evil Tidings, since the Lord, with whom he is one, alone ruleth all Things, and doth whatsoever pleaseth him in Heaven and in Earth, 1 Cor. 3. 21, 23. Psal. 112. 6, 7. and 115. 3.

The other great Consequent of Believing, is an admirable, unparallel'd Communion; by virtue whereof, 1. The Parties themselves do belong

long each to other : The Lord is the God of his People, he himself, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, is their God, in all his glorious Attributes ; his Justice, as well as his Mercy, his Wisdom, Power, Holiness, &c. for, He becometh the God of his People, as he often speaketh in the Covenant. On the other part, the Believers are his People ; in their very Persons they are his, as the Covenant doth speak, They shall be his People ; their Head, their Heart, their Hand, &c. whatsoever they are, they are his. 2. By vertue of this Communion, they have a mutual Interest in one another's whole Goods and Geer, in as far as can be useful. All the Lord's Word doth belong to the Believer ; Threatnings as well as Promises, for their Good ; all his Ways, all his Works of all sorts, special Communications, Death, Devils, even all Things, in so far as can be useful, 1 Cor. 3. 21, 22, 23. On the other side, all which belongeth to the Believer, is the Lord's ; Heritage, Children, Life, Wife, Credit, all is at his Disposing ; if any of these can be useful to him, the Believer is to forgo them, else he falsifieth that Communion, and declareth himself in so far, unworthy of Christ, Luke 14. 26. 3. By vertue of this Communion, there should be much Homeliness and Familiarity between God and the Believer. The Lord may meddle with any Thing which doth belong to the Believer, and do to him what seemeth good to him, and the Man is not to Mistake, or say unto God, What dost thou ? (But in so far as concerneth his Duty) - yea, he is still to say in every Case, Good is the Word and Will of the Lord, Isa. 39. 8. 1 Kings 4. 23, 26. On the other part, the Believer may in an humble way, be homely and familiar liar with God in Christ; he may come with Boldness to the Throne of Grace, and not use a number of Complements in his Addresses unto God, Heb. 4. 16. For he is no more a Stranger unto God, Eph. 2. 19. so that he needs not speak unto God, as one that hath Acquaintance to make every Hour, as many Professors do, and it maketh a huge Inconsistency in their Religion. The Believer also may lay open all his Heart unto God, 1 Sam. 1. 15. and impart all his Secrets unto him, and all his Tentations, without fear of a Mistake. The Believer also may enquire into what God doth, in so far as may Concern his own Duty, or in so far as may ward off Mistakes of the Lord's way, and reconcile it with his Word, Job. 13. 25. The Believer is a Friend in this Respect, as knowing what the Master doth, see Gen. 18. 23, &c. Jer. 12. 1. Isa. 63. 17. The Believer also may be homely with God, to go in daily with his Failings, and seek Repentance, Pardon and Peace through Christ's Advocateship, Acts 5. 31. 1 Joh. 2. 1. O how often in one Day may the Believer plead Pardon, if he intend not to mock God, or to turn Grace into Wantonness! The Lord hath commanded Men to forgive seventy times seven in one Day, and hath hinted there in a Parable, how much more the Master will forgive, Mat. 18. 22. 28. The Believer also may be homely to entrust God with all his outward Concernments, for he doth care for these Things, Mat. 6. 30, 32. 1 Pet. 5. 7. Yea, the Believer may humbly put God to it, to make him forth-coming for him, in all Cases, as beseemeth. and to help him to suitable Fruit in every Season, even Grace in time of need, Heb.

4. 16. Yea, how great Things may Believers look from him in Christ Jesus, both for themselves and others, 1 Job. 5. 14, 15. Job. 14. 13. Isa. 45. 11. It is the Shame and great Prejudice of his People, that they do not improve that Communion with God more than they do: Christ may justly upbraid them, that they ask nothing in his Name, Job. 16. 24.

By what is said, it doth appear of how great consequence this Duty of believing is, by which a Man closeth with Christ Jesus, whom the Father hath sealed, and given for a Covenant to the People. It is so honourable for God, answering his very Design, and serving his Interest in the whole Contrivement and Manifestation of the Gospel: And it is so advantagious to Men, that Satan and an evil Heart of Unbelief, do mightily oppose it, by moving Objections against it. I shall hint some most ordinary.

Object. I am so base, worthless and of my self, that I think it were high Presumption for me to meddle with Christ Jesus, or the Salvation purchased at the rate of his Blood.

Answer. It is true, all the Children of Adam are base and naughty before him, who chargeth his Angels with Folly, Job. 4. 18. All Nations are less than nothing, and Vanity before him, Isa. 40. 17. There is such a Disproportion between God and Men, that unless he himself had devised that Covenant, and of his own free Will had offered so to Transact with Men, it had been high Treason for Men or Angels to have imagined, that God should have humbled himself, and become a Servant, and have taken on our Nature, and have united it by a Personal Union to the Blessed Godhead:

head: And that he should have Subjected himself to the shameful Death of the Cross; and all this, that Men, who were Rebels, should be reconciled unto God, and be made eternally Happy, by being in his Holy Company for ever. But I say, all that was his own Device and free Choice: Yea, moreover, if God had not sovereignly commanded Men so to close with him in and through Christ, Isa. 55. 1, 2, 3. Mat. 11. 28. 1 Job. 3. 23. 2 Cor. 5. 20. no Man durst have made use of that Device of his. So then, although with Abigail, I may say, Let me be but a Servant to wash the Feet of the Servants of my Lord, 1 Sam. 25. 41. Yet since he hath in his Holy Wisdom devised that way, and knoweth how to be richly glorified in it, Ephes. 1. 18. John 17. 10. and hath commanded me, as I shall be answerable, in that great Day, to close with him in Christ, as is said; I dare not disobey, nor enquire into the Reasons of his Contrivements and Commands, but must adventure on the Business, as I would not be found to frustrate the Grace of God, and in a manner disappoint the Gospel, Gal. 2. 21. and falsifie the Record which God hath born of his Son, that there is Life enough in him for Men, 1 Job. 5. 10, 11. and so make God a Liar, and add that Rebellion to all my former Transgressions.

Object. I am a Person singularly sinful, beyond any I know; Therefore I dare not presume to go near unto Christ Jesus, or look after that Salvation which is through his Righteousness.

Answer. Is your Sin beyond the Drunkenness and Incest of Lot? Adultery, covered with Murder, in David? Idolatry, and horrid Apostacy, in Solomon? Idolatry, Murder, and Witchcraft in Manaf-

Manasseh? Anger against God, and his Way, in Jonah? Forswearing of Christ in Peter, after he was forewarned, and had vowed the contrary; bloody Persecution in Paul, making the Saints to Blaspheme? &c. (Now wo to him who is imboldened to Sin by these Instances recorded in Scripture, and adduced here to the Commendation of the Free and Rich Grace of God, and to encourage poor Penitent Sinners to fly unto Christ) I say, are your Sins beyond these? Yet all these obtained Pardon through Christ, as the Scripture doth shew. Know therefore, that all Sins do lie alike Level before the Free Grace of God, who loveth freely, Hos. 14. 4. And looketh not to less or more Sin: If the Person have a Heart to come unto him through Christ, then he is able to Save to the utmost, Heb. 7. 25. Yea, it is more provoking before God, not to close with Christ, when the offer cometh to a Man, then all the rest of his Transgressions are: For, He that Believeth not, hath made God a Lyar, in that Record he hath Born of Life in the Son: And he who doth not Believe, shall be Condemned for not Believing on the Son of God, that shall be the main thing in his Ditty, John 3. 18. So that much Sin cannot excuse a Man, if he scare at Christ, and shift his offer, since God hath openly declared, that this is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, Christ came to Save Sinners, whereof I am chief: Even he who is chief of Sinners in his own Apprehension, is bound to Believe and accept this saying, 1 Tim. 1. 15.

Object. My Sins have some aggravating Circumstances beyond the same Sins in other Persons, which doth much terrifie me.

Answ.

Ans. What can the Aggravations of thy Sin be, which are not parallel'd in the fore-cited Examples? Is thy Sin against great Light? So Beloved, were many of these we spake of before. Was it against singular Mercies and Deliverances? So was that of Lot and Noah's Drunkenness. Was thy Sin done with much Deliberation? So was David's whilst he wrote the Letter against Uriah. Was it against, or after any singular Manifestation of God? So was Solomons. Was it by a small and despicable Temptation? So was that of Fonab, and of Peter, if we consider the heinousness of their Transgression. Hast thou reiterated the Sin, and committed it over again? So did Lot, so did Peter, so did Jehosaphat, in joyning with Abab and Jeboram, 1 Kings 22. 2 Kings 3. Are there many gross Sins concurring together in thee? So were there in Manasseh. Hast thou stood long out in Rebellion (that, as all the former, is thy shame; but) so did the Thief on the Cross, he stood it out to the last gasp, Luke 23. 42. If yet thou hast an Ear to hear, thou art Commanded to hear, Mat. 13. 9. Although thou hast long spent thy Money for that which is not Bread, Isa. 55. 1, 2. Thou hast the greater need now to hast, and to flee for Refuge; and if thou do so, he shall welcome thee, and in no ways cast thee out. John 6. 37. Especially, since he hath used no prescription of time in Scripture. So that all those Aggravations of thy Sin, will not excuse thy shifting on the Lords offer.

Object. In all these Instances given, you have named the particulars whereof I am Guilty; Nor know I any who ever obtained Mercy before God, being guilty of such things as are in me.

Ans.

Answ. It is hard to condescend upon every particular Transgression which may vex the conscience; yea, lesser Sins then some of those I have mentioned, may hugely disquiet, if the Lord blow the Fire. But, for thy satisfaction, I shall condescend upon some Truths of Scripture, which do reach Sins and Cases more Universally, then any Man can do particularly. See Exod. 34. 7. God pardoneth Iniquity, Transgression and Sin: That is, all manner of Sin, Ezek. 18. 21, 22. 30. If a Man turn from all his Wickedness, it shall no more be remembred, or prove his Ruin, John 6. 37. Him that cometh, he will in no ways cast out; that is, whatsoever be his Sins, or the Aggravations of them, John 3. 16. Whosoever Believeth, shall be Saved; that is, without exception of any Sin, or any Case. Heb. 7. 25. He is able to Save to the utmost these who come to God through him: No Man can sufficiently declare what is Gods uttermost, Mat. 12. 31. All manner of Sin and Blasphemy shall be forgiven unto Men, that is, there is no sort of Sin, whereof one Instance shall not be forgiven in one Person or other, except the Sin against the Holy Ghost. These, and the like Scriptures, do carry all sorts of Sin before them; so that, let thy Sins be what they will, or can be, they may be sunk in one of these two Truths, so as thy Sin can be no excuse to thee for shifting the offer of Peace and Salvation through Christ, since any Man who will, is allowed to come and take, Rev. 22. 17. We will not multiply words; The great God of Heaven and Earth, hath sovereignly commanded all who see their need of Relief, to betake themselves unto Christ Jesus, and to close cordially with Gods Device of Saving Sinners by him, laying aside all Object-

Objections and Excuses, as they shall be answerable unto him in the day he shall judge the Quick and the Dead, and shall drive away out of his presence all those who would dare to say, their Sins and Condition were such, as that they durst not adventure upon Christs perfect Righteousness for their Relief, notwithstanding of the Lords own Command often interposed, and in a manner, his Credit engaged.

Object. I suspect I am Guilty of the Sin against the Holy Ghost, and so am incapable of Pardon, and therefore I need not think of Believing on Christ Jesus for Saving of my Soul.

Ans. Although none should charge this Sin on themselves, or on others, unless they can prove and justify the Charge according to Christs Example, Mat. 12: 25, 26, 32. Yet for satisfying of the Doubt, I shall, 1. Shew what is not the Sin against the Holy Ghost, properly so called, because there be some gross Sins which People do unwarrantably judge to be this unpardonable Sin. 2. I shall shew what is the Sin against the Holy Ghost. 3. I shall draw some Conclusions in Answer directly to the Objection.

As for the First, there be many gross Sins, which although (as all other Sins) may be Sins against the Holy Ghost, who is Gods equal, and one with the Father and the Son, and are done against some of his Operations and Motions, yet are they not the Sin against the Holy Ghost, which is the unpardonable Sin. As, First, Blaspheming of God, under Bodily Tortures, is not that Sin, for some Saints fell into this, Acts 26: 11. Much less, Blaspheming of God in a Fit of Distraction, or Frenzy, for a Man is not a free rational Agent at that that time; and he that spareth his People as a Father doth the Son that Serveth him, and doth pity so, Mal. 3. 17. Psal. 103. 13. doth he spare and pity in these Ravings: For so would our Fathers according to the Flesh do, if we Blasphemed them in a Fit of Distraction; much less are horrid Blasphemies against God, darted in upon the Soul, and not allowed there, this Unpardonable Sin; for such things were offered to Christ, Mat. 4. and are often cast in upon the Saints. 2. The hating of good in others, whilst I am not convinced that it is Good, but in my Light do judge it to be Evil; yea, the Speaking against it, yea, the Persecuting of it in that Case, is not the Sin against the Holy Ghost; for all these will be found in Paul before he was converted, and he obtained Mercy, because he did these things ignorantly. 3. Heart-rising at the Thriving of others, in the Work and Way of God, whilst I Love it in my Self; yea, the Rising of Heart against Providence, which often expresseth it self against the Creatures nearest our Hand; yea, this Rising of Heart entertained, and maintained, (although they be horrid things, leading towards that Unpardonable Sin, yet) are not that Sin; for these may be in the Saints, proceeding from self Love, which cannot endure to be darkned by another, and proceeding from some cross in their Idol under a Fit of Temptation; the most part of all this was in Jonah, Jonah. 4. 4. Not only are not decays in what was once in the Man, and falling into gross Sins against Light, after the receiving of the Truth, this Unpardonable Sin, (for then many of all the Saints in Scripture were done;) but further, Apostacy from much of the Truth, is not that Sin; for that was in Solomon, and in the Church of Corinth and Galatia; yea, Deny-

Denying, yea, Forswearing of the most Fundamental Truth under a great Temptation, is not this Sin; for then Peter had been undone. 5. As Resisting, Quenching, Grieving, and Vexing of the Spirit of God by many Sinfull wayes; are not this Unpardonable Sin, for they are charged with these who are called to Repentance in Scripture, and not shut out. as Guilty of this Sin: So neither reiterating Sins against Light, is the Sin against the Holy Ghost, although it leadeth towards it; for such was Peters Sin in denying Christ; so was Jehosaphats Sin in joyning with Ahab and Jehoram. 6. Purposes and Essays of Self-Murder, and even purposes of Murthering Good Men, (the party being under a sad Fit of Temptation) yea, actual Self-Murder, although probably it often joyneth in the issue with this Unpardonable Sin, which ought to make every Soul look upon the very Temptation to it, with horreur and abhorrency yet is not the Sin against the Holy Ghost: The Jaylor intended to kill himself upon a worse account then in any poor People do in the sight and sense of Gods Wrath, and of their own Sin and Corruption; yet that Jaylor obtained Pardon Acts 16. 27, 34. And Paul before his effectual calling, was accessary unto the Murther of many Saints, and intended to kill more, as himself granteth, Acts 26. 9., to 13. Although all these are dreadful Sins, each of them deserving Wrath everlasting, and not being Repented of, bringing endless Vengeance, especially the last, cuts off hope of Relief, for ought can be expected in an ordinary way, yet none of these is the Unpardonable Sin against the Holy Ghost; and so under any of these, There is Hope to him that hath an Ear to hear the joyful sound of the Covenant. All manner of such Sin and Blasphemy may be forgiven, as is clear in the Scripture, where these things are mentioned.

As for the Second thing. Let us see what the Sin against the Holy Ghost is. It is not a simple act of Transgression, but a complex, of many mischievous things, involving Soul and Body ordinarily in Guilt. We thus describe it; It is a rejecting and opposing of the Chief Gospel Truth, and way of Salvation, made out singularly to a Man by the Spirit of God in the Truth and Good thereof, and that Avowedly, freely, Wilfully, Maliciously, and Despighfully, breeding hopeless Fear. There be three places of Scripture, which do speak most of this Sin, and thence we will prove every part of this Description, in so far as may be useful to our present purpose, by which it will appear that none who have a mind for Christ, need stumble at what is spoken of this Sin in Scripture, See Mat. 12. 24,--32. Heb. 6. 5, 6. and 10. 25,--29. First then, let us consider the Object about which this Sin, or Sinful thing of the Man Guilty thereof, is conversant, and that is the chief Gospel-Truth, and Way of Salvation: Both which run to one thing. It is the Way which God hath contrived for Saving of Sinners, by Jesus Christ the Promised Messiah and Saviour; by whose Death and Righteousness Men are to be Saved, as he is held forth in the Ordinances; confirming the same by many mighty Works in Scripture tending there-to. This Way of Salvation is the Object. The Pharisees oppose this, that Christ was the Messiah, Mat. 12. 23, 24. The strong is done against the Son of God, Heb. 6. 6. and the Blood of the Covenant, and the Spirit Graci-

Graciously offering to apply these things, Heb. 10. 29. Secondly, In the Description, consider the Qualifications of this Object. It is Singularly made out to the party by the Spirit of God, both in the Truth and Good thereof. * This saith, 1. That there must be Knowledge of the Truth and Way of Salvation. The Pharisees knew that Christ was the Heir, Mat. 21. 38. The party hath Knowledge, Heb. 10. 26. 2. That Knowledge of the thing, must not swim only in the Head, but there must be some half Heart perswasion of it. Christ knew the Pharisees thoughts, and so did judge them, Mat. 12. 25. And that the contrary of what they spake was made out upon their Hearts. There is a Tasting, Heb. 6. 4. 5. which is beyond simple enlightning; yea, there is such a perswasion ordinarily, as leadeth to a deal of outward Sanctification, Heb. 10. 29. 3. This perswasion must not only be of the verity of the thing, but of the good of it. The party tasteth the good Word of God, and he apprehendeth the thing as Eligible, Heb. 6. 5. 4. This perswasion is not made out only by strength of Argument, but also by an enlightning Work of Gods Spirit, shining on the Truth, and making it conspicuous. Therefore it is that Sin called the Sin against the Holy Ghost, Mat. 12. Mark. 3. The Persons are said to have received the Holy Ghost, Heb. 6. 4. And to do despite unto the Spirit of Grace, who was in the nearest step of a Gracious Operation with them, Heb. 10. 29. Thirdly, In this Description, consider the acting of the party against the Object so qualified. It is a rejecting and opposing of it: Which importeth, 1. That Men have once, some way at least been in Hands with it, or had the offer of it, as true of the Pharisees. 2. That they do reject, even with contempt, what they had of it, or in their offer. The Pharisees deny it, and speak disdainfully of Christ, Mat. 12. 24. They fall away, intending to shame Christ, Heb. 6. 5, 6.

 3. The Men set themselves against it by the Spirit of Persecution, as the Pharisees did still. They rail against it: Therefore it is called Blasphemy a- gainst the Holy Ghost, Mat. 12. 24, 31. They would Crucifie Christ again, if they could, Heb. 6. 6.
 They are Adversaries, Heb. 10. 27. Fourthly, consider the Properties of this Acting. 1. It is known, that is, not seeking to shelter, or hide it self. The Pharisees spake against Christ publicly, Mat. 12. 24. They would have Christ brought to an open Shame, Heb. 6. 6. They forsake the Ordinances which savour that way, Heb. 10. 25.
 and despise the danger: For, looking for Indignation, they trample that Blood still, Heb. 10. 27, 9. 2. The Party acteth freely; it is not from unadvisedness, nor from Force or Constraint, but an acting of free Choice; nothing doth force the Pharisees to speak against, and Persecute Christ.
 They Crucifie to themselves, they re-act the Murder of their own free Accord, and in their own name, none constraining them, Heb. 6. 6. They act of free Choice, as the Word is Spontaneously, Heb. 10. 27. 3. It is acted wilfully. They are so olute, they will not be dissuaded by any offer, the most precious means, as is clear in the fore-Heb. 10. and Scriptures. 4. It is done maliciously, so as it proceeds not so much, if at all, from a Temptation to pleasure, Profit, or Honour: It proceedeth not from Fear, or Force, or from any good proposed; but out of Heart-malice, against
 God

God and Christ, and the Advancement of his Glory and Kingdom. So that it is the very nature of Satans Sin, who hath an irreconcilable Hatred against God, and the Remedy of Sin, because his Glory is thereby advanced. This is a special Ingredient in this Sin. The Pharisees are found Guilty of Heart-malice against Christ, since they spake so against him, and not against their own Children casting out Devils; and this is the force of Christs Argument, Mat. 12. 27. They do their utmost to Crucifie Christ again, and to bring him to an open shame, Heb. 6. 6. They are Adversaries like the Devil, Heb. 10. 27. 5. It is done Despightfully. The Malice must bewray it self. The Pharisees must proclaim that Christ hath Correspondence with Devils, Mat. 12. He must be put to an open shame, and Crucified again, Heb. 6. they must tread under foot that Blood, and do Despight to the Spirit, Heb. 10. 29. So that the Party had rather perish a Thousand times, Then be in Christs Debt for Salvation. The last things in the Description, is, the ordinary Attendant or Consequence of this Sin, it breedeth Desperate and Hopeless Fear. They Fear him, whom they Hate, with a slavish hopeless Fear, such as Devils have, Heb. 10. 27. They know that God will put out his Power against them; they tremble in the Remembrance of it, and if they could be above him, and Destroy him, they covet it; and since they cannot reach that, they Hate with the utmost of Heart-malice, and do Persecute him, and all that is his with, despight.

As for the Third thing proposed, (viz.) The Conclusions to be drawn from what is said, where by we will speak directly to the Objection: 1. For ev

I hinted before, since the Sin against the Holy Ghost is so remarkable, and may be well known where it is, none should charge themselves with it, unless they can prove and justify the Charge; for it is a great wrong done unto God, to Labour to perswade my Soul that he will never Pardon me; it is the very way to make me desperate, and to lead me unto the Unpardonable Sin; therefore unless thou can'st, and darest say, that thou dost hate the Way which God hath devised for Saving of Sinners, and dost resolve to oppose the thriving of his Kingdom, both with thy self and others, out of Malice and Despise against God, thou ought not to suspect thy self Guilty of this Sin. 2. Whatsoever thou hast done against God, if thou dost rue it, and wish it were undone, thou canst not be Guilty of this Sin; for in it, Heart-malice and Despise against God, do still prevail. 3. If thou art content to be his Debtor for pardon, and would be infinitely obliged unto him for it, then thou canst not in that Case be Guilty of the Sin against the Holy Ghost; for, as we shewed before, they who are Guilty of it, do so despise God, that they would not be his Debtors for Salvation. 4. Whatsoever thou hast done, if thou hast a desire after Jesus Christ, and dost look with a sore Heart after him, and canst not think of parting with his Blessed Company for ever; or if thou must shed with him, yet dost wish well to him, and all his, thou needest not suspect thy self to be Guilty of this Unpardonable Sin; for there can be no such hatred of him in thy Bosome, as is necessarily required to make up that Sin. 5. If thou wouldst be above the reach of that Sin, and secure against it for ever, then go work upon thy Heart to plead Salva-

Salvation by Christ Jesus, and to close with God him, acquiescing in him as the sufficient Ransom and Rest, as we have been pressing before, and yeild to him to be Saved in his Way: Do this in good earnest, and thou shalt be for ever put out of the reach of that ugly thing wherewith Satan doth fright so many poor seekers of God.

Object. Although I be not excluded from the benefit of the New Covenant, yet it is not in my power to Believe on Christ; for Faith is the gift of God, and above the strength of Flesh and Blood.

Answer. It is true, that saving Faith, by which alone, a Man can heartily close with God in Christ is above our power, and is the Gift of God, as I said before in the Premises: Yet remember, The Lord hath left it as a Duty upon all who hear this Gospel, cordially by Faith to close with the offer of Salvation through Christ, as is clear in the Scripture; and you must know, that although it be not in our power to perform that Duty of ourselves, yet the Lord may justly Condemn for performing of it, and we are Inexcusable, because at first he made Men perfectly able to do whatsoever he should command. 2. The Lord commanding this thing, which is above our power, willeth us to be sensible of our Inability to do the thing, and would have us putting it on him to work it in us: He hath promised to give the New Heart, and he hath not excluded any from the benefit of that Promise. 3. The Lord useth by the Commands and Invitations, and Mens Meditation on the same, and their supplication about the thing to convey power unto the Soul to perform the duty: Therefore, for Answer to the Objection. I obtest thee in the Lords Name, to lay to Heart these his Commandments and Promises, and Meditate on them, and upon that Blessed Business of the new Covenant, and pray unto God as you can, for them, (for he will be required to do these things, Ezek. 36. 37.) and lay thy cold Heart to that Device of God exprest in the Scriptures, and to Christ Jesus, who is given for a Covenant to the People, and look to him for Life and Quickening; go and essay to plead that Salvation in the Name of God doth offer it, and to close with, and rest in Christ for it, as if all were in thy Power, yet looking to him for the Thing, as knowing that it must come from him; and if thou do so, he who respects these who remember him in his ways, Isa. 58. will not be wanting on his part, and thou shalt not have Ground to say, that thou moved towards the Thing until thou could do no more for want of Strength, and so left it at God's Door: It shall not fail on his part, if thou have a mind for this Business: Yea, I may say, if by all thou hast yet heard of that Matter, thy Heart loveth it, and desireth to be in his Hands with it, thou hast already performed within thee, so that Difficulties past, before thou was aware of it.

Object. Many who have closed with Christ Jesus, as is said, are still complaining of their Leanness and Helplessness, which maketh my Heart lay the less weight on that Duty of Believing.

Ans. If you be convinced that it is a Duty to cleave on Christ, as is said, you may not shift it for any Pretence. As for the Complaints of those who have looked after him, not admitting any one to be judge of his own Fruit. I say, many by their Jealousies of God's Love, and by their Mis-belief (after they have so closed with God) do obstruct many precious Communications, which otherwise would be let out to them, Mat. 13. 58. 2. It cannot be, that any whose Heart is gone out after Christ, have found him a Wilderness, Jer. 2. 31. surely they find somewhat in their Spirit swaying them towards God in these two great Things, (viz.) how to be found in him in that Day, Phil. 3. 8, 9. and how to be forth-coming to his Praise in the Land of the Living, Psal. 119. 17. and 56. 13. they find these two Things aloft in the Soul, and that is much; moreover, they shall, after search, if they judge aright, find ever since an emptiness in the Creatures, which abundance of the Creature cannot fill up, all is Vanity; only God can fill the empty room in their Heart, and when he but breatheth a little, there is no room for additional Comfort from Creatures; this faith, that God hath captivated the Man, and hath fixed that saving Principle in the Understanding and Heart, who is God but the Lord; Worship him, all ye Gods, Psal. 97. 7. Yea, further, these whose Heart hath closed with God in Christ, as is said, will not deny that there have been seasonable Preventings and Quicknings now and then when the Soul was like to fail, Psal. 21. 3. and 94. 18, 19. Therefore, let none say, that there is no Fruit following, and let none shift their Duty upon the unjust and groundless Complaints of others.

Object. Although I judge it my Duty to close with God's Device in the Covenant, I am in the dark how to manage that Duty, for sometimes God doth offer to be our God without any mention of Christ, and some sometimes saith, that he will betroth us unto him; and in other places of Scripture, we are called to come to Christ, and he is the Bridegroom. Again, God sometimes speaketh of himself as a Father to Men, sometimes as a Husband; Christ is sometimes called the Husband, and sometimes a Brother, which Relations seem inconsistent, and do much put me in the dark how to apprehend God when my Heart would agree with him, and close with him.

Ans^r. It may be very well said, that Men do come to God, or close with him, and yet they come to Christ and close with him. They may be said to come under a Marriage-Relation unto God, and unto Christ also, who is Husband, Father, Brother, &c. to them, and there is no such Mystery here as some do conceive. For the better understanding of it, consider these few Things.

1. Although God made Man Perfect at the Beginning, and put him in some Capacity of transacting with him immediately, Eccles. 7. 29. Gen. 2. 16, 17. yet Man, by his Fall, did put himself at a perfect distance from God, and in an utter Incapacity to Bargain or Deal any more with him immediately.
2. The Lord did, after Adam's Fall, make manifest the New Covenant, in which he did signifie that he was content to transact with Man again, in and through a Mediator; and so did appoint Men to come to him through Christ, Heb. 7. 25. and to look for Acceptation only in him, Ephes. 1. 6. ordaining Men to hear Christ, He being the only Party, in whom God was well pleased, Mat. 17. 5.
3. This Matter is so clear, and supposed to be so notorious in Scripture, and so manifest to all who are under the Ordinances, that the Lord doth often speak of Transacting with himself, not making mention of the Mediator, because it is supposed, that every one in the Church knoweth that now there is no dealing with God, except by and through Christ Jesus the Mediator. 4. Consider that Christ Jesus, God-man, is not only a fit tryisting place for God and Men to meet in, and a fit Spokesman to Treat between the Parties now at Variance, 2 Cor. 5. 19. But we may say also, he is the immediate Bridegroom, and so our closing or transacting with God, may be justly called the Marriage of the King's Son; and the Elect may be called the Lamb's Life, Christ Jesus being, as it were the Hand which God holdeth out unto Men, and on which they lay hold when they deal with God. And so through and by Christ, we close with God, as our God, on whom our Soul doth terminate lastly and ultimately through Christ, 1 Pet. 1. 21. 5. Consider that the diverse Relations mentioned in Scripture, are set down, to signifie the sure and indissoluble Union and Communion between God and his People: Whatsoever nearness is between Head and Members, Root and Branches, King and Subjects, Shepherd and Flock, Father and Children, Brother and Sister, Husband and Wife, &c. all is here, Job. 17. 21. to 27. So that whatsoever be spoken in Scripture, People may be clear, that God calleth them to be reconciled unto him through Christ, and doth offer himself to be their God and Husband in him alone; and Men are to accept God to be their God in Christ, pleasing that way of Relief for poor Man, and to give up themselves unto God in Christ, in whom alone they can be accepted. And they who close with Christ, they do close with God in him, who is in Christ reconciling the World to himself, 2 Cor. 5. 19. Job. 14. 9. to 12. And we are not to dip further into the diverse Relations mentioned in Scripture, between God or Christ, and Men, then as they may point out Union and Communion, or nearness with God through Christ Jesus, and our Advantage thereby.

These Things being clear, we will not multiply Words. But since to believe on Christ is the great Duty, required of all that hear this Gospel, we obtest every one, in the Lord's Name, to whom the Report of this shall come, that without delay they take to Heart their lost Condition in themselves, and that they lay to Heart the Relief which God hath provided by Jesus Christ, whereof he hath made a free Offer unto all who will be content of the same, and to be saved that way. And that they lay to Heart, that there is no other way of Escape from the Wrath that is to come (because of which Men would be glad at the last Day, to run into a Lake of melted Lead to be hid from the Face of the Lamb, whom they do here despise) We say, we obtest all in the Consideration of these Things, to work up their Hearts to this Business, and to lay themselves open for God, and to receive him through Christ in the offers of the Gospel, acquiescing in him, as the only desirable and satisfying Good, that so they may secure themselves, go speedily and search for his offers of Peace and Salvation in the Scripture, and work up your Heart and Soul to close with them, and with Christ in them, and with God in Christ: And do it so, as you may have this to say, that you were serious, and in earnest, and cordial here, as ever you were in any Thing to your Apprehension and for ought you know; Christ is the choice of your Heart, at least you neither know nor allow any Thing to the contrary: Whereupon your Heart doth appeal unto God to search and try if there be ought amiss, to rectifie it, and lead unto the right way. Now this cleaving of the Heart unto him, and casting it self upon him, to be saved in his way, is believing, which doth indeed secure a Man from the Wrath that is to come, because now he hath received Christ, and believed on him, and so shall not enter into Condemnation, as saith the Scripture.

Object. When I hear what it is to believe on Christ Jesus, I think sometimes I have Faith: For I dare say, to my Apprehension, I am pleased with the Invention of saving Sinners by Christ Jesus, my Heart goeth out after him, and doth determinate upon him as a satisfying Treasure; and I am glad to accept God to be my God in him. But I often do question if ever I have done so, and so am for most part kept hesitating and doubting if I do believe, or be savingly in Covenant with God.

Ans. It is ordinary for many whose Hearts are gone out after Christ in the Gospel, and have received him, to bring the same in question again: Therefore I shall advise one Thing as a notable help to fix the Soul, in the maintaining Faith and an Interest in God; and that is, that Men not only close heartily with God in Christ Christ, as is said, But also, they expressly, explicite-ly, by word of Mouth and vive Voice; and formally close with Christ Jesus, and accept God's offer of Salvation through him, and so make a Covenant with God. And this, by God's Blessing may contribute not a little for Establishing them about their saving Interest in God.

Before I speak directly to this express Covenanting with God, I premise these few Things. 1. I do not here intend a Covenanting with God, essentially differing from the Covenant between God and the visible Church, as the Lord doth hold it out in his revealed Will. Neither do I intend a Covenant, differing essentially from that Transacting of the Heart with God in Christ, formally spoken unto: It is that same Covenant, only it differeth by a singular Circumstance, viz. the formal Expression of the Thing which the Heart did before Practise. 2. I grant this express Covenanting, and Transacting with God, is not absolutely necessary for a Man's Salvation: For, if any Person close heartily and sincerely with God, offering himself in Christ in the Gospel, his Soul and State is thereby secured, according to the Scripture, although he utter not Words with his Mouth: But this express verbal Covenanting with God, is very expedient, for the better being of a Man's State, and his more comfortable maintaining of an Interest in Christ Jesus. 3. This express Covenanting with God by word of Mouth, is of no worth, without sincere Heart closing with God in Christ joyned with it: For, without that, it is but a prophaning of the Lord's Name, and a mocking of him to his Face, so to draw near unto him with the Lips, whilst the Heart is far away from him. 4. I grant, both cordial and verbal Transacting with God will not make out a Man's gracious Estate unto him, so as to put and keep it above Controversie, without joynt Witness of the Spirit, by which we know what is freely given unto us of God; yet this explicate way of Transacting with God, joyned with that Heart-closing with him in Christ, contributes much for clearing up unto a Man, that there is a fixed Bargain between God and him, and will do much to ward off him many groundless Jealousies and Objections of an unstable Mind and Heart, which useth affrontedly to deny this Hour, what it did really Act and Perform the former Hour. This explicate Covenanting, is an Instrument taken of what past between God and the Soul, and so hath its own vantage for strengthening of Faith.

As for this expresse Covenant, we shall, 1. Shew that it is a very warrantable Practice. 2. We shall shew shortly what is preparatorily required of those who do so Transact with God. 3. How Men shall go about that Duty. 4. What should follow thereupon.

As to the First, I say, it is a warrantable Practice and an incumbent Duty, expressly and by word to Covenant with God, which appeareth thus:

1. In many places of Scripture (if we look to what they may bear according to their Scope and the Analogy of Faith) God hath commanded it, and left in on People as a Duty, Isa. 44. 5. One shall say, I am the Lords, Isa. 45. 24. Surely shall one say, In the Lord have I Righteousness and Strength, Jer.

Jer. 3. 4. Wilt thou not cry unto me, My Father, thou art the Guide of my Youth, Zech. 13. 9. They shall say, The Lord is my God, Hos. 2. 16. Thou shalt call me Iſhi, and in many places elsewhere. Now since God hath so clearly left it on Men in the matter of the Word, they may be perswaded, that it is a Practice warranted and allowed by him, and well-pleasing unto him.

2. Arg. It is the approved Practice of the Saints in Scripture, thus expressly to Covenant with God, and they have found much Quiet in that Duty, afterwards. David did often expressly say unto God, that he was his God, his Portion and that himself was his Servant. Thomas will put his Interest out of Question with it, Joh. 20. 28. Yea, I say, the Saints are much quieted in remembrance of what hath past that way between God and them, Psal. 73. 25. Psal. 142. 5. we find it often in the Book of the Canticles. Now shall the chief Worthies of God so much in a Duty, breeding so much Quiet and Satisfaction to them in many Cases, and shall we be under the New Testament, unto whom Access is ministred abundantly, and who partake of the Sap of the Olive; shall we (I say) lie behind in this approved piece of Homeliness with God? Since we study to imitate that cloud of Witnesses in other Things (as Faith, Zeal, Patience, &c.) let us also imitate them in this.

3. Arg. The Thing about which we move here is a matter of the greatest Concernment in all the World: It is the Life of our Soul, Deut. 32. 47. Oh shall Men study to be express, explicate, plain and peremptory in all their other great Businesses because they are such, and shall they not much more be Peremptory and Express in this, which doth most Concern them? I wonder that many not only do not speak it with their Mouth, but that they do not Swear, and Subscribe it with their Hand, and do not every Thing for securing of God to themselves in Christ, and themselves unto God, which the Scripture doth Warrant, Isa. 44.

This also may have its own Weight, as an Argument to press this way of Covenanting with God. The Business of an Interest in Christ, and of real and honest Transacting with him, is a Thing, which in Experience of Saints, is most frequently brought upon Debate and in Question. Therefore Men had need, all the ways they can, even by Thought, Word, and Deed, to put it to a Point.

This also may have Place here for pressing this as a Duty, that God is so Formal, Express, Distinct and Legal, (to say so) in all the Business, of Man's Salvation, viz. Christ must be a near Kinsman, to whom the right of Redemption doth belong; he must be chosen, called, authorized and sent, Covenants formally drawn between the Father and him; the Father, accepting Payment and Satisfaction, giving formal Discharges, all done clearly and expressly. Shall the Lord be so Express, Plain and Peremptory in every part of the Business, and shall our part of it rest in a confused Thought, and we be as dumb Beasts before him? If it were a Marriage between Man and Wife, it would not be judged enough, although there were Consent in Heart given by the Woman, and known to the Man, if she did never express so much by Word, Word, being in a Capacity to do so. Now this Covenant between God and Man, is held out in Scripture as a Marriage between Man and Wife, Hof. 19. 20. 2 Cor. 11. 2. The whole Song of Solomon speaketh it. The Lord useth Similitudes, to signifie unto us what he intends; and surely this is a special Requisite in Marriage, that the Wife give an expresse and explicate Consent unto the Business: The Man saith so, I take thee to be my lawful Wife, and do oblige my self to be a dutiful Husband: The Woman is obliged on the other part, to expresse her Consent, and to say, Even so I take thee to be my lawful Husband, and do promise Duty and Subjection: It is so here: The Lord saith, I betroth thee unto me in Faithfulness, and thou shalt call me My, my Husband, Hosea 2. I will be for thee as a Head and Husband if thou wilt not be for another, Hosea 3. the Man ought to Answer, and say, Amen, So be it, Thou shalt be my God, my Head, and Lord, and I shall and will be thine, and not for another, Cant. 6. 3. And so this making of this Covenant with God, is called, a giving of the Hand to him, as the Word is, 2 Chron. 30. 8. which doth hint a very expresse, formal, explicate and positive bargaining with God. So then, we conclude it to be an incumbent Duty, and a very approved Practice, necessary for the quieting of a Man's Mind, and his more comfortable being in Covenant with God, and more fully answering God's Condescendency and Offer in that great and primary Promise, I will be your God, and ye shall be my People.

Not only may, and should People thus expressly close with God in Christ for fixing their Heart; but they may, upon some occasions, renew this verbal Transaction with God; especially, when through Tentations they are made to question if ever they have really and sincerely closed Covenant with God, as they are to put out new Acts of Faith, embracing Christ as the desireable Portion and Treasure, and also upon other Occasions; so were it expedient especially, if there remain any Doubt about the Thing, that by Viva Voce and express Word, they determine that Controversie, and say of the Lord and to him, that he is their Refuge and Portion, Psal. 91. 2. Psalm 142. We find the Saints doing so; and we may imitate them, especially, 1. In the time of great Backsliding, People were wont to renew the Covenant with God, and we should do so also; our Heart should go out after Christ, in the Promises of Reconciliation with God, for he is our Peace upon all Occasions, and our Advocate, and we are bound to apprehend him so when we Transgress, 1 Joh. 2. 1. and to express so much by Word as Saints did in their formal renewing of the Covenant. 2. When People are in hazzard, then it were good that they should send out their Heart after him, and express their adhering unto him, for securing their own Heart; we find Joshua doing so, when he was to settle in the Land of Canaan, in the midst of Snares, Josh. 24. so David doth in his Straits, Psal. 57. 1. 3. When Men apprehend God to be at a distance from them, and their Soul to be under withering and decay, then it is safest heartily to close with Christ,

Christ, and Embrace him by Faith for securing of the Soul, and it were good to put it out of Question, by the Expression of the thing; this is the ready Way to draw Sap, from Christ the Root, for recovering of the Soul, and for Establishing the Heart before him. The Spouse in the Song of Solomon doth so, thus asserting Her interest in Him, when in such a condition; Professing, and avowing him to be her Beloved, Can. 5. 4. At the Celebration of the Lords Supper, Men should thus Cordially close with God in Christ, and speak and express so much; for, that is a Feast of Love, and then, and there we come under a solemn Profession of Closing with God in Christ, personally, and openly, and do receive the Seal of it: It is therefore be- seeming, at that time, to bring up both Heart and Tongue to Second and Answer our Profession, apprehending God to be our God, and resigning over our selves to be his, and at his disposing; we shall not confine the Lords People, to Times and Seasons of this Duty; the Lord may bind it upon them at his Pleasure; only there is hazard, that by too frequent express Covenanting with God, Men turn too formal in it; therefore, it is not so fit that People should cordially, at full length re- new* that explicite Transaction with God, but rather to declare unto God, that they adhere unto the Covenant made with him, and that they do maintain, and will never revoke, nor recal the same; and withal, they may hint the sum of it, in laying claim unto God in Christ, as their own God; and this they may do often, even in all their Addresses to God; and probably this is the thing designed by the Saints, in their so ordinary Practice

Practice in the Scripture, whilst they assert their interest in God, as their God and Portion; and it is fit that Men in all their Walk, hold their Heart at the Business, by Heart-cleaving to God in Christ, The Life we Live in the Flesh, should be by Faith in the Son of God, Gal. 2. 20.

As to the second thing, viz. What is Preparatory required of him who is expressly to Transact with God. Here besides what we spake before as previous to a Mans closing with Christ Jesus, we only add, 1. That he that would explicitly bargain with God, must know, that to do so, is warranted and allowed by God, as we shewed before: if this be wanting, a Man cannot do it in Faith, and so it will be Sin unto him, Rom. 14. 23. 2. The Man must labour to bring up his Heart to the thing, that it do not belie the Tongue; it will be a great mocking of God, so to draw near him with the Lips, whilst the Heart is far off from him, Jsa. 29. 13.

The Third thing to be considered in this express Verbal Covenanting with God, is the Way how it is to be performed and managed; and besides what was said before in Heart-closing with Christ, I add here, 1. The Man should do it Confidently, not only Believing that he is about his Duty when he doth it; but also that God in Christ Jesus will accept his poor imperfect Way of doing this Duty; he doth accept a Man according to what he hath, if there be a willing mind, 2 Cor. 8. 12. a Mite is accepted, since it is all the poor Womans Substance, Mark 12. 44. Yea, if it can be attained, the Man should Believe that the Issue and and Consequence of this Transacting shall prove Comfortable, and all shall be well, and that God, who engageth for all in the Covenant (since he hath determined the Man to this happy Choice) will in some measure make him forthcoming, and will perfect what Concerns him; Faithful is he who hath promised, who will also do it, 1 Thess. 5. 24. If this Confidence be wanting, the matter will be done with much Fear and Jealousie, if not worse, and will still prove a disquieting Business to the Man. 2. It should be done Holyly: It is called the Holy Covenant, Luke 1. 72. The Holy Things of David, Acts 13. 34. Here it were fitting, that what is done in this express Transacting with God, should not be done passingly, and on the By, but in some special Addresses unto God; the thing should be spoken unto the Lord, Psal. 142. 5. It is befitting in so great a Business, that a piece of Time were set apart for Confession and Supplication before God: Yea, also the Person so Transacting with God, should Labour to have high Apprehensions of Gods Greatness and Sovereignty, 2 Sam. 7. 22. Although he thus humble himself to behold things in Heaven and Earth, and these high and holy Thoughts of him, will and should be attended with Debasing and Humbling Thoughts of self, although admitted to this high Dignity. 2 Sam. 7. 18. It is no small thing to be allyed unto, and with the great God of Heaven, and his Son Christ, as David speaketh; when King Saul did offer his Daughter unto him, 1 Sam. 18. 22. Yea, further, there should be special Guarding and Watching, that the Heart keep Spiritual in Transacting with God; there is great Reason for this Holy Way of performing the Duty; for

for, Men are ready to forget themselves, and to shape the Lord according to their own Fancy, and to turn carnal in the Business, since it is a Marriage Transaction held out in all the ordinary Expressions of Love, as in the Song of Solomon, Isa. 62. 5. Zeph. 3. 17.

The Fourth thing we shall speak a Word unto, is, what shou'd follow upon this Express Verbal Covenanting with God; I say, beside that Union, and Communion with God in Christ, following upon believing, if a Man explicitly by Word Transact with God, 1. He should thenceforth be singularly careful to abide close by God in all manner of Conversation; for if a Man thenceforth do any thing Unsuitable, he doth Falsifie his Word before God, which will stick much in his Conscience, and prove a Snare; if a Man henceforth forget God, and take on him to dispose of himself, since he is not his own, and hath opened his Mouth unto the Lord, he makes enquiry after Vows, and devoureth that which is Holy, Pro. 20. 25. 2. He who so Transacteth with God, should hold steadfast that Determination and Conclusion; it is a shame for a Man, whose Heart hath closed with God, and whose Mouth hath ratified and confirmed it solemnly before him, to contradict himself again, and to admit any thing to the contrary, he ought boldly to maintain the thing against all Deadly.

Then let me Obtest you who desire to be Established in the matter of your Interest in God, that with all Conveniency you set apart a piece of Time for Prayer before God, and Labouring to Work up your Heart to Seriousness, Affection, and the Faith of the Duty, to make a Covenant, and to Transact with God by express Words after this manner.

O Lord

O Lord, I am a lost and broken Creature by Nature, and by innumerable actual Transgressions which I do confess particularly before Thee this Day; and although, being Born within [the visible Church, I was from the Womb in Covenant with Thee, and had the same Sealed unto me in Baptism, yet for a long time I have Lived without God in the World, Senseless and Ignorant of my Obligation, by virtue of that Covenant. Thou hast (at length) Discovered unto me, and bound upon my Heart, my miserable State in my self, and hast made manifest unto my Heart the satisfying Relief thou hast provided by Christ Jesus, offering the same freely unto me, upon Condition that I would accept of the same, and would close with thee as my God in Christ: Warranting and Commanding me upon my utmost Peril, to accept of this Offer, and to Flee unto Christ Jesus: yea, to my Apprehension, now thou hast Sovereignly determined my Heart, and shaped it for Christ Jesus, leading it out after him in the Offer of the Gospel, causing me to approach unto the Living God, to close so

so with him and to acquiesce in his Offer, without any known Guile; And that I may come up to that Establishment of Spirit in this matter, which should be to my Comfort, and the Praise of thy glorious Grace; Therefore, I am here this Day to put this Matter out of question, by Express Words before thee, according to thy Will: And now I, unworthy as I am, do declare, that I Believe, that Christ Jesus, who was slain at Jerusalem, was the Son of God, and the Saviour of the World; I do Believe that Record, that there is Life Eternal for Men in him, and in him only; I do this Day in my Heart, plead and acquiesce in that Device of Saving Sinners by him, and do Intrust my Soul unto him; I do accept of Reconciliation with God through him, and do close with thee as my God in him; I choose him in all that he is, and all that may follow him, and do resign up my selfe, and what I am, or have, unto thee, desiring to be Divorced from every thing hateful unto thee and that without Exception, or Reservation of any thing (consistent with my knowledge, or intended Reversion; here I give the Hand to thee, and do take all things about me Weaknesses, that I, whatever I be, or have hitherto hitherto been, do accept of God's offer of Peace through Christ, and do make a sure Covenant with Thee this Day never to be Reversed, hoping that Thou wilt make all things forth-coming, both on Thy part and mine, seriously begging (as I desire to be Saved) that my Corruptions may be Subdued, and my Neck brought under thy sweet Yoke in all things, and my Heart made chearfully to acquiesce in whatsoever thou dost unto me, or with me, in order to these ends. Now, Glory be unto thee, O Father, who devised such a Salvation, and gave the Son to accomplish it; Glory be to Christ Jesus, who at so dear a Rate, did Purchase the out-letting of that Love from the Fathers Bosome, and through whom alone this Access is granted, and in whom I am Reconciled unto God, and Honourably United unto him, and am no more an Enemy or Stranger: Glory to the Holy Ghost, who did alarm me when I was destroying my self; and who did not only convince me of my Hazard, but did also open my Eyes to behold the Relief provided in Christ; yea, and did persuade and determine my wild Heart to fall in Love with Christ, as the enriching Treasure; and this Day doth teach me how to Covenant with God, and how to Impropriate to my self all the sure Mercies of David, and Blessings of Abraham, and to secure to my self the Favour and Friendship of God for ever. Now with my Soul, Heart, Head and whole Man, as I can, I do acquiesce in my Choice this Day, henceforth resolving not to be my own, but Thine; and that the care of whatsoever concerns me, shall be on Thee, as my Head and Lord, protesting humbly that Failings on my part, (against which I resolve, Thou knowest) shall not make void this Covenant; for so hast Thou said, which I intend not to abuse, but so much the more to cleave close unto Thee, and I must have Liberty to Renew, Ratifie, and Draw Extracts of this Transaction, as often as shall be found needful. Now I know Thy consent to this Bargain, stands Recorded in Scripture, so as I need no new Signification of it; and I, having accepted of thy Offer upon thy own Terms, will henceforth wait for what is Good, and for thy Salvation in the End; as thou art faithful, Pardon what is amiss in my Way of doing the thing, and accept me in my sweet Lord Jesus, in whom I only desire Pardon; and in Testimony hereof, I set to my Seal, that God is True, in declaring him a competent Saviour.

Let

Let People Covenant with God in fewer or more Words, as the Lord shall dispose them ; for we intend no Plat-form of Words for any Person ; only it were fitting that Men should, before the Lord, acknowledge their lost State in themselves, and the Relief that is by Christ, and that they do declare that they accept of the same, as it is offered in the Gospel, and do thankfully rest satisfied with it, intrusting themselves henceforth wholly unto God, to be Saved in his Way, for which they look, according to his Faithfulness. If Men would heartily, and sincerely do this, it might through the Lords Blessing, help to Establish them against many Fears and Jealousies; and they might date some good thing from this Day and Hour, which might prove comfortable unto them when they fall in the dark afterwards, and even when many Failings do stare them in the Face, perhaps at the hour of Death, 2 Sam. 23. 5. It is much if a Man can appeal unto God, and say, Thou knowest there was a Day and an Hour, when in such a place, I did accept of Peace through Christ, and did deliver up my Heart to Thee, to write on it thy whole Law without exception; Heaven and Earth are Witnesses of it : Remember Thy Word unto Thy Servant, on which Thou causedst me to hope.

Object. I dare not adventure to speak such words unto God, because I find not my Heart coming up full length in Affection and Seriousness: So, I should but Lie unto God, in Transacting so with him.

Answ. It is to be regrated that Mens Heart doth not with much boundedness of Desire and Affection

142 How to attain unto a Saving

Embrace and Welcome that Blessed Offer and Portion. Yet for Answer to the Objection, remember, 1. That those to whom the Lord giveth the New Heart, forming Christ, in them, the whole Heart is not Renewed; there is Flesh and Spirit Lusting against each other, the one contrary unto the other, so as a Man can neither do the Good or Evil he would do with full fore-sail, Gal. 5. 17. It is well if there be a good part of the Heart going out after Christ, desiring to close with him on his own Terms. 2. That there is often a rational Love in the Heart unto Christ Jesus, expressing it self by a Respect to his Commandments, 1 John 5: 3. when there is not a sensible prevailing Love which maketh the Soul sick, Can. 2. 5. Men must not always expect to find this. I say then, although somewhat in your Heart draw back, yet if you can say, you are convinced of your broken State without him, you want a Righteousness to cover your Guilt, and you want strength to stand out against Sin, or to do what is pleasing before God: You also see fulness in him in both these Respects: You dare say, somewhat within your Heart, would be fain at him upon his own Terms, and would have both Righteousness for Justification, and Strength in order to Sanctification; and what is within you contradicting this, is your Burthen, in some measure, and your Bondage. If it be so, your Heart is brought up a tolerable length; go on to the Business, and determine the Matter by Covenanting with God, and say with your Mouth, That you have both Righteousness and Strength in God, as he hath sworn you shall do, Isa. 45. 24. It is approved Divinity to say unto God, I Believe, when much Mis-belief is in me, and the Heart divided in the Case, Mark 9. 24. Withal, shew unto God, how matters are in your Heart, that so you may be without Guile before him, concealing nothing from him, and put your Heart, as it is in his Hand to Write his Law on it, according to the Covenant; for that is the thing he seeketh of Men, that they deliver up their Heart to him, that he may stamp it with his whole Will, without Exception; and if you can heartily consent unto that, judging Christ's Blood a sufficient Ransome, and Satisfaction for Mans Transgression, you may go, and expressely strike Covenant with God; for your Heart and Affection is already engaged.

Object. I dare not so Covenant with God, lest I break to him; Yea, I perswade my self, that if such a Temptation did Offer so and so Circumstantiate, I should fall before it, and succumb. Therefore to Transact so with God, whilst I foresee such a thing, were but to aggrede my Cendemnation.

Answ. 1. You have already entred Covenant with God, as you are a Member of his visible Church; and what is now preft upon you, is, that you may more heartily, sincerely, particularly, and more expressely Covenant and Transact with him; you are already obliged heartily to close wth God in Christ; and, if you do it in Heart, I hope the hazard is no greater by saying that you do so, or have done so. 2. What will you do if you shift hearty Transacting with God in Christ, and do not accept his Peace, as it is Offered? You have not a Second of it in the World; either you must do this, or Perish for ever: And if

if you do it with your Heart, you may also say with your Tongue. 3. If People may scare a Covenanting with God, because they will afterwards Transgress, then not one Man should Covenant with God; for surely every one will Transgress afterwards, if they live any length of Time after the Transaction; and we know no Way like this, to secure Men from falling: For if you Covenant honestly with him, he engageth, besides The new Heart, to put his Fear and Law therein to give his Spirit to cause you to walk in his Way. And when you Covenant with God, you deliver up your self unto him, to be Sanctified and made Conform to his Will; it is rather a giving up your self to be led in his Way in all things, and kept from every evil way, then any formal Engagement on your part, to keep his Way, and hold off from Evil. So that you need not scare at the Covenant, the Language whereof is Wilt thou not be made Clean? Jer. 13. 27. And all that shun to strike Covenant with God, thereby declare, that they desire not to be made Clean. 4. As it is hard for any to say Confidently, they will Transgress, if such a Temptation do offer so and so Circumstantiate; because Men may think, that either God will keep a Temptation out of their way, or not suffer them to be Tempted above what they are able to bear, or give them a way of escape, Psal. 46. 1. 1 Cor. 10. 1. So the question is not, what I may do afterward but, what I now resolve to do. If my Heart charge me presently with any Deceit or Resolution to Transgress, I must lay aside that Deceit before I Transact with God: But if my Heart charge charge me with no such purpose, yea, I dare say, I resolve against every Transgression; and although I think I shall fall before such a Temptation, yet that thought floweth not from any allowed, and approved Resolution to do so; but from knowledge of my own Corruption, and of what I have done to provoke God to desert me. But the Lord knows, I resolve not to Transgress, nor do I approve any secret Inclination of my Heart to such a Sin, but would reckon it my singular Mercy to be kept from Sin in such a Case; and I judge my self a wretched Man, because of such a Body of Death within me, which doth threaten to make me Transgress. In that Case, I say, my Heart doth not Condemn me, therefore I may, and ought to have Confidence before God, 1 Joh. 3. 21. In this then be the Case, I say to thee, although thou shouldest afterwards fail many wayes, and perhaps draw upon thy self sad temporal Strokes hereby, and lose for a Season many Expressions of his Love, yet there is an Advocate with the Father to plead thy Pardon, 1 John 2. 1. Who hath satisfied for our Breaches, Isa. 53. 5, 6. And for his sake, God resolveth to hold fast the Covenant with Men after their Transgression, Psal. 89. 30, 37. else how could he be said to Betroth himself to us for ever? Hos. 2. 19, 20. And how could the Covenant be called Everlasting, ordered in all things and true, If there were not ground of Comfort in it, when our House is not so and so with God? 2 Tim. 23. 5. Yea, it were no better than the Covenant of Works, if those who enter it with God, could so depart from him again, as to make void unto themselves, and to put themselves into a worse Condition than they were in before they made it, Jer. 32. 40. compared with Heb. 8. 6. The Lord hateth putting away Mal. 2. 16. No honest Heart will stumble on this, but will rather be strengthened thereby in Duty, Hos. 14. 9. For other Ties and Bonds, beside Divorce, and Punishment by Death, do oblige the Ingenious Wife unto Duty. So there Men will fear the Lord and his Goodness, Hos. 3. 5.

Object. I have at the Celebration of the Lords Supper, and at some other Occasions, Covenanted expressly and verbally with God; but my Fruitlessness in his Ways, and the renewed Jealousies of my Gracious State, maketh me Question if ever I Transacted with God in Sincerity, and I think I can do it no otherways then I have done it.

Ans. 1. Men are not to expect fruitfulness according to their desire, nor full Assurance of God's Favour, immediately after they have fled unto Christ, and expressly transacted with God in him. These Things will keep a Man on work all his Days: The Saints had their Failings and Shortcomings, yea, and Back-slidings, with many Fits of dangerous Mis-belief, after they had very seriously, and sincerely, and expressly closed with God, as their God in Christ. 2. Many do look for Fruitfulness in their Walk, and Establishment of Faith, from their own Sincerity in Transacting with God, rather than from the Spirit of the Lord Jesus. They have their Heart in their own Honesty and Resolutions, and not in the Blessed Root Christ Jesus, without whom we can do nothing, and are Vanity altogether in our best Estate. Men should remember, that one piece of Grace cannot produce any Degree of Grace: for there is nothing can work Grace, but the Arm of Jehovah: And if Men would lean unto Christ, and Covenant with him as their Duty absolutely, whatsoever may be the consequence, at least, looking only to him for the suitable Fruit, it should be far better with them: God pleaseth not that Men should betake themselves unto Christ, and Covenant with him for a Season, until they see if such and such Fruit and Establishment shall follow, purposing to disclaim their Interest in him, and the Covenant, if such and such Fruit doth not appear within such a length of time. This is to put the Ways of God to Tryal, and is very displeasing unto him. Men must absolutely close with Christ, and Covenant with him, resolving to maintain these things as their Duty, and a ready way to reach Fruit, whatsoever shall follow there upon, they having a Testimony within them, that they seriously design Conformity to his revealed Will in all things; and they that have closed Covenant with him for the same end, as well as to be Saved thereby. 3. Men should be sparing to bring in question their sincerity in Transacting with God, unless they can instruct the same, or have great Presumptions for it. If you can instruct any Deceit or Guile in your Transacting with him, you are obliged to disclaim and rectifie it, and to Transact with God honestly, and without Guile: But if you know nothing of your Deceit or Guile, in the day you did Transact with him; yea, you can say, that you did appeal unto God in that Day, that you dealt honestly with him, and intended not to deceive; and did obtest him according to his Faithfulness, to search and try if there was any Crookedness in your way, and to discover it unto you, and heal it, Psal. 139. 23, 24. And afterwards you came to the Light, that your Deeds might be Manifest, John 3. 20, 21. And you can say, that Gods answers from his Word to you, in so far as you could understand, were answers of Peace, and Confirmations of your sincerity; Yea, further, you dare say, that if upon Life and Death, you were again to Transact with him, you can do it no other way, nor intending more Sincerity and Seriousness than before: Then I dare say unto thee in the Lords Name, thou oughtest not to question thy Sincerity in Transacting with God, but to have Confidence before God, since thy Heart doth not Condemn thee, 1 Joh. 3. 21. And thou art bound to Believe that God dealeth uprightly with the upright Man, And with the pure doth shew himself pure, Psal. 18. 25, 26. If a Man intend honestly, God will not suffer him to Beguile himself, yea, the Lord suffereth no Man to deceive himself, unless the Man intend to deceive both God and Men. 4. Therefore, impute your Unfruitfulness to your Unwatchfulness, and your Misbelief; and impute your want of full Assurance, unto an Evil Heart of Unbelief, helped by Satan to act against the glorious Free Grace of God; and charge not these things upon want of Sincerity in your closing with Christ; And resolve henceforth to abide close by the Root, and you shall bring forth more Fruit; and by much Fruit you lay your self open to the witness of Gods Spirit, which will testify with your Spirit, that you sincerely and honestly closed with God, and that the rest of your Works are wrought in God, and approved of him; and so the Witness of the Spirit and the Water, joyning with the Blood

Blood, where-upon you are to lay the weight of your Soul and Conscience; and where alone you are to sink the Curses of the Law, due unto you for all your Sins and Failings in your best things. These three do agree in one, viz. That this is the Way of Life, and Peace, and that you have Interest therein, and so you come to Quietness and full Assurance, John 15. 4, 5. and 14. 21, 23. Rom. 8. 16. 1 John 5. 1.

O Blessed Bargain of the New Covenant, and thrice Blessed Mediator of the same! Let him ride prosperously, and subdue Nations and Languages, and gather in all his Jewels, that Honourable Company of the First-born, and stately Troop of Kings and Priests, whose Glory it shall be to have washed their Garments in the Blood of that spotless Lamb; and whose Happiness shall continually flourish in following him whithersoever he goeth; and in being in the immediate Company of the Ancient of Dayes, one sight of whose Face shall make them in a manner forget that ever they were on the Earth. THE

THE WHOLE TREATISE

Resumed in a few Questions and Answers.

Quest.

W*hat is the great Business a Man hath to do in the World?*

Answ. To make sure a Saving Interest in Christ Jesus, and to walk suitably thereunto.

Quest. 2. Have not all the Members of the visible Church a Saving Interest in Christ?

Answ. No verily; yea, but a very few of them have it.

Quest.

Quest. 3. How shall I know, if I have a Saving Interest in him?

Ans. Ordinarily the Lord prepareth his own way in the Soul, by a work of Humiliation, and discovereth a Man's Sin and Misery to him, and exerciseth him so therewith, that he longs for the Physician, Christ Jesus.

Quest. 4. How shall I know if I have got a competent discovery of my Sin and Misery?

Ans. A competent Sight of it, maketh a Man take Salvation to Heart above any thing in this World: It maketh him disclaim all Relief in himself, even in his best Things: It maketh Christ, who is the Redeemer, very precious to the Soul: It maketh a Man stand in awe to Sin afterwards, maketh him content to be saved upon any terms God pleaseth.

Quest. 5. What other way may I discern a Saving Interest in him?

Ans. By the going out of my Heart seriously and affectionately towards him, as he is held out in the Gospel; and this is Faith or Believing.

Quest. 6. How shall I know if my Heart goeth out after him aright, and that my Faith is true Saving Faith?

Ans.

Ans. Where the Heart goeth out aright after him, in true and saving Faith, the Soul pleaseth Christ alone above all Things, and pleaseth him in all his three Offices, to Rule and Instruct, as well as to Save; and is content to cleave unto him, whatsoever Inconvenience may follow.

Quest. 7. What other Mark of a Saving Interest in Christ can you give to me?

Ans. He that is in Christ savingly, is a new Creature, he is graciously changed and renewed in some measure, in the whole Man, and in all his ways; pointing towards all the known Commands of God.

Quest. 8. What if I find Sin now and then prevailing over me?

Ans. Although every Sin deserveth everlasting Vengeance, yet if you be afflicted for your Failings, confess them with shame of Face unto God, resolving to strive against them honestly henceforth, and flee unto Christ for Pardon, you obtain Mercy, and your Interest stands sure.

Quest. 9. What shall the Man do who cannot lay claim to Christ Jesus, nor any of those Marks spoken of?

Ans.

Ans. Let him not take rest, until he make sure unto himself a Saving Interest in Christ.

Quest. 10. What way can a Man make sure an Interest in Christ, who never had a saving Interest in him hitherto?

Ans. He must take his Sins to Heart, and his great Hazard thereby, and he must take to Heart God's Offer of Pardon, and Peace through Christ Jesus, and heartily close with God's Offer, by betaking himself unto Christ, the Blessed Refuge.

Quest. 11. What if my Sins be singularly heinous, and great beyond ordinary?

Ans. Whatsoever thy Sins be, if thou wilt close with Christ Jesus by Faith, thou shalt never enter into Condemnation.

Quest. 12. Is Faith in Christ only required of me?

Ans. Faith is the only condition, upon which God doth offer Peace and Pardon unto Men. But be assured, Faith, if it be true and saving, will not be alone in the Soul, but will be attended with true Repentance, and a thankful Study of Conformity to God's Image.

Quest.

Quest. 13. How shall I be sure that my Heart doth accept of God's offer, and doth close with Christ Jesus?

Ans. Go make a Covenant expressly, and by Word speak the Thing unto God.

Quest. 14. What way shall I do that?

Ans. Set apart some bit of time, and having considered your own lost Estate, and the relief offered by Christ Jesus, work up your Heart to please and close with that Offer, and say unto God expressly, that you do accept of that Offer, and of him to be your God in Christ; and do give up your self to him to be saved in this way, without Reservation or Exception in any Case; and that you henceforth will wait for Salvation in the way he hath appointed.

Quest. 15. What if I break unto God afterwards?

Ans. You must resolve on his Strength not to break, and watch over your own way, and put your Heart in his Hands to keep it: And if you break, you must confess it unto God, and judge your self for it, and flee to the Advocate for Pardon, and resolve to do no more so: And this you must do as often as you fail.

Quest.

Quest.

Quest. 16. How shall I come to full Assurance of my Interest in Christ, so as it may be above Controversie?

Answ. Learn to lay your Weight upon the Blood of Christ, and study Purity and Holiness in all manner of Conversation, and pray for the Witness of God's Spirit to joyn with the Blood and the Water; and his Testimony added unto these, will establish you in the Faith of, and Interest in Christ.

Quest. 17. What is the Consequence of such closing with God in Christ by Heart and Mouth?

Answ. Union and Communion with God, all Good here, and his Blessed Fellowship in Heaven for ever afterwards.

Quest. 17. What if I slight all these Things and lay them not to Heart, to put them in Practice?

Answ. The Lord cometh with his Angels in flaming Fire, to render Vengeance to them who obey not this Gospel; and thy Judgment shall be greater than the Judgment of Sodom and Gomorrah; and so much the greater, that thou hast read this Treatise: For, it shall be a Witness against thee in that Day.
